INFORMATION AND CREDENTIALS

Direct all requests for further information, interviews and game credentials to:

Baylor Sports Information Office
3031 Dutton
Waco, Texas 76711
817-755-1234 FAX No. 817-755-1369

WORKING CREDENTIALS

Credential requests should be directed to the Sports Information Office at least five days prior to home games. Credentials are issued on a priority basis with daily newspapers, national magazines, originating television and radio networks and television tape crews receiving top priority.

All requests should be on official letterhead. Credentials will not be mailed after Tuesday. Press Will Call is on the pressbox elevator.

Credentials are issued to bona fide sports personnel with a legitimate working function. They are nontransferable. Any misrepresentation or unauthorized use subjects the bearer to ejection and prosecution for criminal trespass. Baylor reserves the right to issue or revoke credentials at its discretion.

NO CHILDREN, NO SPOUSES, NO GUESTS, WORKING SPORTS PERSONNEL ONLY.

Media should make their own arrangements for away game credentials.

PHOTO PASSES

Only professional photographers on assignment from a news outlet will be issued photo credentials. NO FREE-LANCE PHOTOGRAPHERS ARE ADMITTED. Specify whether sideline or photo deck passes are needed. All photographers must wear armbands worn in plain sight. Armbands are available in the pressbox prior to kickoff.

NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line surrounding the field and outside the 30-yard lines (team area). Those not complying will be ejected.

PRESS PARKING

Parking spaces are quite limited and will be assigned on the same priority as credentials. The press parking lot is located below the pressbox entrance on the west side of the stadium.

STATISTICS/SERVICES

Statistics, pre-game notes, speed cards and programs will be available in the pressbox. Quarter, halftime and final stats, a play-by-play and post-game quotes will also be provided. Coach Grant Teaff comes to the pressbox about 30 minutes after the game for further interviews.

A meal is served prior to the game and at halftime. Snacks and soft drinks are available throughout the game.

COMMUNICATIONS

Ample outside telephones are provided by Baylor for writers using computers. Each publication will be billed for use of Baylor lines. The SID Office will FAX post-game stats to publications.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

After the customary "10-minute cooling off period" Baylor players will be brought to the interview room located across the hall from the Baylor locker room. Grant Teaff will conduct his post-game interviews there as well. At other times throughout the week all interviews must be arranged through the SID office. No interviews will be conducted after Thursday's practice.

SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE

The Baylor SID office is located on the northeast corner of Floyd Casey Stadium (opposite the pressbox side) in the area that formerly housed the football offices.

Normal office hours are 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. A member of the SID staff will be at each practice.

MONDAY PRESS CONFERENCE

Each Monday during the season coach Grant Teaff holds a press conference at noon in the new Bear Clubroom (third floor) of the endzone building at Floyd Casey Stadium. All media representatives are welcome to attend. Lunch is served.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE MEDIA SERVICES

For information regarding the Southwest Conference or the Cotton Bowl Classic, contact SWC Media Relations Director Bo Carter or Assistant Media Relations Director Charlie Fiss at 214-634-7353. The SWC mailing address is P. O. Box 569420, Dallas, Texas 75356-9420.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE MEDIA TELECONFERENCES

Each Sunday and Wednesday throughout the season coach Grant Teaff will be available for interviews on the SWC media teleconferences. He will be on the line at 3 p.m. Sundays and 12 noon Wednesdays. Please call the SWC Media Relations Office at 214-634-7353 for the hookup telephone number.

TELEVISION HIGHLIGHT SATELLITE FEED

The weekly SWC satellite feeds will be each Tuesday from 2:30-3:30 p.m. (CDT) from September 1 through November 24 on Telstar 301, Transponder 12-V, Channel 23 (Standard Audio 6.2 and 6.8 MHz). Please call the SWC Media Relations Office (214-634-7353) for more information.

THE UNIVERSITY

Baylor University was chartered by the Republic of Texas in 1845 and is the oldest university in continuous existence in the state. As the world's largest Baptist institution of higher education and one of the nation's major academic church-related institutions, Baylor strives to provide liberal arts and professional education in a Christian environment.

Baylor emphasizes high academic and personal standards: its paramount, all-inclusive aim is to prepare well-qualified students to "make a living and make a life" in a democratic society. Students come to the university from all states, and Baylor welcomes a growing number of international students.

As of fall 1990, enrollment at the university numbered some 12,000. More than 200 social, service, professional, religious and honorary student organizations—from national fraternities and sororities to the nation's first collegiate chapter of Habitat for Humanity and one of the country's largest Baptist Student Unions—provide opportunities for recreation, development of social skills, spiritual and intellectual stimulation and pursuit of individual interests.

Cultural activities at the university include numerous presentations by prominent lecturers and performances by musicians and entertainers. In addition to offering varsity sports as a member of NCAA Division I and the Southwest Athletic Conference, Baylor provides an extensive, balanced program of intramurals. Facilities on campus offer opportunities for such recreational activities as bowling, racquetball, swimming, tennis, sailing, canoeing and boating.

LOCATION

Located on the banks of the Brazos River in Central Texas, Waco is a thriving city of 110,000 people. The city is very near the population and geographic center of the state; within 100 miles of Dallas, Fort Worth and Austin and within easy driving distance of Houston, San Antonio and the Gulf Coast.

MAJORS AND DEGREES

Baylor's undergraduate programs are available in the College of Arts and Sciences and five separate schools: Education, Music, Nursing, the Hankamer School of Business, and the University School. Undergraduates may choose from 35 baccalaureate degree programs covering more than 110 majors areas of study. Dual-degree programs may be obtained on the undergraduate level.

Graduate work is offered in the College of Arts and Sciences, the Schools of Education, Law and Music, and the Hankamer School of Business. Graduate degrees also are attainable at the College of Dentistry in Dallas and the U.S. Army Academy of Health Sciences in San Antonio.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

Baylor, a Phi Beta Kappa university and one of the top 50 universities in numbers of National Merit Scholars, operates on a two-semester academic year plus two 6-week summer sessions. In the first two years, all students select courses that will provide a broadly-based liberal arts education. All students, except those in the School of Music, start in the College of Arts and Sciences. By the third year, students who wish to enter one of the other disciplines may seek admission to the desired schools.

Coursework is enhanced by opportunities to study beyond the classroom, including the university's international programs in more than 15 countries and hands-on experiences such as archaeological digs from Waco to Isreal. One-year exchange programs are available with universities in England, Hong Kong and Japan.

COSTS

The estimated annual cost for the 1991-92 academic year is $10,188 for tuition, books fees, room and board but excluding personal expenditures and travel. Tuition is $5,500 for 30 hours at $185 per semester hour. These costs are subject to change for the 1991-92 academic year.

FINANCIAL AID

Four basic forms of financial aid — scholarships, grants, loans and campus jobs — are available and are based on merit and need. About 60 percent of the student body receive assistance.

FACULTY

Baylor has approximately 650 faculty members who teach 96 percent of all classes. The student-faculty ration is 19:1, and a typical class numbers 35 students.

Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds
President

A native Texan, Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds became the 11th president of Baylor University on June 1, 1981. Dr. Reynolds has been instrumental in development of the entire University with over $100 million of additional facilities built.

1992 Baylor Football Outlook

A few good football programs seem to have a knack for always producing some part of the game you can depend on, a way of adjusting to different players, new circumstances and changing times to field solid teams.

A year ago, everybody associated with the Baylor program felt the squad's backbone would be big, strong, veteran lines on both sides of the ball. The skill positions had good, young potential, but it was the men in the trenches that grabbed the attention in 1991.

Now the tables are turned: downsized, quick, youthful lines will play in front of an outstanding array of established skill players...and the Baylor football program has another good chance to succeed.

Despite heavy losses on the line - none of the defensive front four starters return and only one first-teamer is back on the offensive front - the program still has something to hang its hat on, an area of strength that breeds optimism and gives Bear faithful the feeling that despite some changes, things could turn out pretty well after all.

But more on those outstanding skill players later.

Coach Grant Teaff took his squad into spring training last March looking for two solid offensive lines. By late April he reported the men who pave the way had made "considerable progress" toward reaching that goal.

"We lack experience and size, but that will come," he said. "This is the youngest offensive line we've had since the group that just graduated came in, but I believe this group is as talented as any we've started with. In fact, I feel like we might have the talent to play two offensive lines next fall. That's what I'd like to do."

On defense the move necessitated by graduation was toward quicker linemen. Teaff reports: "We won't overpower anybody the way we have for several years. We lack the overall size to do that, but this will be the fastest, quickest defensive team we've had in years."

"Last year we were a wall on defense. This year we'll be a machine gun. We'll have people flying to the football, hitting hard and fast."

And what about the skill players? "Suffice it to say we have proven strength in the returning skill players. Our quarterback, tailback, fullbacks and wide receivers all have the talent to be All-Conference. Yes, we've got veteran skill people who can win at this level," Teaff said.

Teaff emphasized special teams throughout the spring. Secondary coach Scott Smith was given the added duties of special teams coach to help ensure that all-important phase of the game would be solid.

BAYLOR FOOTBALL QUICK FACTS

1991 RECORD: 8-4, 5-3-0 SWC 2T

BASIC OFFENSE: I-formation veer

BASIC DEFENSE: 4-3

STARTERS RETURNING: 9 (6 offensive, 3 defensive)

STARTERS LOST: 15 (5 offensive, 8 defensive, 1 kicker, 1 punter)

LETTERMEN RETURNING: 14 (11 offensive, 13 defensive, 0 specialists)

LETTERMEN LOST: 10 (7 offensive, 3 defensive)

So circumstances change but the overall goals remain the same: Baylor will strive to be a winning team, to continue to be a fundamentally sound program that can lineup with anybody on any given Saturday and compete with the best in the country.

Position-By-Position

Quarterbacks

13 J.J. Joe, Jr-2L, 5-11, 179

27 Steve Needham, Jr-1L, 6-1, 198

31 Lance Marburger, Jr-1L, 5-11, 189

J.J. Joe enters his third Baylor season with an 11-4 record as a starting quarterback. A second-team Academic All-American last year (the only underclassman among the top 44 honorees), Joe combines intelligence with good athletic ability and the knack for making plays. He runs the option smoothly and is a solid enough passer to be ranked among Baylor's all-time greats in the school record book. So confident are the Baylor coaches in Joe's overall abilities and grasp of the offense, was given more freedom in calling plays at the line of scrimmage last spring.

Teaff compares Joe's level of maturity to that of former All-SWC standouts Cody Carlson and Tom Muecke. "Experience is the key. When you can call plays at the line the way those guys did, it puts you at a big advantage."

And Joe's importance to the 1992 Baylor Bears cannot be underestimated. Said Teaff, "For this team that is so young at so many positions to be competitive, J.J. has to have his best season ever."

The situation behind Joe became somewhat muddled during the spring. Steve Needham, an experienced backup and solid player in his own right, missed virtually the entire spring with a shoulder injury. And Tony Moore, a promising redshirt freshman, sat out spring training with a hamstring pull.

Injuries to Needham and Moore left the spring training backup duties to redshirt freshman walk-on Kevin Rhea and Lance Marburger, a defensive back converted to his old high school position on an emergency basis. They will be joined by a couple promising freshman in the fall to give the Bears a full stable of quarterback reserves.

Tailbacks

5 David Mims, Jr-2L, 5-9, 176

28 Kendrick Bell, So-1L, 5-9, 160

35 Clarence McCullough, Fr-Sq, 5-8, 203

David Mims enters his senior season as one of the SWC's top running backs. He has a chance to wind up as Baylor's No. 2 career rusher which speaks volumes about his ability since the Bears produced more NFL running backs than any other school in the '80s.

Teaff said Mims had his best spring ever this year, benefiting tremendously from Baylor's off-season program, while becoming much stronger and tougher. Those attributes should go well with Mims' quick, elusive running style.

Kendrick Bell started last season as a defensive back but was pressed into duty on the other side of the ball late in the year. His showing as a ball carrier in '91, coupled with a solid spring, has Teaff believing Bell will be an outstanding backup to Mims this season and a future star in the years to come.

Bell certainly brings speed to the tailback slot, perhaps better speed than Baylor has ever fielded in a running back. And, Teaff reported, Bell is a tough runner who doesn't mind moving through heavy traffic.

Further tailback depth emerged last spring in the form of Clarence McCullough, a redshirt freshman. McCullough, voted by his teammates as the Most Improved Player in spring training, can get the hard yards, those that come after being hit.

All three tailbacks can catch the ball well too, something they'll be called up to do at times as inside slot receivers in the Bears' new spread passing formation.

The improvement shown by all three tailbacks last spring prompted Teaff to say, "I feel very good about our tailback situation. We have good depth, as good as any we've had in a long time. And we've yet to see what Brandel Jackson will do." Jackson is a highly touted incoming freshman.

Fullbacks

- 24 John Henry, Jr-2L, 5-8, 196
- 20 Robert Strait, Jr-2L, 6-1, 240

Teaff likes to refer to his fullback combination of Robert Strait and John Henry as "Thunder and Lightning." It's not hard to guess which is which. Strait carries 260 lbs. like most men his height (6-1) carry 220. He's a prototypical power fullback who can move the line back a couple of yards himself. Henry checks in at 5-8, 196. He can slip through a hole in the line and race through the secondary like most tailbacks.

But while Strait is known for power and Henry for speed, both are complete players. Strait has shocked more than one defensive back with his rapid movement through the secondary. And Henry has no problems ramming into the line for tough yardage. Individually, they're great players. Rotating with one another, they're an awesome contrast and combination. And they produced virtually identical numbers last fall.

Wide Receivers

- 19 Reggie Miller, Sr-1L, 5-9, 160
- 83 Melvin Bonner, Sr-3L, 6-3, 205
- 26 Tyrone Smith, Fr-Sq, 5-11, 171
- 12 Melvin Callies, Jr-Sq, 5-8, 203

Everybody knew Baylor would enter 1992 with a truly great pass catching threat in Melvin Bonner. With great size, speed and hands, the All-SWC performer is a made-for-the-NFL type of pass catcher. But after spring training, close Bear observers contend Reggie Miller will keep the green and gold from being one-dimensional at wide receiver.

While Bonner with his big play threat will likely wind up as one of Baylor's all-time receiving greats, Miller will make a contribution catching the ball and working as a return man on special teams. Both Bonner and Miller are tremendous athletes who have helped the Bears install a spread formation for use in some situations this fall.

Depth behind the talented pair is thin. Tyrone Smith has been moved in from the secondary and Melvin Callies has moved outside from quarterback to help shore up the position. Their continued development will play a big part in Baylor's success this year.

Tight Ends

- 89 Mike McKenzie, Sr-3L, 6-3, 243
- 86 Sean Glassco, Jr-2L, 6-3, 233
- 81 Todd Crawford, So-Sq, 6-0, 214

Mike McKenzie is a senior with good experience and talent. After being used as a part-time player for several years, he's now in position to shine. Sean Glassco has been a good backup and with continued improvement will contribute. Todd Crawford has been moved over from defense and has done a good job learning the position. Still, McKenzie looms as a key. If he can come on the way Alonzo Pierce did last year to contribute in so many ways, he would be a genuine asset to the team.

McKenzie and Glassco are also effective at the I-back, or blocking back, position. These are the men who line up behind the quarterback and go in motion to get a jump on the defense. David Loeb and Bradford Lewis, former fullbacks, are also ready for this duty.

Offensive Line

- LT 78 Mike Oatis, So-Sq, 6-4, 262
- LT 71 Ricky Heard, Fr-Sq, 6-3, 275
- LG 65 Will Davidson, So-1L, 6-4, 274
- LG 63 Edwin Newman, Fr-Sq, 6-3, 278
- C 77 Chuck Pope, Jr-Tr, 6-1, 287
- C 55 John Turner, Fr-Sq, 6-4, 262
- RG 76 Chuck Bellamy, Jr-2L, 6-3, 266
- RG 69 David Leaks, Jr-1L, 6-4, 330
- RT 66 Len Pawelek, So-Sq, 6-5, 270
- RT 58 Fred Miller, Fr-Sq, 6-7, 239

As mentioned, the offensive line was a top priority heading into spring training. With only one starter returning, it was essential that two lines become established. Teaff said he feels the Bears came out of spring training with good potential in the line, even if it is a bit on the young and small side compared to some of his groups in the past.

One of the most pleasant surprises of spring training came from Chuck Pope, a junior college All-American transfer who not only nailed down the starting center job, he indicated he could be outstanding. No line is solid without strength in the middle and Pope provides Baylor with that strength at center. Marty Dunbar, a well liked sophomore who missed spring training with a knee injury, should provide good depth at center along with John Turner, a redshirt freshman.

Craig Bellamy is the only returning veteran on the line, and although he missed much of spring training with a sprained toe and played tackle last year, he should be a solid right guard. Will Davidson finished the spring at the No. 1 left guard spot. With some more experience, he should be fine. More youngsters provide the guard depth: Edwin Newman, a redshirt freshman with a good future, and David Leaks, a junior letterman.

1992 Baylor Football Outlook

Mike Oatis made waves at left tackle last spring and indicated he could be a future star. A sophomore squadman, he impressed coaches with his fine athletic ability. Len Pawelek is from the same class and had a similar fine showing at right tackle. A pair of redshirt freshmen, Ricky Heard and Fred Miller, hold the backup positions. Like so many members of the line, they are short on experience but appear to have good talent.

Defensive Line

LE	96	Albert Fontenot, Sr-1L, 6-4, 243
LE	91	Byron Thompson, Fr-Sq, 6-5, 209
LT	80	Scotty Lewis, So-1L, 6-4, 250
LT	64	Bryan Tanner, Fr-Sq, 6-2, 214
RT	90	Steve Strahan, So-1L, 6-2, 294
RT	52	Gary Mabry, Jr-Sq, 6-1, 220
RE	48	Matthew Pearson, Sr-1L, 6-4, 243
RE	49	Lamone Alexander, Jr-2L, 6-3, 210

Despite the loss of all four starters, the list of first-teamers on the defensive line in '92 is not a bad one. Left end Albert Fontenot is a senior defensive end who, according to Teaff, would be a Lombardi and Outland candidate had he been in the program a full four years. "Albert came in as a junior college transfer and last year he was behind an All-Conference performer (Robin Jones). If he had had the chance to build a national reputation over the years, he'd be up there with all the big names. He has the size, quickness, speed and work habits." Fontenot was a co-recipient of the Outstanding Effort Award in spring training.

Matthew Pearson is another honors candidate at the right end position. He's reached a level of comfort with the position and now has the experience to shine. Redshirt freshman Byron Thompson is a talented backup who will get some playing time behind Fontenot while Lamone Alexander and Ray Ford provide depth behind Pearson as could JC newcomer Earnest Crownover.

At tackle, Steve Strahan, a true sophomore and Scotty Lewis a redshirt soph, should develop into a force. Although young, they get high marks for quickness and effort. There is expected to be little or no drop-off in production from the tackles this year.

The tackle depth will likely come in the form of players who have yet to step on campus. Steve Horton, a 1991 signee who has five years to play after a year in prep school, Joseph Asbell, a JC transfer, and Darryl Gardener, a true freshman, could figure into the rotation.

Linebackers

SLB	42	Robbie Birleson, Sr-1L, 6-1, 225
SLB	43	Shawn Cravens, Sr-1L, 5-10, 219
MLB	61	Lee Bruderer, Sr-3L, 6-1, 224
MLB	99	Tony Tubbs, Jr-Sq, 6-2, 227
WLB	7	Le'Shai Maston, Sr-3L, 6-1, 215
WLB	38	Shelton Lewis, Fr-Sq, 6-3, 204

Le'Shai Maston, at weakside linebacker, is underrated but may well be the best in the Southwest Conference. A former defensive back who still runs like someone in the secondary, Maston gets to the ball and delivers a blow as well as anyone. Redshirt freshman Shelton Lewis appears to have the talent to play a solid backup and be a future starter at the weakside. He was voted the Most Improved Defensive Player in spring training.

In the middle Lee Bruderer is coming off an excellent spring. Although he underwent arthroscopic surgery for stretched ligaments suffered in the spring game, he should be ready for two-a-days. He should give Baylor the solid linebacking needed in the middle of a 4-3 formation. Junior squadman Tony Tubbs is listed as the No. 2 man behind Bruderer and redshirt freshman Donnie Laurence holds down the No. 3 spot. Both could contribute.

Robbie Birleson emerged from the spring with the strongside 'backer job ahead of Shawn Cravens, a senior, and Chad Boyd, a redshirt freshman.

Defensive Secondary

LC	33	Michael McFarland, Sr-3L, 5-10, 178
LC	44	Fred Robertson, Sr-Sq, 5-10, 190
RC	3	Keith Caldwell, Sr-3L, 5-11, 180
RC	25	Raynor Finley, Fr-Sq, 5-9, 171
SS	15	Tim Spencer, Sr-Sq, 5-10, 200
SS	4	Andrew Swasey, Jr-Tr, 6-0, 190
FS	18	Chris Lewis, So-1L, 6-3, 187
FS	8	Chad Hunter, Jr-Sq, 6-0, 185

Two starters return in the defensive backfield; both are former safeties who now line up at cornerback. Michael McFarland, an All-Conference performer at strong safety, was moved to left cornerback (and won the Outstanding Effort Award last spring) and Keith Caldwell, a starting free safety, went to right corner. They are both fine players who can play winning football at the highest level.

The moves of Caldwell and McFarland opened the door for sophomore Chris Lewis to take over at free safety and Tim Spencer to move up at strong safety, a combination which should be productive. Lewis is a highly-touted sophomore and Spencer is a senior squadman.

Backups include Fred Robertson, a veteran, and Raynor Finley, a redshirt freshman, at the corners and Andrew Swasey, a transfer, and Chad Hunter, who was moved from offense, at the safeties.

Kickers

K	29	Trey Weir, Sr-Sq, 5-8, 161
P	16	Rhett Delaney, So-Sq, 6-1, 195

Trey Weir, who has seen some action, won the kicking job in the spring and should be backed up by Mike Chilton. Both have decent range and accuracy. Rhett Delaney edged Kyle Miller for the punting nod, based on consistency. Jeff Chancellor will do the deep snapping with Jason Young holding. The top candidates for the punt and kickoff return positions are Fred Robertson, John Henry, Andrew Swasey and Reggie Miller.

Coaching Staff

Athletic Director

Head Football Coach Grant Teaff

In times when people face great challenges they turn to great leaders. That is exactly what Baylor University did May 4, 1992 when it named head football coach Grant Teaff to succeed the retiring Bill Menefee as Athletic Director.

In a move that bucked tradition, Teaff became Baylor's A.D. immediately but will continue to coach through the 1992 season.

Teaff was viewed by everyone involved as the perfect man to build upon Menefee's solid foundation and lead Baylor into the difficult days that lie ahead in college athletics.

Teaff's move up to the director's position was called by many a matter of "fit." Teaff is the right man at the right time, just as he was 21 years ago when Baylor needed a new football coach.

When Teaff was hired to coach Baylor's downtrodden football program in 1972 some people said the challenges were too great, that there were too many obstacles to overcome. When the final gun sounds this year Teaff will end one of the most illustrious coaching careers the Southwest Conference has ever seen.

Heading into his 21st year at Baylor and 30th as head coach Grant Teaff has proven he is one of the nation's top coaches running one of college football's most solid programs.

He is 121-100-6 (at Baylor), 79-71-3 in SWC play and 3-4 in bowl games. He is 163-146-8 overall in 29 years as a head coach. He has been named SWC Coach of the Year six times (1972, 1974, 1979, 1980, 1983, 1985) and National Coach of the Year once (1974). Teaff has coached 16 first-team All-Americans and 81 first-team All-SWC performers.

Teaff is the nation's second-ranked coach for tenure at his present school (behind Joe Paterno), the fourth-ranked coach for SWC wins (79), third-ranked coach for games as an SWC head coach (226), third-ranked coach for seasons in the SWC (20), sixth-ranked coach for wins by an SWC coach (121), ninth-ranked active coach for career wins (163) and 20th-ranked active coach for winning percentage. He is also the 37thranked coach for total career wins in college football history.

Teaff has coached 12 post-season all-star games, including the East-West Shrine Game three times, the Blue-Gray Game three times, the Hula Bowl four times and the All-Americans Game and Japan Bowl once each. Teaff has been in the SWC with 38 other head coaches.

Teaff has coached against such schools as Alabama, Air Force, Auburn, Brigham Young, Clemson, Colorado, Florida State, Georgia, LSU, Miami, Michigan, Nebraska, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Penn State, Pittsburgh and USC. He has coached against such legendary figures as Bear Bryant, Joe Paterno, Darrell Royal, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Vince Dooley, Shug Jordan, Tom Osborne, Frank Broyles, LaVell Edwards, Bill McCartney, Lou Holtz, Barry Switzer, Bill Yeoman, Jimmy Johnson, Johnny Majors and Hayden Fry.

That Teaff has achieved such success at Baylor is nothing short of incredible.

In 1972 he took over a Baylor program some experts said should drop out of the SWC. The Bears' 20th head coach inherited a team with a dismal 3-28 record the three years before he arrived. But worse than the on-field performance was the losing image the program held.

Teaff immediately went to work instilling a winning attitude in Bear faithful throughout Texas and it spilled over onto the football field. Teaff's first squad went 5-6 and came very close to earning a bowl bid. Only 13 points kept them from post-season play.

The Snyder native won SWC Coach of the Year honors in 1972 and repeated it two years later when Baylor produced "The Miracle on the Brazos," Baylor's first conference title in 50 years and first ever appearance in the Cotton Bowl. Teaff won National Coach of the Year honors that year as well.

That season broke the ice and convinced the world Baylor could not only compete with the Southwest Conference, but with any team in college football.

Since then the Bears have made a fairly regular habit of making a run at the conference title and earning a spot in a post-season bowl. In 1979 Teaff took a team picked near the bottom of the SWC and finished with an 8-4 record and a Peach Bowl victory over Clemson. Again, Teaff was named Coach of the Year.

The 1980 Bears were picked to finish sixth in the SWC, but instead finished sixth nationally with a 10-1 record. The Bears went 8-0 in the league and took the championship by a record three games. Also, the Bears broke 28 school records and led the conference in both offense and defense.

Teaff again was named Coach of the Year.

The 1983 season was another in which Teaff's Bears stunned the SWC. Picked eighth in the pre-season polls, suffering an incredible string of injuries and playing out of revamped offensive and defensive formations with a virtually new coaching staff, Teaff put together a seven-win season and won another Coach of the Year Award.

In 1985 the Bears were picked eighth in the SWC. But Teaff's crew won nine games and set a number of school records. Baylor's only three losses that year were to Top 20 teams on the road.

Only a gut-wrenching 17-10 loss to Texas in Austin kept the Bears from getting another conference championship ring and taking their third trip to the Cotton Bowl. Instead, Baylor soundly defeated LSU in the Liberty Bowl. After the season Teaff was given his sixth Coach of the Year Award.

In 1986 Baylor proved '85 was no fluke. They finished the season 9-3 and boasted offensive and defensive squads ranked near the top of the NCAA statistics.

Only a 31-30 loss to Texas A&M in College Station kept Baylor from winning the conference and going to another Cotton Bowl. Instead the Bears won the Bluebonnet Bowl 21-9 over Big Eight runner-up Colorado.

The 1987 Bears put together a third straight winning season, going 6-5 and coming within one play of heading to a bowl game.

In 1988 Baylor defeated Texas for the seventh time in eight tries in Waco to successfully complete their fourth winning season in as many years with a 6-5 record. The 1989 season was marred by injuries, but ended with Baylor producing the most lop-sided victory (50-7) over Texas in SWC history.

In 1990, the Bears overcame incredible adversity to finish second in the SWC and just missed a chance at the Cotton Bowl. The 1991 season produced eight wins, including victories over Colorado, Houston, Arkansas and Texas, and a trip to the Copper Bowl.

In addition to producing winning football teams, Teaff has become recognized as one of college football's great statesmen. He helps shape the game as a member of the NCAA Rules Committee. He is also chairman of the American Football Coaches Association ethics committee.

Teaff played two years of junior college football at San Angelo College and was an All-Texas Conference linebacker at McMurry College in Abilene. He was a multi-sport letterman at Snyder High School in West Texas. He captained teams at all three levels.

Teaff entered the coaching field at Lubbock High as an assistant coach. His alma mater, McMurry, then called him and he took the job as the nation's youngest head football coach. After a successful stay he went to Texas Tech as recruiting coordinator and assistant football coach. His next move was to Angelo State where, in three years, he posted a 19-11 mark, including a 7-3 record in 1971.

In 1972 he was called to Baylor to begin the challenge of his life. Bear football hasn't been the same since.

Teaff's coaching philosophy places emphasis on personal development of the individual athlete and motivation to gain maximum performance. He has coached 16 Baylor players to first team, All-American status and dozens more to All-SWC honors.

Nine of Teaff's former assistants have gone on to become head football coaches somewhere on the college level. Eddie Williamson took over the reigns at VMI and Joe Broeker became the head coach at Willamete. John O'Hara took the head job at Southwest Texas State, Bill Hicks became the head coach and athletic director at Howard Payne and Corky Nelson was appointed at North Texas.

Dal Shealy (Richmond), Bill Young (West Texas State, UT-El Paso), Ron Harms (Texas A&I), and Pat Culpepper (Northern Illinois) left earlier after training under Teaff.

Teaff is highly regarded for his speaking ability and is one of the nation's most sought-after speakers. He is recognized widely for his speeches on motivation to reach one's full potential. Teaff is one of the country's top football clinic speakers as well. He is active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and has served on its board of directors.

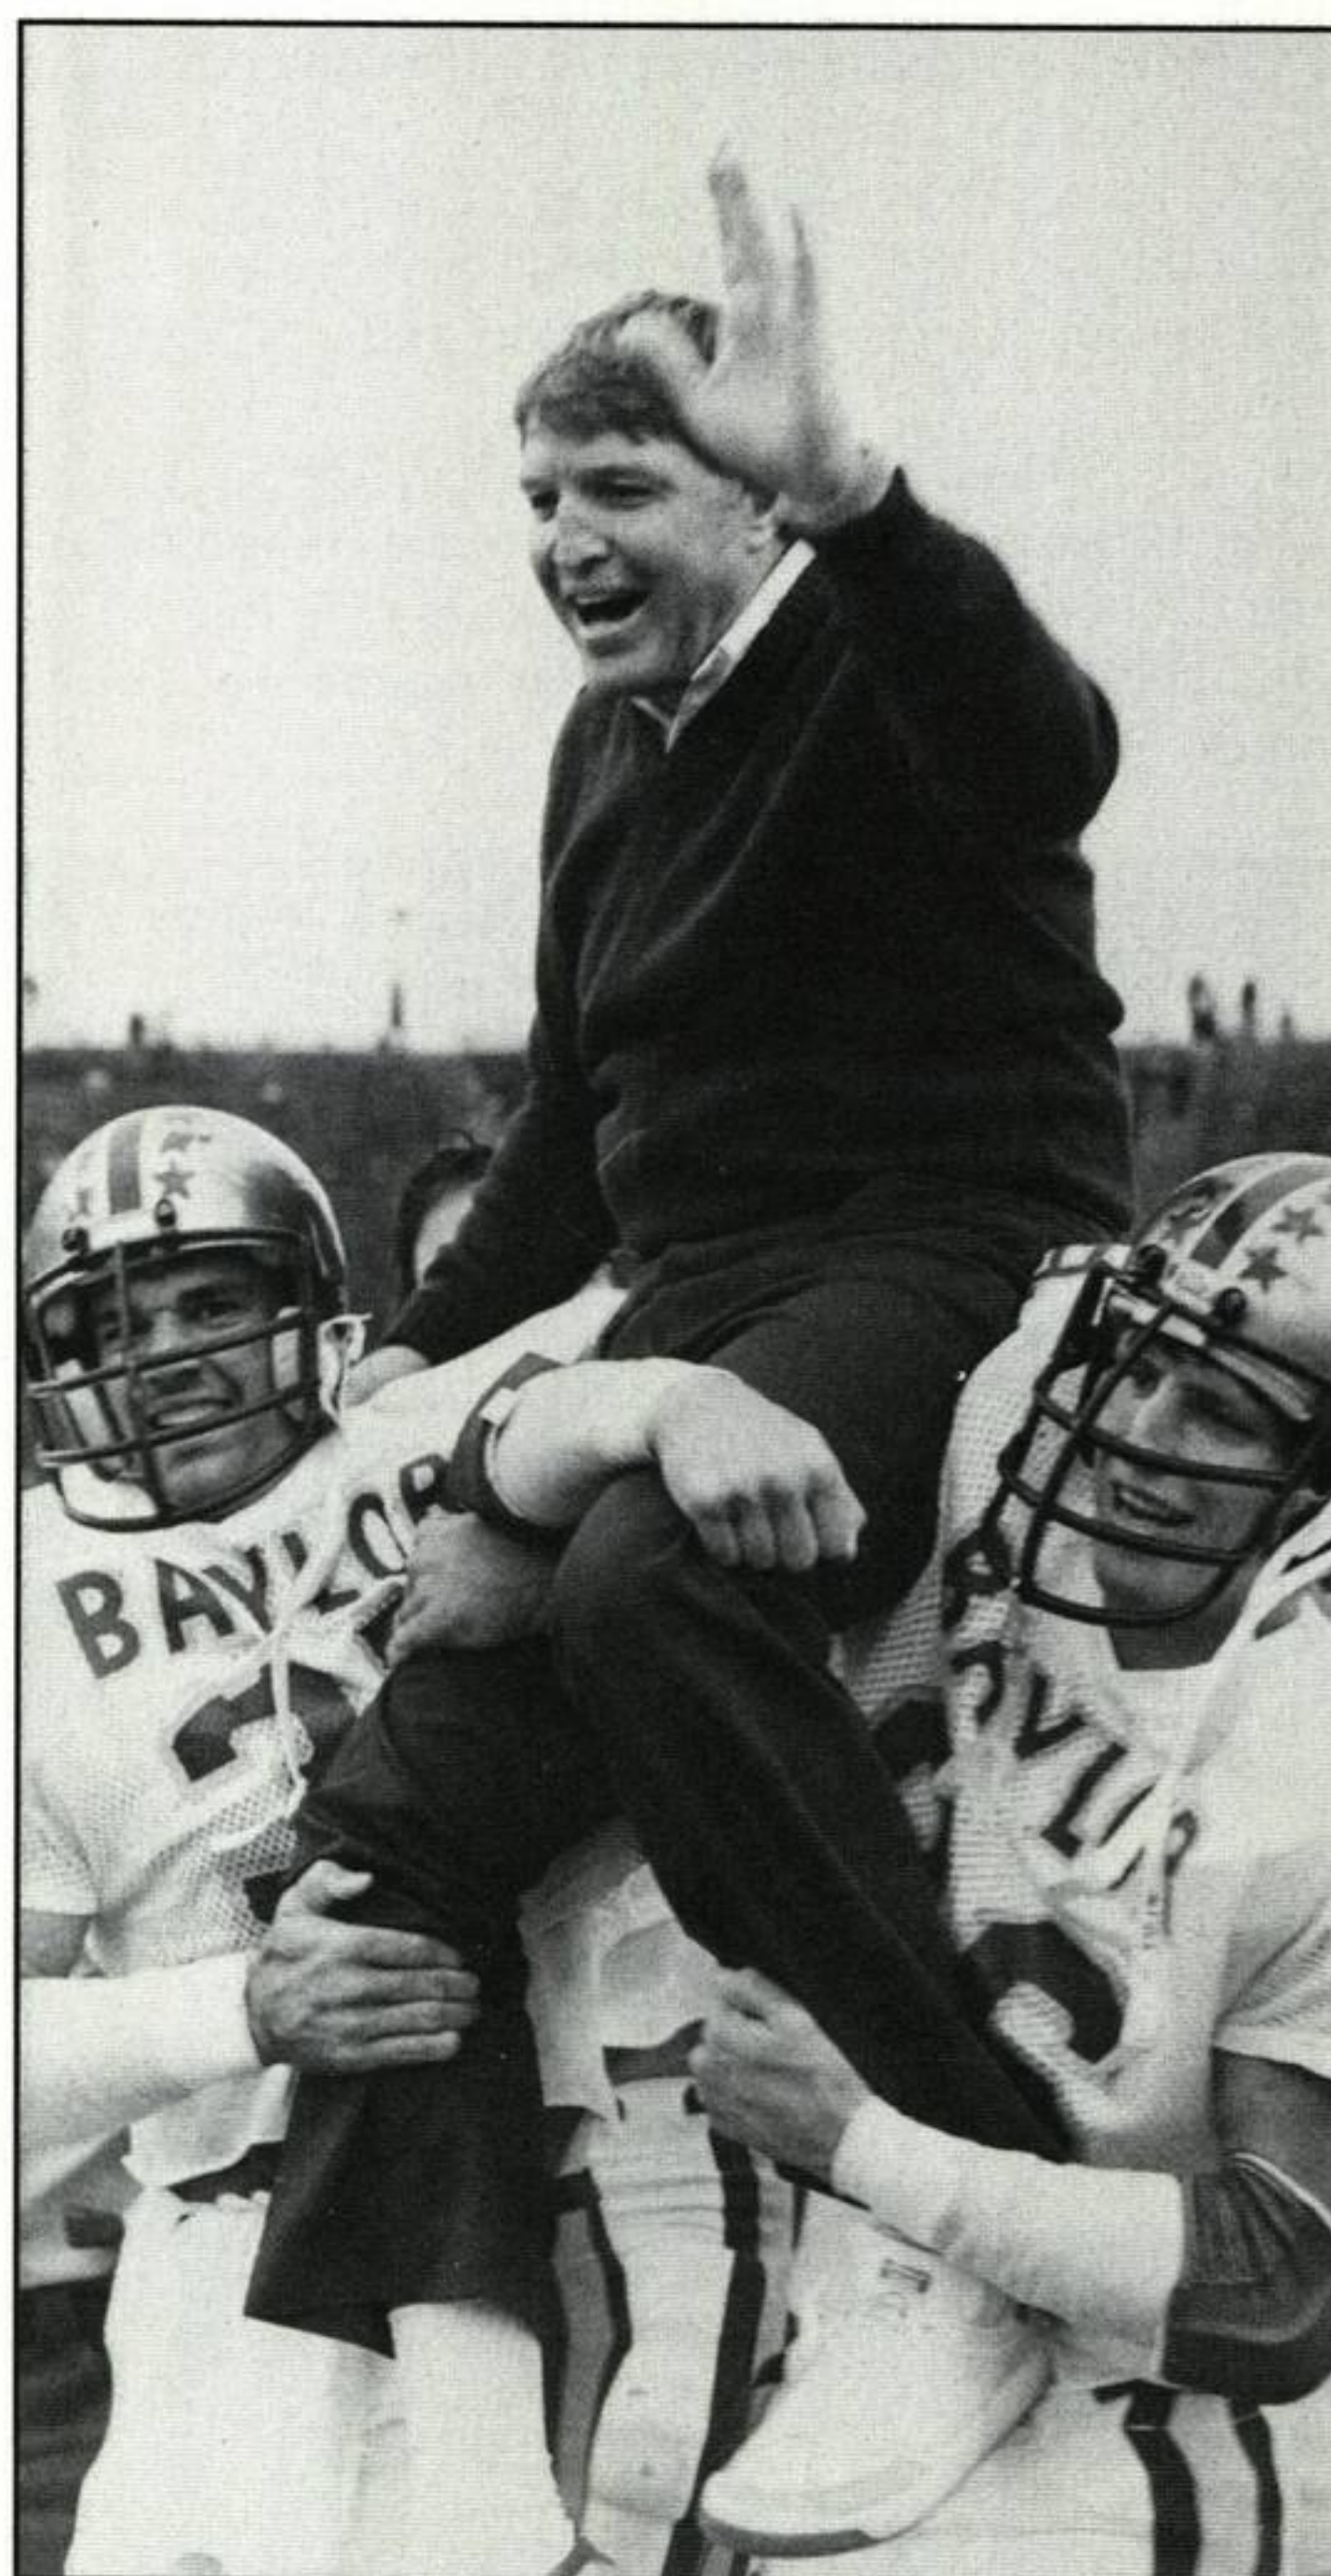

Grant Teaff's first news conference in 1972.

In ceremonies at 1986 Homecoming, Teaff was awarded the Alumnus Honoris Causa for distinguished service to Baylor University. The award is given only to "a fraction of one percent" of those associated with the University.

In 1987, he was given the highest honor bestowed by the Texas High School Coaches Association, the Distinguished Service Award.

Teaff and his wife, Donell, a former Texas Tech cheerleader, have three daughters. Tammy, Tracy and Layne are all Baylor graduates. The Teaffs also have two perfect grandchildren.

Teaff, who will be long remembered as one of the greatest football coaches in Southwest Conference history, now takes on the challenge of leading the Baylor Athletic Department into the most challenging days ever faced by college athletics.

Teaff takes a victory ride after winning the 1980 SWC championship.

Cotton Davidson

■ Executive Assistant Receivers

Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame member Cotton Davidson is in his 21st season on Grant Teaff's staff and first as Baylor's executive assistant coach.

Davidson, who came to Baylor in 1972 when Teaff became head coach, has playing and coaching experience at every level of football.

Davidson was born November 3, 1931, in Gatesville where he still resides and ranches. He was a multi-sport star there before graduating in 1949.

Davidson, 60, earned three football and two baseball letter from 1951-53 at Baylor. He lettered at safety on Baylor's 8-2-1 Orange Bowl team and played backup quarterback to All-American Larry Isbell in 1951. He started at quarterback in 1952-53, completing 127 of 312 passes for 1,871 yards and 11 TDs. He was named All-Southwest Conference his senior year.

After his senior season, Davidson played in the East-West Shrine Classic, where he was a team co-captain, and in the College All-Star game in Chicago. Davidson graduated from Baylor in 1953 with a B.S. in physical education.

Drafted No. 1 by the Baltimore Colts, Davidson started three games as a rookie in 1954. In 1959, Davidson quit pro football and followed coach John Bridgers to Baylor to help install the Colts' famed offense.

With the formation of the American Football League in 1960, Davidson joined with the Dallas Texans. He started two years and was named to the AFL All-Star team. He won AFL All-Star Game MVP honors in 1961 after tossing four touchdown passes.

From 1962-70, Davidson played for the Oakland Raiders and while there participated in the 1968 Super Bowl. During his career, Cotton played for such legendary coaches as Hank Stram, Weeb Eubank and current Raider owner Al Davis.

Davidson, who still has close ties to the NFL, rejected an offer to become the offensive backfield coach at Oakland when Teaff called in 1972. Since then he has tutored All-Southwest Conference quarterbacks Neal Jeffrey, Jay Jeffrey, Tom Muecke, Cody Carlson and Brad Goebel. All-SWC receivers Charles Dancer, Gerald McNeil, Bruce Davis, Matt Clark, and Melvin Bonner all blossomed under Davidson's tutelage.

Baylor's passing attack gained over 2,000 yards every year from 1983 through 1987. In '83 Cody Carlson and Tom Muecke combined for 2,468 yards passing and in 1986, the Bears broke that mark with 2,577 passing yards.

Cotton married Carolyn Mabery on June 5, 1954, in Breckenridge, and the couple has four children and eight grandchildren. Sons Tommy and Ty and daughters Kelly Wood and Tracy Sage are all Baylor graduates. Tommy was an outstanding wide receiver for the Bears from 1975-77 and was named to Baylor's All-Decade Team of the 70's. In his spare time, Cotton enjoys a little hunting and fishing.

Pete Fredenburg

■ Assistant Head Coach Defensive Tackles

Entering his first season as Baylor's assistant head coach, Pete Fredenburg has established himself as one of the Southwest Conference's premiere assistant coaches.

With Fredenburg as defensive coordinator from 1983-91, the Bears boasted defenses that were ranked among the nation's best against both the pass and run.

In 1990, the Bears led the league in total defense, allowing 298.6 yards per game. They were also first against the run with 124.3 yards per contest allowed.

The 1984 Bears were 10th in the nation against the run while 1985's pass defense finished third nationally. In 1986, Baylor ranked third nationally in total defense and sixth in rushing defense. In 1988 the Baylor defense led the nation in pass defense at 117.8 yards a game and his total defense was ranked fifth in the nation at 257.7 yards a game. In 1989 BU was sixth in the country in pass defense and ninth overall.

Fredenburg, 45, joined the Baylor staff in 1980 as a part-time defensive end coach. He went full-time and took over defensive line duties in 1981 when Bill Hicks left to become Howard Payne's head coach. When Billy Mills left the Baylor defensive coordinator position after the '82 season, Fredenburg replaced him.

Born September 15, 1946, at Lubbock, Fredenburg was raised in Clifton, where he earned All-District honors in four sports. After graduating from Clifton High School in 1965, he went to Southwest Texas State in San Marcos.

Fredenburg earned three letters at SWTS and was a two-year starter at a linebacker spot. The 1967 Bobcat team, coached by Bill Miller, was nationally ranked. Fredenburg graduated with honors in 1970 and earned a Master's at SWTS in 1977.

Fredenburg entered the coaching field at New Braunfels Canyon High 1970. A year later he moved to New Braunfels High as defensive coordinator. While on the staff there, the Unicorns compiled a record of 40-23 and finished second in the district twice, won district once, reaching the state quarterfinals.

Fredenburg became the Giddings' head coach in 1977. In two years there his teams went 12-8 and finished second in the district twice.

Since becoming a Baylor staff member, Fredenburg has coached All-Southwest Conference performers Charles Benson, Max McGeary, Steve Grumbine, Derek Turner, Kevin Marsh and Santana Dotson. Benson and Dotson also earned All-American honors.

Fredenburg married the former Karen Buckner on July 12, 1969, in League City. The couple has three children: Kori, Denver and Cody. Fredenburg lists his hobbies as hunting and fishing. He is active in the Episcopal church.

Chuck Reedy

■ Offensive Coordinator Quarterbacks

Chuck Reedy became Baylor's offensive coordinator in 1990 and has quickly went about the business of helping re-establish Baylor's I-formation veer option attack as one of the best in the Southwest Conference. Reedy came to Baylor after guiding one of the nation's most productive offenses at Clemson.

During Reedy's 12-year stint at Clemson, the Tigers put together a record of 96-29-4 while winning a national championship and seven Atlantic Coast Conference championships.

Reedy coached seven All-ACC players and 12 who went on to play professional ball. He recruited eight All-Conference honorees and six All-Americans. The last four years Reedy was offensive coordinator, Clemson went 38-8-2, won three ACC titles, played in four bowl games and held four Top 20 rankings.

Reedy's last four Clemson offenses averaged 381 yards a game, 256 rushing and 125 passing. They scored 27.9 points a game while controlling the ball 33 minutes. Clemson averaged one fumble, .69 interceptions and .4 sacks a game when Reedy coordinated the offense.

A native of St. Augustine, Florida, Reedy played football, basketball and ran track at St. Augustine High School. He won All-Conference and All-District honors as a football player in 1967.

He attended Appalachian State and lettered two years as an outside linebacker. After graduating with a B.S. in 1971, Reedy began his coaching career at Appling County High School in Baxley, Georgia as an assistant coach.

Reedy then became the head coach at Baker County High School in MacClenny, Florida. In his four years at Baker, Reedy's teams went 29-13, winning two conference championships.

Twice Reedy was named Coach of the Year at Baker. After that successful run he joined the Clemson staff in 1978. While there the Tigers played in eight bowl games.

Reedy and his wife, the former Janet Dobson, have four children: Kris, Brooke, Blaine and Brienne.

John Goodner

■ Defensive Coordinator Linebackers

One big reason the Baylor defense ranked first in the SWC overall and against the run in 1990 was the play of the Bear linebackers coached by John Goodner, a coach known for developing talent and making a big contribution to the defensive game plan.

Entering his first year as defensive coordinator after 10 years as Bear linebacker coach, Goodner has tutored several outstanding pupils, including All-American James Francis and All-Southwest Conference performers Kevin Hancock, Ray Berry, Curtis Hafford and Gary Joe Kinne. Other standouts included Robert Watters, Aaron Grant and Alan Jamison.

Goodner joined the Bear staff July 15, 1982, replacing linebacker coach Corky Nelson, who moved on to the top spot at North Texas.

Goodner, 48, was a successful veteran high school coach in Texas before joining the Bear staff, but his roots go back to his native state of Oklahoma. Goodner was born February 26, 1944, in Snyder, Oklahoma and grew up to be a star high school athlete in Frederick.

He graduated from Frederick High School in 1961 after earning nine letters in football, basketball and track. Playing quarterback and linebacker, Goodner was an All-State selection in 1960.

He then went on to letter three years, 1964-66, for coach Otis Delaporte at Southwestern Oklahoma State in Weatherford. In 1966, Goodner was chosen as an All-Conference linebacker. He earned his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Southwestern State in 1967 and 1973, respectively.

Goodner's first coaching job was at Noble High School. His team went 6-4 that season. In 1973, John moved to Denison High School as head coach. He put together a 14-15-1 slate at Denison.

In 1976 he moved to Waxahachie and led the school to two district titles in his six years there. His overall record with the Indians was 35-26-1. While there he coached Baylor players Glenn Pruitt, Broderick Sargent and Buzzy Sawyer.

Goodner and his wife, Karen, were married on June 30, 1967, in Frederick. The couple has one daughter, Katherine, a Baylor graduate.

F. A. Dry

■ Offensive Line

The man coaching Baylor's offensive line, F.A. Dry, is considered one of the nation's best at tutoring the horses up front that make an offense go.

Entering his ninth season as Baylor's offensive line coach and 36th year in the coaching profession, Dry has a wealth of experience at every level of football.

A native of Fairland, Oklahoma, Dry earned 11 letters and was All-State in football before enrolling at Oklahoma A&M. After winning All-Conference and All-American honors there he received his Bachelor's degree in 1953. He later earned his master's at OSU.

After serving in the U.S. Army, Dry coached in the high school ranks for five years before joining Glenn Dobbs' staff at the University of Tulsa as offensive line coach. Dry became TU's offensive coordinator in 1964 and the Golden Hurricanes responded by going 9-2 and 8-3 the following seasons. They made Bluebonnet Bowl appearances both years.

TU's 1964 team led the nation in total offense, passing and scoring while the 1965 squad led the country in total offense and scoring.

Dry left Tulsa in 1966 to become offensive line coach of the Houston Oilers. That year the Oilers won the American Football League Eastern division championship.

Dry went back to Tulsa as head coach midway through the 1972 season and later was elevated to the position of head football coach and athletic director. Starting with the 1973 campaign, the Golden Hurricanes reeled off four straight Missouri Valley Conference titles under Dry. TU was 6-5 in 1973, followed by 8-3, 7-4 and 7-4-1 seasons. He was named MVC Coach of the Year three times while compiling a record of 31-18-1 at Tulsa.

Dry moved to TCU in 1977 and was the head man in Fort Worth through 1982. He entered private business after leaving TCU, but came to Baylor when former line coach Eddie Williamson left to join Vince Dooley's staff at Georgia.

Since coming to Baylor in April of 1984, Dry, 60, has coached four All-Southwest Conference offensive linemen.

Dry and his wife, Jan, have three children. Diane is a Tulsa graduate while Mike is a graduate and football letterman at TCU. The youngest is Becky, a Baylor graduate. The Drys also have three grandchildren.

Robert James

■ Defensive Ends

Robert James has distinguished himself by coaching a number of All-Southwest Conference defensive ends at Baylor.

James joined the Baylor staff in July, 1983, and that season end Ervin Randle won All-Conference honors. The next year Derek Turner and Randle were named to the elite squad and Turner added his name to the list again in 1985.

It was Kevin Marsh who made All-SWC in 1986, and in 1990, one of the league's honorees was Robin Jones, maybe James' best ever.

James came to Baylor after leading Gainesville to three consecutive state play-off appearances. Prior to that he held head coaching positions at Lamesa and San Antonio MacArthur.

Overall, James put together a record of 103-37-4 as a high school head coach. James lettered three years in football and two in track at Snyder High School. He graduated from Snyder in 1957 after earning All-District honors for coach John Conley, who went on to become the athletic director at Texas Tech.

He then went to McMurry where he earned three letters playing for his current boss, Grant Teaff. Before graduating in 1961, James earned All-Texas honors as an offensive and defensive tackle.

The 54-year-old James started his coaching career at Abilene's Jefferson Junior High in 1961. Following that he was an assistant at Winters in 1962 and '63 and Temple in 1964.

He took his first head job at Lamesa in 1965 and remained there until 1974. In 1972 James guided the Golden Tornadoes to a district title. The following year his squad reached the Class AAA state semi-finals.

He spent the 1975-77 seasons at San Antonio MacArthur. The Brahmas were regional finalists in 1975. That same year, James served on the board of directors of the Texas High School Coaches Association.

James entered the college ranks in 1978 at New Mexico. He spent two seasons coaching the offensive and defensive lines before taking over the reins at Gainesville in 1980. He made three play-off appearances there before Teaff offered him a position prior to the 1983 season.

James, born April 3, 1938, earned a Master's in education from Trinity in 1976. He is married to the former Linda Kincaid and the couple has four children: Kent, Kyle, Kristy and Dena. His brother, Douglas, coaches at Amarillo Palo Duro.

Bill Lane

■ Offensive Tackles

Bill Lane, one of two assistant coaches who are veterans of Grant Teaff's entire career at Baylor, is Baylor's offensive tackle coach. Previously he served as tight end coach and defensive end coach.

Lane, 59, was born May 26, 1933, in Tioga. He attended high school in Denison, graduating in 1951. At Denison, Lane was a standout center and linebacker for coach Less Cranfill. He was an All-District and All-State selection his senior year.

Lane lettered two years at San Angelo College (1951-52) and also earned a pair of letters at Stephen F. Austin (1955-56). Bill earned his Bachelor's degree from Stephen F. Austin in 1957 and earned his Master's from East Texas State in 1963.

From 1964-68, Lane was head football coach at Daingerfield High, where he won the Class AA state championship in 1968. Lane put together a record of 37-5 at Daingerfield. In 1969, Lane moved to Angelo State to become Grant Teaff's assistant. He also coached track at Angelo.

Lane then made the move to Baylor with Teaff in 1972.

At Baylor, Lane has coached the offensive line (1972, 1977-81), the defensive ends (1973-76) and the tight ends (1982-90). Lane has coached such Bear standouts as All-SWC guards David Sledge and Billy Glass and All-American guard Frank Ditta. In 1988 BU tight end David Bell was among the conference's best.

Bill married Barbara Stanfield of Tyler on December 22, 1956. The couple has two sons, Kirk and Kyle, who was a starting offensive lineman for the Bears from 1983-86, and four grandsons.

Scott Smith

■ Defensive Secondary Coach Special Teams

One of the brightest young coaches in college football, Scott Smith is in his third year of duty for Coach Grant Teaff.

Smith played quarterback and safety at Baylor from 1977-81. A starter on the Bears' 1980 Southwest Conference championship team, he won the prestigious Fighting Bear Award his sophomore, junior and senior seasons.

Smith, born November 6, 1958, is a Dallas native and played his school ball for Coach Frank Bevers at Highland Park. He lettered as a football quarterback and baseball catcher, gaining All-District, All-Metro and All-Greater Dallas honors on the gridiron.

His senior season he was named the Dallas-Fort Worth Most Valuable Player.

After earning his B.S. and M.S. in Physical Education at Baylor in 1981, Smith began his coaching career at North Texas State where he headed up the defensive secondary in 1982.

He returned to Highland Park in 1983 to coach the secondary. In 1985, he was elevated to the post of offensive coordinator. The following year Smith became the head coach at Garland. His second season there, 1987, his team went 8-2-1 and reached the bi-district playoffs. Smith was named All-Greater Dallas coach of the year that season.

In 1988, Smith joined Forrest Gregg's new staff at SMU, coaching the running backs and tight ends. He joined the Baylor staff March 1, 1990, replacing Rick Smith who went to Kentucky.

Smith is married to a former Baylor cheerleader, Kelly. The couple has two children, Shea and Braden.

Volunteer and Graduate Assistant Coaches

Larry Fedora

■ Tight Ends GA

Larry Fedora is in his second season as a Baylor graduate assistant where he will work with the Bear tight ends.

Fedora grew up in College Station and was a four-sport star at A&M Consolidated High School.

The 30-year-old Fedora graduated from high school in 1981 and enrolled in Austin

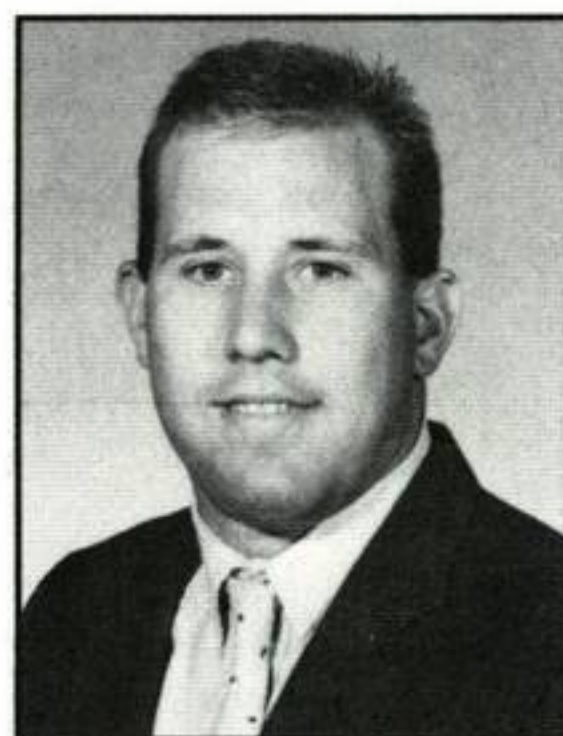

College. He was an All-TIAA wide receiver three years, All-NAIA District 8 performer two years and Honorable Mention All-American honoree twice. He was also named first-team Academic All-American. His freshman season Austin College won the NAIA national championship and his senior year they won conference.

After graduating, he spent a year as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. He then spent the next five seasons coaching at Garland High School where he handled a number of positions.

Fedora is married to Christi Wood of Dallas. The couple has a daughter, Dillon Brooks, born December 20, 1991.

John Dull

■ Offensive Line GA

Beginning his second year of coaching duty for the Baylor Bears is graduate assistant coach John Dull. Last year, Dull worked with the Baylor offensive line.

Born August 16, 1968 in Houston, Dull attended high school there and graduated from Northbrook High in 1986. At Northbrook, he played football, baseball and basketball and played for head coach Bob French on the gridiron.

Dull played collegiately at Texas Christian University and head coach Jim Wacker. He lettered for the Horned Frogs at the linebacker position in 1986 and 1987 (his freshman and sophomore seasons) before an injury to his right knee ended his playing career. At TCU, Dull was a member of the GTE-Southwest Conference Academic Honor Team.

A 1990 graduate, Dull earned his degree at TCU in Business Management.

Dull is the son of John and Linda Dull of Houston and his brother Chris is currently a member of the Baylor football team.

Steve Grumbine

■ Defensive Line GA

Former Baylor All-Southwest Conference defensive tackle Steve

Grumbine is in his second year as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater.

Grumbine assists defensive tackle coach Peter Fredenburg in coaching the defensive line.

Grumbine had the distinction of playing at Baylor during one of the program's greatest eras. His freshman year, 1983, the Bears went 7-4-1 and played in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

In 1985 and '86 he was a starter on two of BU's best teams ever. Both squads finished second in the Southwest Conference and boasted 9-3 records, including victories over LSU in the '85 Liberty Bowl and over Colorado in the '86 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Grumbine was a second-team All-SWC pick as a junior and consensus first-team pick as senior. That year he played in the Japan Bowl All-Star Game.

In 1990, Grumbine was voted into the Baylor All-Decade Team of the '80s.

Arlington Nunn

■ Strength and Conditioning GA

Arlington Nunn begins his second year as Grant Teaff graduate assistant. For the 1992 season, Nunn will focus most of his attention on the strength and conditioning of the football team.

Born August 26, 1969, Nunn graduated from Dunedin High School in Dunedin, Florida in 1987. In high school, Nunn participated in football and baseball and played for head coach Ken Weir.

A four-year letterman (1987-90) at Clemson University, Nunn started two seasons (1989 and 1990) at strong safety for the head coached Danny Ford and Ken Hatfield. During Nunn's junior season, the Tigers were 10-2 under Ford and participated in the Gator Bowl. The following season under Hatfield, Clemson finished 10-2 and participants in the Hall of Fame Bowl. Nunn was an Atlantic Coast Conference Academic All-Conference choice in 1989.

A marketing major, Nunn graduated Clemson in spring of 1991.

Nunn is the son of Arlington and Ruth Nunn.

Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds

■ President

A native Texan, Herbert H. Reynolds became the eleventh president of Baylor University on June 1, 1981.

From 1946 to 1952, and after entering the Air Force in 1948, Dr. Reynolds earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Trinity University. During the next four years, while serving in Air Force leadership positions in both the United States and the Far East, he completed professional studies at the University of Denver and the Air University. In 1956, he became an Assistant Professor and Teaching Fellow at Baylor, and during the next five years continued his academic pursuits by earning the Doctor of Philosophy degree in experimental and clinical psychology.

Dr. Reynolds was scheduled to join the faculty of the Air Force Academy in 1961, but he was diverted to the Aeromedical Research Laboratory at Alamogordo, New Mexico, where he became Director of Research. For the next six years he led this highly diverse and complex laboratory in unique research activities associated with the United States space program, specifically the Project Mercury, Gemini and Apollo NASA endeavors. In the midst of producing some fifty publications and maintaining flying status as an Aviation Psychologist, Dr. Reynolds also served as an adjunct graduate faculty member of both Baylor and the University of New Mexico. During his last year of Air Force duty, he was the establishing Commander of the Air Force Human Resources Research Laboratories.

In 1968, at age 38, he retired from the Air Force, having completed twenty years active duty with five decorations for meritorious service and seven other decorations/awards. The next year he returned to Baylor University as Executive Vice President, and on June 1, 1981, was named the eleventh president of Texas' oldest institution of higher learning.

During the last ten years more than $120 million in additional facilities have been added at Baylor, endowment has almost quadrupled and the total net assets of the University have nearly tripled. In 1986, Dr. Reynolds was named one of America's one hundred most effective chief executive officers in a study funded by the Exxon Education Foundation of the 3,400 presidents of American colleges and universities.

Dr. Reynolds is Past Chair of the 850-presidential member National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, a trustee of the Baylor College of Medicine and the Baylor College of Dentistry, and a director of the Community Bank and Chamber of Commerce of Waco. In addition, he is a deacon and former deacon chairman of the First Baptist Church of Waco, a 33rd degree Mason, member of some 40 honor and professional societies and is licensed psychologist in Texas and New Mexico. He is listed in Who's Who in America, Who's Who in the South and Southeast, Who's Who in Science, Who's Who in Education and has been named a Distinguished Alumnus of both Baylor and Trinity University.

Dr. Reynolds and his wife, Joy, have two sons and a daughter, a daughter-in-law, a son-in-law, and two grandchildren.

Bill Menefee

■ Athletic Director Emeritus

On May 31, 1992 Bill Menefee officially retired as Baylor University's athletic director and became the school's first-ever athletic director emeritus.

Menefee, who became A.D. September 1, 1980, first came to Baylor in 1947 as a physical education instructor and assistant basketball coach. His Baylor Cub freshman basketball teams went 68-50 in 10 seasons. The Bear varsity squad captured four Southwest Conference championships while Menefee worked as Bill Henderson's aid.

With Henderson's retirement in 1961, Menefee took over the Bear coaching reins. In 1965, the Bears vaulted to a second place finish in the SWC and a 15-9 record. Baylor enjoyed seven winning seasons over the next eight years.

Menefee won Southwest Conference Coach of the Year honors following the 1965, 1968 and 1969 campaigns. Baylor finished second in the conference each of those seasons, despite pre-season predictions that tabbed his teams for lower finishes.

In his 12-year career as Athletic Director, Menefee guided the program through a period of unprecedented growth. Among many significant accomplishments were a huge increase in athletic endowment, the foundation of an NCAA women's athletic program, construction of first-class facilities in football and basketball and the establishment of an academic support program that put Baylor at the top of the SWC in athletic graduation rates.

A native of Grand Falls (born July 8, 1921), Menefee earned All-American honors in 1943 at North Texas State as a forward. He served as captain of the Eagles two seasons and led NTSU to a third place finish in NAIA National Tournament his senior year.

He is married to the former Dorothy Winford and they have two children—Pete, an attorney in Jacksonville, and Mrs. Carol Spear, a special education teacher in Waco. Menefee's son, daughter, daughter-in-law and son-in-law are Baylor graduates. They have three grandchildren.

Dr. Dick Ellis

■ Deputy Athletic Director

Starting his first year as deputy athletic director is Dr. Richard P. "Dick" Ellis, a veteran coach and athletic administrator.

In his new position, Ellis will work directly with Athletic Director Grant Teaff in administering all areas of the athletic department and will be in charge in Teaff's absence.

Ellis came to Baylor from Clemson, where he spent two years as Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations. He has previous experience in coaching and administration at Arkansas, the Air Force Academy and Texas A&M.

A native of Sherman, Texas, Ellis was an all-state football player and captain of the track team. He graduated from the Air Force Academy in 1968 after earning letters in football, track and pistol (being selected All-American in pistol his senior year in 1968).

After serving as an Air Force assistant football coach for a year, he completed pilot training and became a combat pilot in Vietnam. He then returned to the Academy as a physical education instructor before going to Texas A&M to earn a master's degree and work as a football graduate assistant under Emory Bellard.

He then returned to Air Force to head the Exercise Physiology Laboratory. Appointed an associate professor, he completed his doctorate in education at the University of Denver in 1981. Before ending an 18-year career at the Academy, he also served as an assistant football and golf coach.

Ellis coached under Ben Martin, Bill Parcells, Ken Hatfield and Fisher DeBerry at Air Force over a 14-year period. He coached teams in the Independence, Hall of Fame, Freedom and Bluebonnet Bowls. The Falcons went 12-1 in 1985 and were ranked fifth nationally.

In 1987, he was named the Academy's first Associate Director of Athletics. In that capacity, he helped manage a $10 million athletic program that consisted of 41 intercollegiate teams. In 1989, he retired from the Air Force with 21 years of service and moved with Hatfield to Arkansas to serve as Assistant Athletic Director.

Ellis is married to the former Cecelia Gulley of Albertville, Ala., and they have three children: Scott (20), Kent (15) and Chelsea (8).

Clyde Hart

■ Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance Head Track Coach

Clyde Hart, who is in his 30th year serving the Baylor Athletic Department, holds the dual title of assistant athletic director for compliance and head track coach.

Hart is in charge of NCAA and Southwest Conference rules interpretations for all Baylor sports in addition to his duties heading the men's and women's track programs.

A former state champion high school sprinter in Arkansas, Hart also set a Baylor record in the 100 and ran on an SWC champion 440-relay team that equalled the world record. He was also a member of BU's 880-relay team that won college track's "Triple Crown," the Texas, Kansas and Drake Relays.

He began his coaching career at Little Rock Central where he won five straight cross country and track state championships. Before coming to Baylor in 1963, Hart had coached Central runners to virtually every state record in Arkansas.

Hart's 1985 squad finished third nationally indoors and the '85 and 1990 teams were also third outdoors, the second highest finishes ever by any Baylor athletic team, and his 1989 indoor team finished fourth.

Hart has coached 67 NCAA track and field All-Americans 211 times. His relay teams have set American, collegiate, Southwest Conference and junior world records at a variety of distances.

Hart is perhaps best known for his tutoring of 400-meter runners. Included in his list of stellar pupils in that event are eight-time All-American Mark Collins, former SWC record holder Zeke Jefferson, ten-time All-American Johnny Thomas and NCAA champions Willie Caldwell, Raymond Pierre, Michael Johnson and Deon Minor.

With Hart as his personal coach, Johnson was also track and field's Athlete of the Year in 1990 after being ranked No. 1 in the world at 200 and 400-meters. He was again No. 1 world ranked for the 200 and 400 in 1991 after he won the World Championships 200-meters.

Hart's 1,600-meter relay teams have won six NCAA titles, including five of the last six, and reached the NCAA finals 18 of the last 20 years. They have also won the Texas Relays seven of the last nine.

In 1985 Hart was recognized by the Texas Sports Writers Association as the state's Senior College Spring Coach of the Year. The NCAA Track Coaches Association named Hart their 1989 National Indoor Coach of the Year and he is that past group's president.

Hart and his wife, Maxine, also a Baylor graduate and professor in BU's Hankamer School of Business, have two grown sons, Greg and Scott and one grandchild.

David Chandler

■ Assistant Trainer

David Chandler is in his seventh year assisting Mike Sims in the day-to-day operation of the athletic training department.

He joined the Baylor staff on a full-time basis June 1, 1985, after serving four years as a student trainer under former trainer Skip Cox.

Chandler, 30, was a football and golf letterman at Lancaster

High and graduated in 1980. At Baylor, he works with all sports, primarily with the football and men's basketball teams.

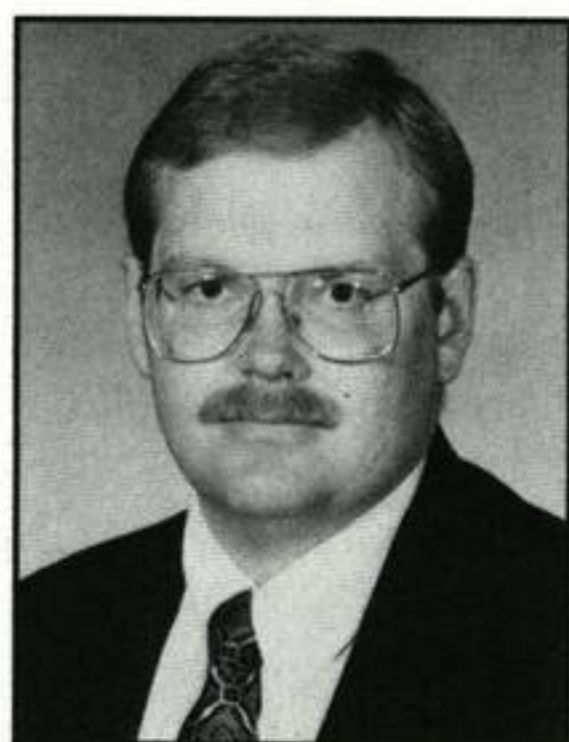

Chandler is licensed by the state of Texas and is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association.

He married Amy Burleson on July 13, 1985. Chandler's brother, Mike, is a former Baylor student trainer and currently the athletic director at West Texas State University. His father is a high school football coach at Kerrville Tivy.

David and Amy have a son, Cole David, born on March 21, 1988 and William Blake, born December 18, 1991.

Dave Clendennen

■ Athletic Business Manager

In his first year as the Athletic Business Manager is Waco native and Baylor graduate Dave Clendennen, a Certified Public Accountant.

Clendennen, who will oversee the department's financial operations and work in the area of tickets, joined the Athletic Department in April of 1991.

Born July 28, 1957,

Clendennen attended Waco High School and graduated from there in 1975.

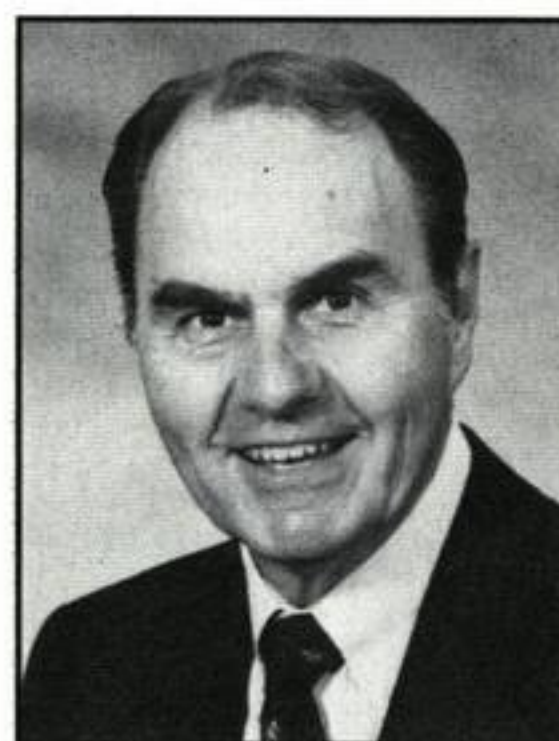

He then attended Baylor and earned his Bachelor of Business in Accounting degree in 1979. After leaving Baylor, Clendennen worked for 11 years in the public accounting field in both Waco and Houston.

Clendennen returned to his alma mater in July of 1987 and worked in the Financial Affairs division until joining the Athletic Department.

On June 11, 1977, Clendennen married Linda (Sue) Mooney in Waco. The couple has two sons, David, born December 29, 1987, and Matthew, born May 19, 1985.

Frank Fallon

■ Coordinator of Broadcast Activities

Veteran broadcaster Frank Fallon became Baylor's first coordinator of broadcast activities in 1983.

In that capacity, the 62-year-old Fallon handles radio and television contract negotiations as well as play-by-play for BU football, basketball and baseball radio broadcasts.

Fallon is well known by sport fans everywhere. He has done Baylor basketball since 1953 and football since 1955. He also has called the Southwest Conference basketball TV Game of the Week since 1968.

Fallon began his career at the age of 18 at KITE in San Antonio. In 1953 he joined KWTX and spent 28 years with the Waco station.

In 1981, Fallon became an instructor in Baylor's Oral Communications Department and was appointed general manager at campus radio station KWBU.

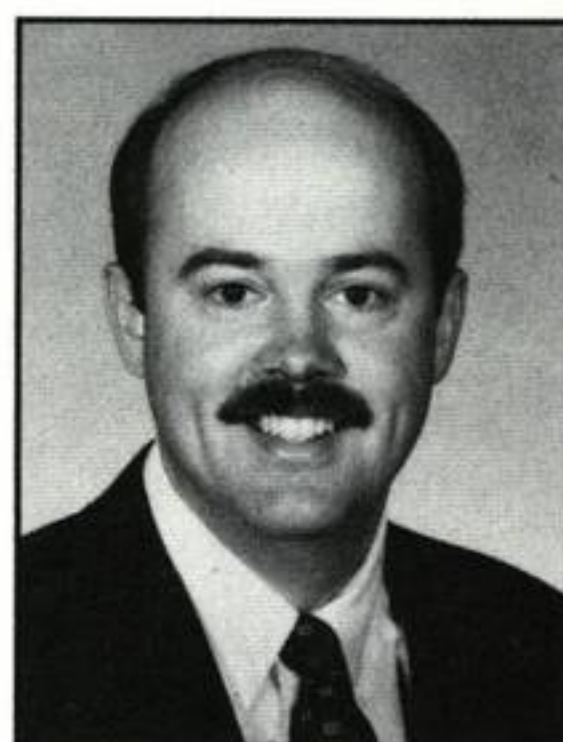

The 1981 Texas Sports Broadcaster of the Year is currently heard in the mornings on radio station WACO-AM (1460). He also hosts the Baylor coach's show each week during the basketball season.

Each March, Fallon becomes "The Voice of the FinalFour" as he handles public address duties at the NCAA basketball national championship tournament.

Frank was born on June 16, 1930, in El Paso. He attended Alamo Heights High in San Antonio before enrolling at Baylor. Fallon and his wife June have four sons and four grandchildren.

Mark Fitzhugh

■ Assistant Sports Information Director

Mark Fitzhugh, a native of Mobile, Alabama, begins his eighth year as assistant sports information director at Baylor. His responsibilities include assisting in the administration of the overall sports information program with primary emphasis on men's basketball and publications.

As part of his basketball duties, Fitzhugh serves as chief editor of the Baylor basketball game program and assists 37-year veteran BU radio broadcaster Frank Fallon with the Baylor basketball radio network.

Fitzhugh, 31, has been a member of the Baylor athletic staff since August 1, 1985. He previously spent four years as a student in the sports information office at the University of South Alabama before moving to Waco. He holds a B.A. degree in Political Science and History from South Alabama.

At Baylor, Fitzhugh assists in all phases of the day-to-day operations of the sports information office.

Fitzhugh has assisted Southwest Conference officials with the media operation of numerous athletic events over the last five years.

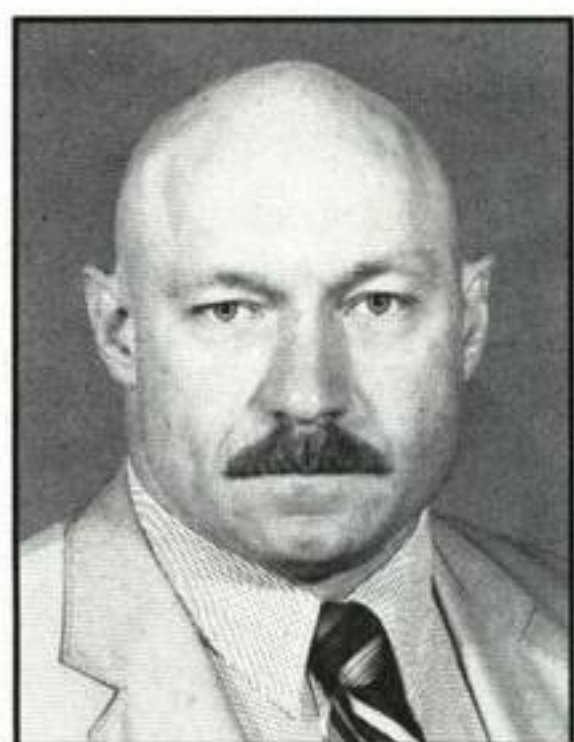

Among those events were the 1986-1992 Cotton Bowls, the 1986-91 Southwest Conference Basketball Classic Tournaments in Dallas, the 1986 and 1988 SWC Baseball Tournaments (in College Station, Fayetteville, Ark.) and the 1987-1988, 1989 and 1991 SWC Track & Field Championships.

A member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Texas Sportswriters Association and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association, Fitzhugh also assisted in the media operation of the 1988-1990 Midwest Basketball Regionals, and both the 1985 Liberty Bowl and 1986 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Fitzhugh, who is single, enjoys golf, traveling and is an avid Boston Red Sox fan.

Bob Fix

■ Strength Coach

Under Bob Fix the Baylor strength program has earned a reputation as one of the leading programs in the nation.

Employing the most advanced techniques, Fix has put the men's and women's strength programs at a level second to none.

Fix, who joined the Baylor staff on a full-time basis in 1982, was born and reared in Michigan. After graduating with his bachelor's and master's degrees from Western Michigan University, he was the head football coach and athletic director at Port Sanilac High in Carsonville.

Fix, a charter member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, is proud of the fact that many students that have worked with him have gone on to set their mark as coaches.

Bob and his wife Karen have two sons—Rob, 22, who serves on his father's staff, and Matt, 18, a student at Midway High School.

David Guinn

■ Baylor Athletic Council Chairman

Baylor School of Law professor David M. Guinn is in his 12th year on the Baylor Athletic Council and his sixth year as that group's chairman. Guinn also served as Baylor's faculty representative to the Southwest Conference.

Guinn grew up in Cleburne and graduated from high school there before entering Baylor in 1957. He finished his J.D. at Baylor in 1963 and completed work on his LL.M. at the University of Michigan in 1966.

He has been a member of the School of Law's faculty since that time and currently holds the R. W. and Louise Morrison Chair of Constitutional Law.

Guinn is a member of the Supreme Court Historical Society and the State Bar of Texas.

Charlie Jones

■ Executive Vice President, Bear Club

Charlie Jones was named Executive Vice President of the Bear Club January 14, 1988. He came to the Bear Club as a veteran fund raiser from the Baylor Development Department.

Charlie served as a development officer 14 years with Baylor attaining the position of Senior Development Officer.

He also served as Director of Baylor Nationwide, a highly successful program which raises money and promotes Baylor across the nation. He was born February 21, 1943, in Waco and graduated from Waco University High School in 1961. Charlie was a two-year letterman in football, President of the National Honor Society and student body.

Before joining the Baylor Development Department December 15, 1973, Charlie worked as the Waco territorial sales manager in computers for the Burroughs Corporation.

He and his wife Sara have a daughter, Ashley, who is a Baylor junior.

Darryl Lehnus

■ Director of Marketing

Darryl Lehnus, Baylor's director of marketing, joined the BU staff on January 1, 1986. In that capacity, he directs advertising sales, ticket campaigns, novelties and general athletic department promotions.

Lehnus, 47, brings to the position a strong background in all levels of athletics and a tremendous enthusiasm for the job. His dedication and willingness to try new ideas have given Baylor one of the most successful marketing programs in the country.

Lehnus received his B.A. from Anderson College (Indiana) in 1967 and M.A.E. from Wayne State (Nebraska) in 1968. He began his coaching career at Grant Park High School in 1968. He served as athletic director, head basketball coach and head baseball coach there three years.

From 1978-84 Lehnus served as North Dakota's assistant basketball coach. He came to Baylor in 1984 as an assistant basketball coach and served in that capacity one year before becoming coordinator of marketing. This year he was named director of marketing.

Lehnus, who is putting the finishing touches on a Ph.D. at Baylor, is married to the former Wanda Harvey. The couple has three children: Valerie, 23; Vonda, 22 and Vanessa, 18.

Maxey Parrish

■ Sports Public Affairs Director

Maxey Parrish, a 1978 Baylor graduate, enters his 13th year in the Baylor Athletic Department. He joined the staff in 1980 as assistant sports information director and became sports information director in 1982. This year he was named sports public affairs director.

Parrish, 36, is a Waco native and grew up watching Baylor athletic events. While attending Baylor he worked as student assistant in the sports information office and ran on the Bear cross country and track teams.

After receiving a B.A. in Journalism, Parrish was appointed assistant SID at SMU. After two years at SMU he had a stint as SID at Centenary College in Shreveport, La.

Parrish has won several publication awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America. In 1986 he won the Press Box Merit Award from the Football Writers Association of America. In 1991 he was presented the Drake Relays Media Award for contributions to college track and field.

During his career, Parrish has worked in media relations at such events as the Cotton Bowl Classic, the NCAA Final Four and NCAA national championships in track, tennis and swimming.

Parrish has an extensive background as a press officer for the United States Olympic Committee. In 1986, 1989 and 1990 he worked at the U. S. Olympic Festival. In 1987 he worked at the World University Games in Strbske Pleso, Czechoslovakia. Last summer he was a press officer for the United States Olympic Team in Barcelona, Spain.

Parrish is married to the former Susanne Holland of Uvalde, who earned both a B.A. and M.S. Ed. at Baylor. They have a two daughters, Annabeth Frances, 3, and Mary Katherine, born January 21, 1992. The Parrishes live in Lorena. In his spare time, Parrish enjoys hunting and fishing and is working on a Masters in Sports Administration.

Jerry Pickle

■ Admin. of Student Services & Recruitment

Jerry Pickle is in his sixth year on the Baylor staff and first year as administrator of student services and recruitment. He joined BU as recruiting coordinator and administrative assistant in 1987.

Pickle coordinates the recruiting efforts for all Baylor athletic teams and handles administrative duties, particularly as they relate to student services.

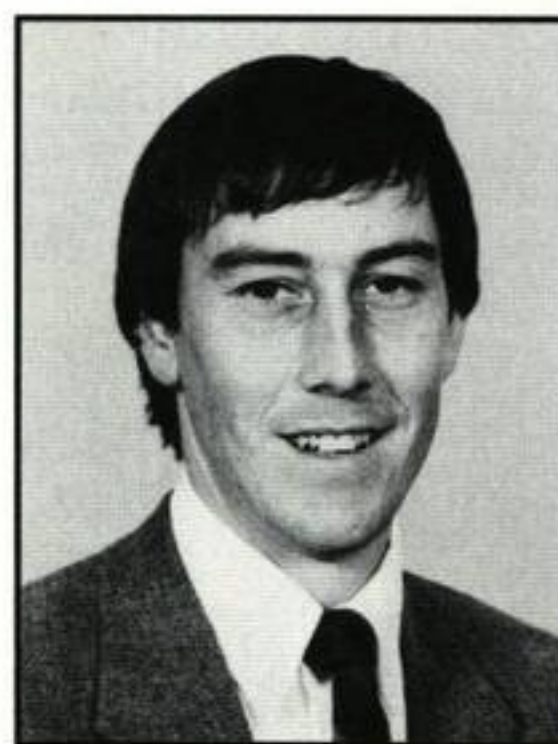

Pickle first came to Baylor in June, 1984 as a graduate assistant football coach. He served in that capacity two years before becoming an administrative aid in the Athletic Department.

Pickle has a B.S. and M.S. in HPER from Delta State University in Mississippi.

Pickle is married to the former Julie Turner and the couple has two sons, Matthew, born January 30, 1986, and Jonathan, born February 14, 1989.

Mike Sims

■ Director of Sports Medicine

Mike Sims, 35, became Baylor's head trainer in October, 1984, and was named director of sports medicine this year.

Sims was born on August 1, 1957, in Cedar Hill. He served as a student trainer at Cedar Hill and graduated in 1975.

Sims spent five years as a Baylor student trainer under Cox. He graduated from Baylor in 1980 and earned a master's degree in 1982. In August, 1981 Sims joined the BU athletic staff as Baylor's first full-time assistant trainer.

Sims is a member of the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association and the National Athletic Trainers Association. He is licensed by the State of Texas and certified by the national association.

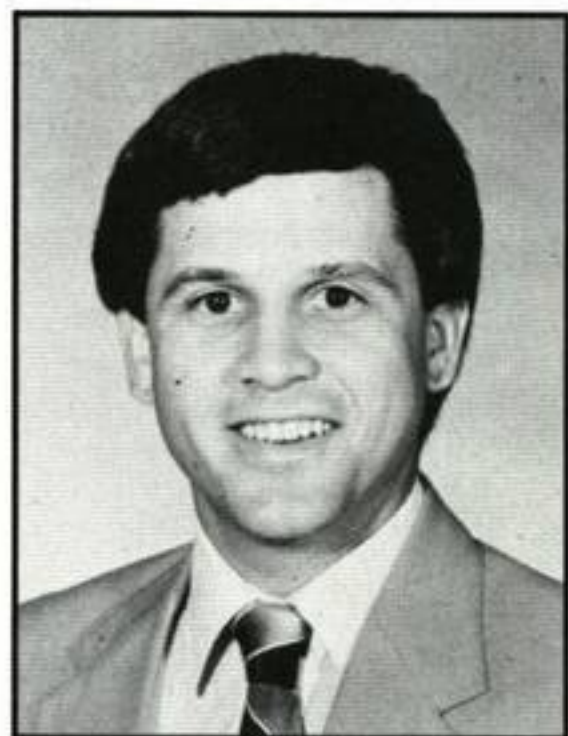

Sims has lectured at numerous training conventions and once won the Sam Ketcham Award for outstanding speaking ability at the SWATA meeting. He has held a number of offices in both SWATA and NATA, including his current stint as SWATA's president.

In addition to his training duties, Sims has also aided in the development of Baylor's computer system.

Mike is married to the former Suzanne Stevens, a Baylor graduate, on May 21, 1983. The couple resides in Waco. They have a daughter, Jessica, born August 20, 1990 and a son Keith, born May 13, 1992.

Terry Tacker

■ Assistant Sports Information Director

Entering his 13th year as Baylor assistant sports information director is Terry Tacker.

A Waco native, Tacker began his work at the Baylor SID office in 1979 when he served as student assistant under Sid Wilson. In 1980, he became a full-time member of the SID office.

At Baylor, Tacker, 34, assists in all facets of the sports information field, but his primary responsibilities are women's basketball and baseball and editor of the Baylor football game program.

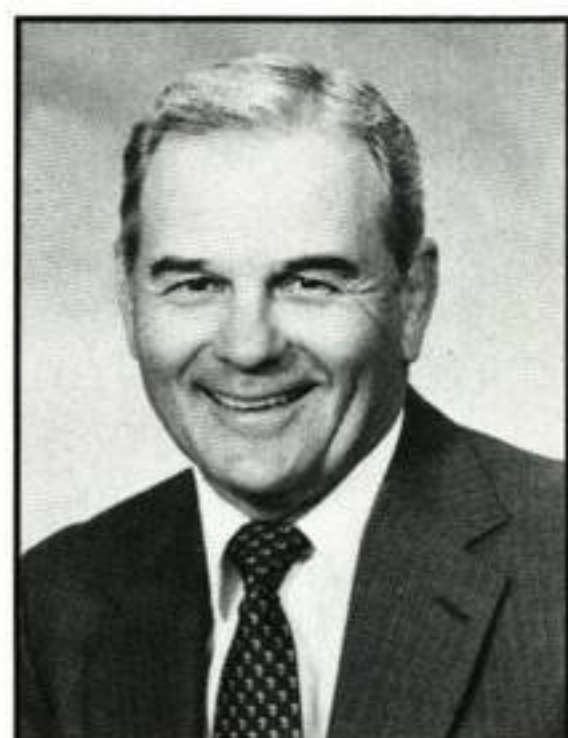

Tacker's football game program and baseball media guides have been honored by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His 1987 baseball media guide was voted second best in the nation for Division A and his 1989 and 1991 baseball media guides were named the fifth and seventh best in America. CoSIDA said Tacker's 1990 and 1991 football game programs were the tops in District VI (states of Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Mississippi and Texas).

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association, the Texas Sports Writers Association and the Football Writers Association of America.

Tacker married the former Brenda Spears on June 28, 1986, in Waco. Brenda is the Director of Communications Services in the Baylor Public Relations Office. The couple resides in Robinson. They have a son, Daniel Lucas, born August 24, 1988.

Wade Turner

■ Admin. of Facilities and Special Projects

After 18 years as one of Grant Teaff's assistant football coaches at Baylor, Wade Turner is in his third year as administrator of facilities and special projects for the Athletic Department.

Turner works with all of Baylor's men's and women's athletic teams in hosting home events, using university facilities and traveling to out-of-town competitions.

The 56-year-old Turner coached defensive backs for Teaff from 1972-78; from 1979 through 1989, he was in charge of the running backs. Seven of his former pupils received All-Southwest Conference honors, and at one time he had the distinction having coached more NFL running backs than any other college coach.

Turner was born August 6, 1935 in Brady. He graduated from Brady High in 1953 after lettering in football, basketball and track.

The following fall he enrolled in San Angelo Junior College and play for Max Bumgardner before transferring to Stephen F. Austin.

A member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Turner earned his bachelor's degree from SFA in 1958 and received his master's one year later at the same school.

From 1959-64 Turner served as defensive backfield coach at San Angelo JC. When Angelo became a four-year school in 1964, Turner remained on the staff and continued to coach the secondary until 1971. He doubled as golf coach from 1969-71 and led the Rams to an eighth-place national finish in 1970. Turner followed Teaff to Waco in 1972.

Wade married Madonna Rives of Henderson on July 25, 1959. The couple has two daughters, both Baylor graduates: Kimberly Denise Turner and Allison Paige Jones. They also have one grandchild.

Academic Support

The advisement and degree planning of Baylor's Athletes is handled by Becky Bradley, Director of Student Retention and Athletic-Academic Support Programs.

Bradley, a veteran classroom teacher, counselor, administrative and advisor, sees to each student-athlete is enrolled in a balanced program that keeps them on track for a degree.

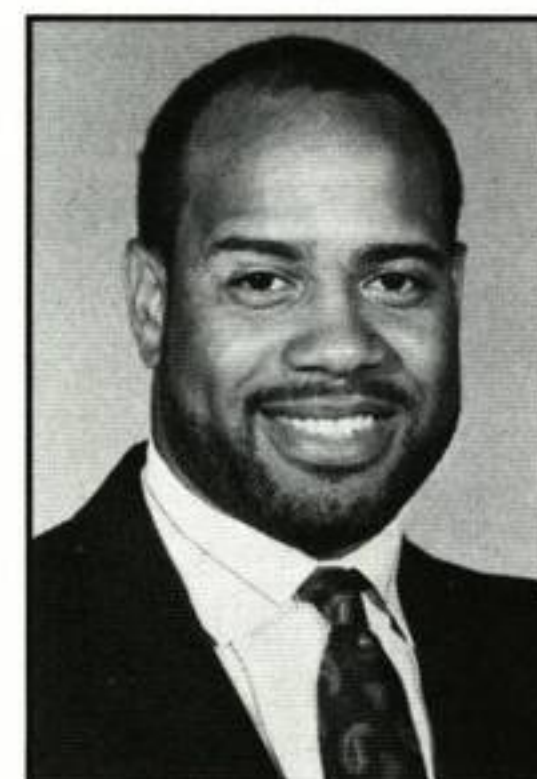

A recent survey indicated that Baylor athletes have achieved the highest graduation rate in the Southwest Conference at 65 percent. The Baylor administration is working toward a goal of graduating 80 percent of its athletes.

Through the Academic Learning Center, student-athletes are monitored and given every necessary opportunity to get appropriate tutoring.

Also working in the program, which is designed to be very "hands on" in nature, is Walter Abercrombie, a Baylor graduate who holds the school record for rushing in a season and career.

■ SERIES NOTES

Baylor upped its series advantage to 4-3 over Colorado with an exciting 16-14 win in Boulder last year... Santana Dotson blocked a field goal try and Jeff Ireland connected for the Bears as they took the big intersectional win, their second in a row over CU...the last previous meeting was in the 1986 Bluebonnet Bowl, a 21-9 Baylor win...this is the first game between the two schools in Waco since 1966.

Game No. 1 Baylor 27, UT-El Paso 7 September 7, 1991 at Waco (35,127)

Robert Strait rushed for 112 yards and two touchdowns to lead Baylor to a methodical 27-7 season-opening decision over the UT-El Paso Miners.

Strait, who had his 112 yards on only seven carries, was named the Southwest Conference's Offensive Player of the Week for his work. David Mims and Creig Stephens added 83 and 64 yards rushing as the Bears had 280 rushing yards as a team.

The Miners never led in the game. A Stephens 27-yard score with nine seconds left in the third quarter gave Baylor a 27-0 lead. UTEP scored their touchdown with 10 minutes left in the game.

Keith Caldwell and Michael McFarland had interceptions for the hosts and the Bears were also able to claim six sacks.

Game No. 2 Baylor 16, Colorado 14 September 14, 1991 at Boulder (50,754) (Pay-per-view)

Santana Dotson blocked a Colorado field goal attempt late in the game to set up a Jeff Ireland game-winning field goal to hand Baylor a 16-14 win over the defending national champion Colorado Buffaloes.

With the hosts leading 14-13 and a little over three minutes left in the game, Colorado's Jim Harper lined up to kick a field goal that would put the game on ice for the Buffs. However, Dotson used a clearing block by teammate Robin Jones to block the field goal attempt and the ball rolled 40 yards downfield. Baylor started their drive on the Colorado 30 yardline and six plays later, Ireland kicked true from 35 yards out with 51 seconds left.

Colorado drove to the Baylor 45-yardline before a Frankie Smith interception of a Darian Hagan passed sealed the win. Dotson was named the Southwest Conference's Defensive Player of the Week.

Melvin Bonner caught two passes for 98 yards, including a 74-yard scoring strike from J.J. Joe that gave Baylor a 10-7 third quarter lead.

The statistics indicated the win was no fluke. Baylor led the hosts in rushing (195 to 168) and passing yards (233 to 154) and in time of possession (32:11 to 27:49).

Game No. 3 Baylor 47, Missouri 21 September 21, 1991 at Waco (41,721)

J. J. Joe had 328 yards of total offense and completed passes of 75 and 53 yards to lead Baylor to a 47-21 win over Missouri in a match of unbeaten teams.

Joe completed 13 of 24 passes for 300 yards and one touchdown and was named the Southwest Conference's Offensive Player of the Week.

A 75-yard scoring pass from Joe to Melvin Bonner gave Baylor a 34-0 lead with 14:12 left in the third quarter. Missouri scored two touchdowns to cut Baylor's lead to 34-14 late in the third quarter but the Bears reestablished momentum with a Joe two yard run with 37 seconds left in the third and the outcome was never again in doubt.

Baylor accumulated 649 yards in total offense and averaged 7.7 yards every time they snapped the football. The Bear offense was set up on numerous scoring opportunities by the Baylor defense, who had three interceptions (two by Keith Caldwell) and three fumble recoveries.

Game No. 4 Baylor 45, Southern Methodist 7 September 28, 1991 at Dallas (22,239) (Raycom TV)

Baylor scored in every quarter to dominate the SMU Mustangs 45-7 in the Southwest Conference opener for the Bears at Ownby Stadium in Dallas.

Melvin Bonner caught four passes for 105 yards, including a 49-yard second quarter scoring pass from J. J. Joe. Ten different Bears carried the football, with John Henry leading the way from his fullback position with 66 yards on nine carries.

The Baylor defense forced two Mustang fumbles and two interceptions as they held SMU to 61 yards rushing and 255 through the air. SMU was 2 of 14 in third down conversions.

A 37-yard pass from Joe to David Mims gave Baylor a 31-0 lead with 12:39 left in the third quarter. SMU scored their lone touchdown on an eight-yard pass from Mike Romo to Mick Rossley.

Game No. 5 Baylor 38, Houston 21 October 5, 1991 at Houston (37,022)

Baylor survived 460 yards passing by Houston quarterback David Klingler to defeat the Cougars 38-21 in the Astrodome.

Klingler completed 35 of 57 passes for 460 yards and two touchdowns but the Bears were able to force the Cougar offense into a game-deciding six turnovers. Klingler was intercepted three times and the Bears also recovered three Cougar fumbles.

The Baylor offense was again led by the big-play tandem of quarterback J.J. Joe and receiver Melvin Bonner. Joe completed 16 of 23 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns and Bonner caught nine of those passes for 169 yards and a score. The duo teamed for a 77-yard scoring strike with 8:20 left in the game to hand the Bears their final victory margin.

Santana Dotson was named Sports Illustrated's National Defensive Player of the Week after claiming four tackles, including two behind the line of scrimmage resulting in 16 yards of losses, recovering one fumble, forcing two more fumbles and getting one sack.

Game No. 6 Rice 20, Baylor 17 October 12, 1991 at Waco (37,987) (Raycom TV)

Trevor Cobb rushed for 171 yards to lead Rice to a 20-17 upset win over Baylor before a stunned Floyd Casey Stadium crowd of 37,987.

Baylor managed to lose despite gaining 531 yards of total offense, averaging 6.8 yards with every snap and having 32:08 minutes of possession. Baylor was their own worse enemy as the Bears committed four fumbles, losing two, also threw an interception and missed three field goal attempts.

Cobb had 132 yards rushing in the opening two quarters to stake Rice to a 17-10 halftime margin. Jeff Ireland, who struggled with the three missed field goals, ironically gave Baylor a lift going into the dressing room at halftime with a career-best 58-yard field goal as time expired.

Baylor, however, failed to score on six possessions within the Rice 40-yardline and the Owls, due to a 31-yard field goal by Darrell Richardson with 2:39 left, had their second consecutive win over the Bears in Waco.

Game No. 7 Texas A&M 34, Baylor 12 October 19, 1991 at Waco (50,267) (ABC-TV)

Texas A&M completely dominated Baylor 34-12 before the second largest crowd to see a Bear football game in Waco and an ABC-TV regional audience.

The Aggies built a 34-0 margin before Baylor could dent the scoreboard and had a comfortable 438-243 lead in total offense. Quarterback Bucky Richardson directed the visitor's attack flawlessly, rushing for 42 yards and two touchdowns, completing nine of 15 passes for 182 yards and catching one pass for 38 yards.

Baylor's big-play offense struggled against Texas A&M. Kendrick Bell had Baylor's longest run from scrimmage, 26 yards, and a 30-yard pass from J.J. Joe to Lee Miles was the hosts' longest completion. The Baylor offense converted only two of 12 third down conversions.

Robert Strait was the Bears' lone bright spot on offense as he accumulated 93 yards rushing on 19 attempts.

Game No. 8 Baylor 26, Texas Christian 9 October 26, 1991 at Waco (39,102) (Raycom TV)

TCU committed five turnovers that led to easy Baylor scores as the Bears broke a two-game losing streak to defeat the Horned Frogs 26-9 before a Homecoming crowd of 39,102 at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Baylor's scores came as a result of starting drives at the 50, the TCU 25, the TCU 44, the Baylor 43 and the Baylor 20 yardlines.

The visitors outgained Baylor 309-303 in total offense and averaged 4.8 yards an offensive snap, compared to the Bears' 3.9.

In a game the Bears never trailed, J.J. Joe and John Henry gave the Bears a 17-2 lead in the second quarter with short touchdown plunges. Henry again scored in the fourth quarter to give the Bears their largest lead in the game, 26-2 with 7:06 remaining.

Although the Horned Frogs led in most offensive categories, Baylor did hold a comfortable 37:20 to 22:40 lead in time of possession.

Game No. 9 Baylor 9, Arkansas 5 November 2, 1991 at Fayetteville (43,820) (ABC-TV)

What did you expect from a game played in 29 degree temperature, snow flurries and a 20-MPH cold wind?

What the 42,820 fans at Razorback Stadium and the ABC-TV regional viewers got was a classic defensive struggle as Baylor survived the Arkansas Razorbacks 9-5.

The game, which was Arkansas' final SWC game in Fayetteville, was not decided until Baylor's Chris Lewis picked off a Razorback pass with 50 seconds remaining.

J.J. Joe scored the game's only touchdown from a yard out with 23 seconds left in the first quarter to give Baylor a 7-0 lead. Arkansas' Todd Wright nailed a 35-yard field to cut Baylor's lead to 7-3 with 6:17 left in the third quarter.

By the fourth quarter rolled around, the weather got noticeably worse and neither squad could mount a game-winning drive.

Baylor linebacker Curtis Hafford recorded a critical safety with 5:12 left in the game to pad Baylor's lead to 9-3. However, Arkansas reached the Baylor 25-yardline moments later, but that drive was stopped by an interception by Baylor's Michael McFarland in the game's biggest play. McFarland was named the SWC's Defensive Player of the Week following the victory.

Game No. 10 Texas Tech 31, Baylor 24 November 16, 1991 at Waco (36,163)

Texas Tech's Donny Brooks had a 99-yard interception return off a Creig Stephen's fumble to hand Texas Tech a 31-24 win over Baylor in the Bears' final Waco appearance of the 1991 season.

With Tech leading 24-17, Baylor drove to the one yardline, where a handoff to Stephens from J.J. Joe went sour and the ball popped into Brooks' arms, who then went untouched in the Baylor endzone.

For most purposes, the game was decided, although Baylor did score with 4:06 left on a three-yard run by David Mims.

The game was very similar to the Rice loss in that Baylor outgained the visitors from Lubbock 476-325 in total yards. The Red Raiders forced five Baylor turnovers, the most committed by the Bears in 1991.

Mims and fullback John Henry had career days for Baylor, with Mims finishing with 168 yards and Henry 124. Joe, however, could complete only 11 of 26 passes for 190 yards, with only one completion (a 39-yarder to Lee Miles) covering more than 25 yards.

Game No. 11 Baylor 21, Texas 11
November 23, 1991 at Austin (61,310)

Baylor exploded for 21 fourth quarter points on their way to a 21-11 win over the Texas Longhorns, closing the 1991 regular season for the Bears.

The fourth quarter started with a scoreless tie as both clubs missed golden scoring opportunities through the first three stanzas. Baylor did not score after reaching the Texas five, 38, 24 and four yardlines, with two of the drives ending in missed field goal opportunities. The host Longhorns had drives end at the Baylor 36, 18 and 37 yardlines through the first three quarters. Both offenses were hindered by a northwest wind that reached 30 MPH through most of the game.

After a Texas fumble, Baylor dented the scoreboard first on a 15-yard rumble by Robert Strait with 13:03 left in the game. After Texas scored on a 28-yard field goal with 6:57 left, the Bears put together their most important drive of the day. Baylor drove 78 yards on eight plays, with John Henry covering the final 42-yards to put Baylor up 14-3 with 3:06 left. The drive killed the momentum grabbed by the Longhorns after their field goal, but more importantly, consumed 3:51 off the clock.

Le'Shai Maston's hit of Texas quarterback Peter Gardere forced a fumble on Texas' next drive and the Bears converted that turnover into a two-yard touchdown run by J. J. Joe that put the game on ice as Baylor led 21-3 with only 1:41 left.

Baylor Football Radio Network

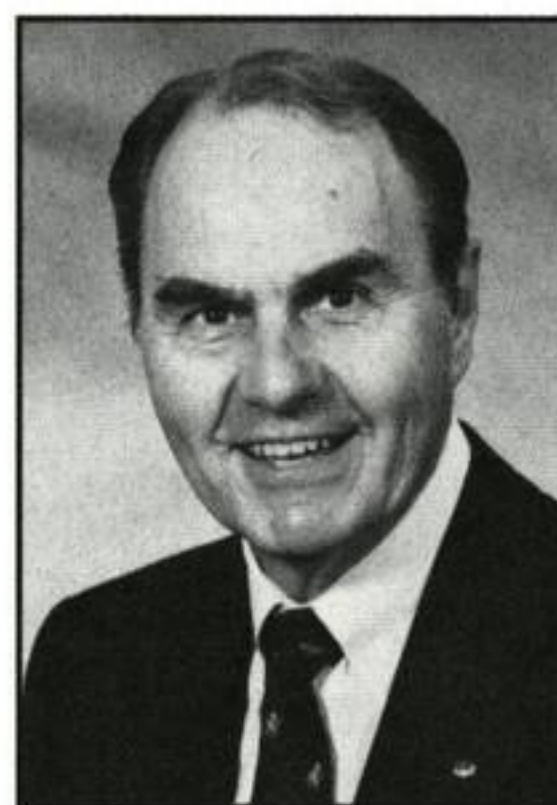

Frank Fallon is in his 39th season of broadcasting the play-by-play of Baylor football. He is joined by veteran Waco television sports anchor John Morris who is in his sixth year of color commentary work.

Baylor football broadcasts hit the air 30 minutes before kickoff with a pre-game show featuring interviews with head coach Grant Teaff, offensive coordinator Chuck Reedy and defensive coordinator John Goodner.

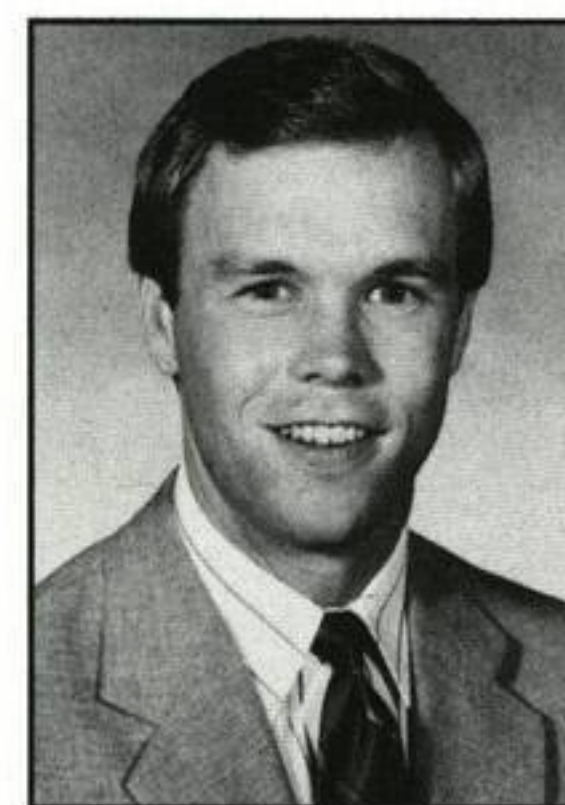

Throughout the game, Fallon and Morris update fans with scores across the Southwest Conference and nation. The games are engineered and produced by Craig Harper of WFAA who is in his third year with Baylor network.

Since 1991 the network came under the sole ownership and operation of Baylor. Prior to this year there has been some arrangement with other Southwest Conference schools.

The flagship station of the Baylor network is WACO-AM 1460 in Waco. The station is managed by Jerry Clemmons, a broadcaster with experience in a number of areas including the Baylor network.

IMMORTAL TEN

On January 22, 1927, at Round Rock, Texas, one of America's first athletic tragedies occurred. Coach Ralph Wolf was taking his first Baylor basketball team to the University of Texas when a speeding train from the I & GA Railroad Company rammed the side of the bus blinded by stormy weather at a crossing near the center of Round Rock. Ten of the 21 persons in the Baylor party were killed.

Ralph Wolf

Each year before Baylor Homecoming, the freshman class hears the epic of the "Immortal Ten" and the hero, James Clyde "Abe" Kelly. Captain-elect of the 1927 football team, Kelly saw the train seconds before impact and pushed his roommate, Weir Washan, out of the bus window. Kelly died saving the life of his best friend.

Others who died with Kelly were William Winchester, W. E. Murray, Merle Dudley, Sam Dillow, Jack Castellau, L. R. "Ivey" Foster, Bob Hailey, R. L. Hannah and James Walker.

Wesley Bradshaw, who remains in third place in Baylor football career scoring records, was seriously hurt. Gordon Barry, Joe Potter, Edgar Gooch, C. S. Bean, Keifer Stricklan (All-SWC), John Kane, Dave Cheavens (former Baylor journalism department chairman) and Coach Wolf were slightly injured. Washan and Louis Slade were unhurt.

As a result of this tragedy, the first highway overpass in Texas was constructed at Round Rock.

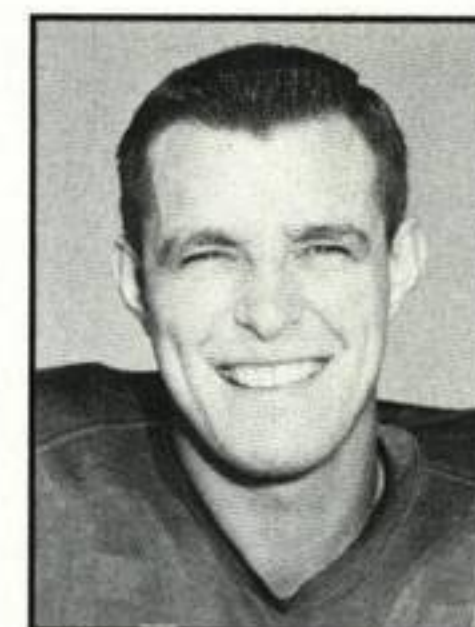

BEAR NICKNAME

Although Baylor was founded in 1845 and began intercollegiate athletics in the 1890s, in 1914 Baylor athletic teams were still without an official nickname. In December of 1914, President Samuel Palmer Brooks held a vote of the student body and "Bears" narrowly defeated "Buffaloes." Other nicknames nominated were "Antelopes," "Frogs" and "Ferrets."

BOBBY JONES AWARD

Prior to each Homecoming game, the Bobby Jones Award is presented to the senior player who provided the best leadership on and off the field during the week of preparation for the Homecoming game.

Bobby Jones, the Baylor quarterback from 1954-56 who helped defeat Tennessee 13-7 in the 1957 Sugar Bowl, was killed in an automobile-train wreck while a member of the Tennessee coaching staff.

The coaching staff votes on the recipient of this award which was established after Jones' death by his widow, Mrs. Rosemary Jones.

BEAR MASCOT STORY

Although "Bears" became Baylor's official nickname in 1914, it wasn't until the 1920s that a real bear mascot came to the University. The troops of the 107th Engineers, a unit of the 32nd Infantry Division stationed in Waco, gave the first live bear mascot to Baylor.

Ted, the division's bear mascot, first appeared at a Baylor-Texas A&M football game. When the unit received orders to move on, the bear was left behind in the hands of the Baylor Athletic Department.

Probably the best-known mascot has been Joe College who came to Baylor after former student Bill Boyd bought the bear from a zoo operating at the Cotton Palace in Waco. Baylor President Pat Neff allowed Boyd to take care of the bear in exchange for free tuition.

The current bear mascots appearing at games come from Bear Country USA, a drive-through wildlife park in South Dakota. They are rotated about every two years due to handling difficulties after the age of two and one-half.

In addition to the cubs which go to games, a larger, older bear is kept at the Hudson Bear Plaza on campus. The honor of training and caring for the bears goes to the Baylor Chamber of Commerce, a men's campus service organization.

Most bears are North American black bears, a species that adapts well to humans.

"SIC'EM BEARS" AND THE "BEAR CLAW"

In 1960, Baylor's yell leaders introduced the "Bear Claw" hand signal and "Sic'Em Bears" yell.

The initial student body and faculty reaction to the yell and coinciding hand signal, made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a bear claw, was mixed.

The issue was a hot topic of debate, and their use was sporadic through out the 60s until Grant Teaff arrived in 1972. Teaff initiated a new era of Baylor football, and the "Bear Claw" and "Sic'Em Bears" yell came to symbolize pride in Baylor football.

In addition to being used during the yell, the "Bear Claw" is held up during the playing of Baylor's school song, "That Good Old Baylor Line." Football players traditionally hold up their helmets during the playing of the school song.

EX TEX PEP RALLY

Looking for an emotional edge for his players prior to the University of Texas game, former head coach John Bridgers started the Hex Tex Pep Rally in 1960.

The highlight of the pep rally, which was first held in Minglewood Bowl but has since been moved to Floyd Casey Stadium, is the lighting of candles that are formed in the stands in the shape of an upside-down Longhorn. Current head coach Grant Teaff changed the name of the rally in 1986 because he felt the Bears no longer need to invoke the powers of a hex to beat the Longhorns.

THE "NUGGS"

Under the motto of "The Few, The Proud, The Nuggs," Baylor's all-important scout teamers, who imitate opponents' plays for the starting units, have molded themselves into one of the more distinctive groups on campus.

The name originated in the mid-'70s when scout teamers were outfitted in garish gold-colored jerseys. The reason for the distinctive togs is hotly debated, but in all likelihood they were worn near the end of the season when normal practice jerseys were in short supply.

At any rate, the devoted group, who seldom saw game action, took pride in their uniforms and called themselves the "Golden Nuggets," later shortened to "Nuggs."

To be called a "Nugg" means that a player will never see the light of day in an actual game, but is giving every ounce of his ability to help the team win by preparing the starting units.

"Nuggs" proudly wear their own T-shirts and have even printed their own media guide. Each season the top scout teamers receive the "Golden Nugget Awards."

KYLE WOODS' INSPIRITIONAL SPEECH

The football career of Baylor defensive back Kyle Woods came to a screeching halt before the 1979 season when Woods, going through a routine tackling drill, suffered a broken neck which left him paralyzed.

Showing the same determination in his rehabilitation program that he had as a football player, it took only a year for his teammates to find out just how determined Woods was.

The 1980 Baylor Bears started the season with a 7-0 record and were ranked sixth in the nation. Then came a shocking upset at home to San Jose State, a 21-point underdog.

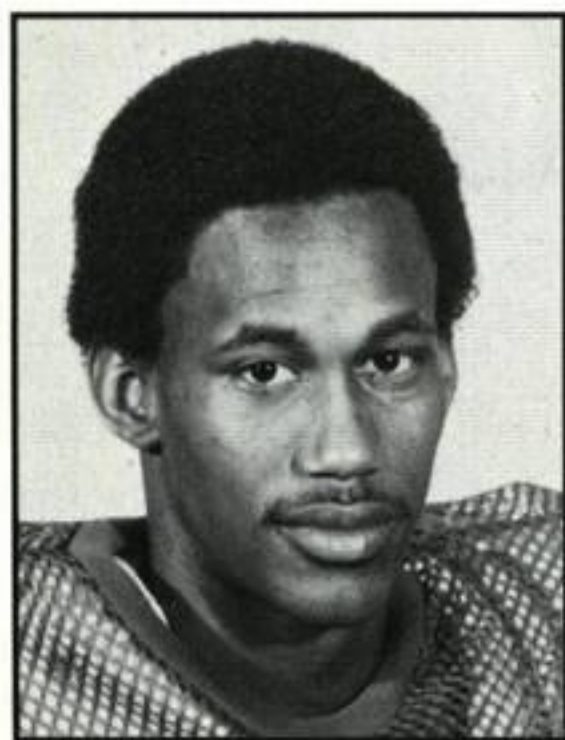

Nobody knew how the Bears would react the next week in the homecoming game against nationally-ranked Arkansas. Nobody knew except Woods, who planned to visit his old teammates before the game.

After the Bears finished their pre-game warmups, Coach Grant Teaff gathered the team in the locker room and gave Woods the chance to speak.

Woods, speaking from his wheelchair, told his teammates of the pain and problems involved in his rehabilitation. But through it all, he said, he had learned one thing: "No matter what happens to you, no matter how bad things might seem, you have to do one thing: you have to turn a setback into a comeback!"

With that Woods showed them what kind of comeback he was making. Grasping the arms of his wheelchair, he locked his arms to raise his body a few inches. Then, with the help of his brother, he stood, wobbly but erect. What followed brought shocked silence, then tears and then shouts from his teammates.

Woods took a short, shuffling step. The inspired Bears went on to beat the highly regarded Razorbacks 42-15 and finished with a 10-1 record, the Southwest Conference championship, and a Cotton Bowl berth.

HOMECOMING PARADE

One of the highlights of the Baylor Homecoming celebration each year is the Homecoming Parade, believed to be the largest and oldest in the nation. The first parade was held in 1909 and featured horsedrawn carts decorated with strips of paper. Gradually the floats became the main feature of the parade, and by the mid-1930s most organizations had a Homecoming Queen nominee riding atop their floats.

Built by school clubs, approximately 23 floats are judged in categories according to the amount of money spent to build and decorate them, Class A, B or C. Since 1939, the Baylor Chamber of Commerce has planned, organized and supervised all operations relating to the parade, floats and queen selection.

About 35,000 people annually line the streets to view the parade, with another 115,000 watching on local television. Approximately 115-120 parade entries including floats, cars carrying distinguished guests and marching bands participate in the parade which travels about two miles through Waco to the Baylor campus.

BAYLOR LINE

The Baylor Line is a spirit organization comprised of freshmen men. Wearing matching green and gold jerseys and sitting in a block on the 40-yard line enables them to cheer for the Baylor Bears from the stands.

The Line members encircle the football field prior to each game's start demonstrating their support for the Bears. In addition, the group, organized by the Baylor Chamber of Commerce, carries the alumni and national flags in the Homecoming Parade.

Baylor Traditions

GOLDEN WAVE BAND

In 1902, 17 students pooled their talents to become the Baylor Cadet Band. The next year membership increased to 28, directed by Charles W. Parker, under the auspices of the military department. This band was a part of Baylor's ROTC unit until the end of World War I when the military division was dissolved and the organization became known as the Baylor Bear Band.

In 1929, Everett McCracken was appointed director, and he initiated a new era of development for the Bear Band. A successful 10-day tour through several Texas towns was made in uniforms colored in gold. Critics spoke of the band as making "a golden wave through Texas." From that time, the band has been known as the Baylor University Golden Wave Marching Band.

In the 1950s and the 1960s, the band gained national prominence and was featured in the Orange, the Sugar, the Gator and the Bluebonnet Bowls under still active alumni, Dr. Donald I. Moore.

This year the Golden Wave, under the direction of Mike Haithcock for the tenth year, is marching 250 members.

"THAT GOOD OLD BAYLOR LINE"

The alma mater of Baylor has been the rallying call to the old school's thousands of students, ex-students and friends since shortly after the turn of the 20th century.

Its present form, however, is altogether different from the original one. In fact, its title is the only thing that has remained intact over eight decades of usage.

The now famous title was conceived in 1907 when a group of Baylor men, led by William B. Todd, borrowed a tune from a Broadway musical hit of 1902, a sprightly waltz number called "In the Good Old Summertime."

The text of that first pep-generating ditty embodies a dire threat to all gridiron foes, notably those of a sister institution of that time also located in Waco—the forerunner of Texas Christian University, then called Add-Ran college. Rivalry between the two student bodies was intense, hence, the Baylor men's threat to send their opponents home "done up in turpentine" after an encounter with formidable Baylor "line."

The words used in that first version have long been abandoned. New words were written in 1931 by Enid Eastland Markham, a 1923 Baylor graduate.

BAYLOR YELL LEADERS

Baylor athletic events had no organized spirit personnel until the first set of all-male yell leaders was elected in 1920. A student vote to allow female yell leaders came up in 1962 but narrowly failed. Another voted failed in 1963. Finally, in 1967 students voted to allow coeds to join the team, and they first appeared during the 1968 football season.

CONGRESSIONAL MEDALS OF HONOR

Baylor University is believed to be the only school in America to have two former athletes go on to win the Congressional Medal of Honor. Both men, Jack Lummus and John (Killer) Kane, won the nation's highest military honor for heroics in World War II.

Lummus played football, basketball and baseball for the Bears from 1938 through 1941. He was an All-Southwest Conference center fielder before signing with the New York Giants of the National Football League.

After one year of pro football, Lummus joined the Marines and was a platoon leader in the initial days of fighting at Iwo Jima. While leading a charge on enemy positions, Lummus stepped on a land mine and lost both legs. Despite the heavy bleeding that resulted he led his platoon to knock out several pockets of Japanese fire, a vital part of the U.S. victory.

Lummus died of his wounds shortly after the battle.

President Harry S. Truman cited Lummus by saying, "by his outstanding valor, skilled tactics and tenacious perseverance in the face of overwhelming odds, First Lieutenant Lummus had inspired his stouthearted Marines to continue the relentless drive northward, thereby contributing materially to the success of his company's mission."

Kane played football and basketball at Baylor and was a member of the ill-fated 1927 basketball team that lost ten of its members in a bus-train wreck. Kane was one of 12 survivors.

Kane joined the Army Air Corps in 1932 and soon became a bomber commander of legendary proportions. It was said he was the best pilot and toughest commander in the Air corps. It was often debated who feared him more—the Germans or his own men.

On August 1, 1943, Kane led what at the time was the deadliest air battle in history—a low-level, long-range raid on Hitler's oil-refining complex in Ploesti, Rumania. The site produced a major part of the Axis' fuel and was one of the most heavily guarded locations in history.

The Air corps' mission was to fly B-24 Liberator bombers 1,350 miles at treetop level under the range of enemy radar. It was a suicide mission despite some of the most heroic flying ever done. It is remembered as the worst catastrophe in the history of the Army Air Corps.

Of the 166 planes that departed on the mission, 73 failed to return. Kane flew for over 14 hours before returning on two of four engines.

Five Medals of Honor were awarded to pilots, the most ever from a single military operation. Only Kane and one other were alive to receive theirs.

THE DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD

From 1977-80 the Davey O'Brien Memorial Trophy was presented to the outstanding football player in the Southwest portion of the United States. In 1981, the name was changed to the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award and presented to the nation's best quarterback.

Barton "Botchey" Koch First Consensus All-American in Southwest Conference History

The Southwest Conference is now regarded as one of the premier football leagues in the nation, but back in 1930 the idea of a player of All-American status coming from the SWC seemed preposterous—until Botchey Koch came along.

Koch played guard at a stocky 5-10 and 200 pounds and left an indelible impression on everybody who saw him play.

Since no game films exist from his day, testimony of those who witnessed him personally attest to his greatness.

"He was the greatest athlete I ever coached," said former Baylor coach and athletic director Bill Henderson, a veteran of over 40 years in college athletics.

The legendary D. X. Bible put Koch on the West squad of the East-West Shrine Game. After seeing Koch play against the best in the country, Bible said, "He's the best guard I ever saw."

The San Francisco Chronicle's report of the game said, "There were a lot of great linemen in the game, but Koch was easily the best. A steam roller could not get over him." Koch was voted the game's MVP.

Former SWC football referee Pete Cawthon called him "an All-American all the way, both ways. Don't ever expect to see another one as good."

Amos Alonzo Stagg called Koch "one of the great ones." "Football brilliance," said Knute Rockne, "He's far and away the best guard I ever saw play."

Paul Crume, longtime Dallas Morning News columnist, wrote upon Koch's death in 1964, "after reviewing my memories of Botchey Koch, I doubt that there ever was a better college lineman."

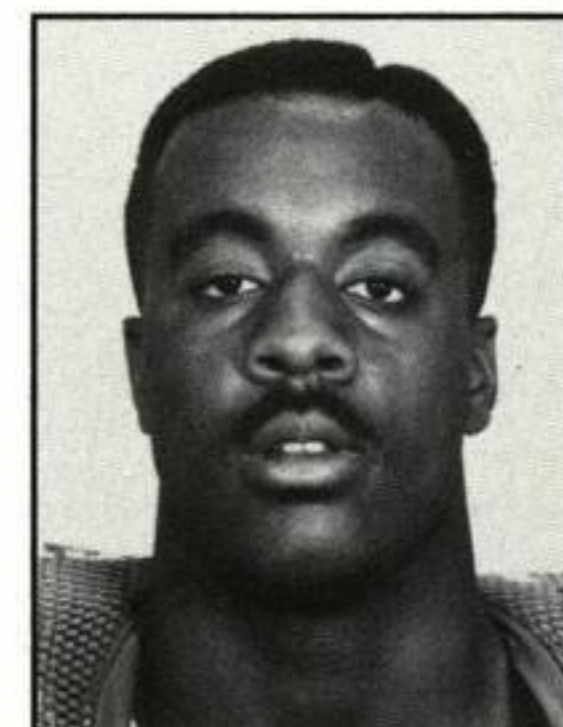

Koch is a member of the Baylor Hall of Fame, the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Baylor All-Decade team of the 20s, the College Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the Southwest Conference 50-year All-Star Team and the All-Time All-American team picked by Grantland Rice, perhaps the greatest sportswriter who ever lived and Harry Stuhldreher, one of Notre Dame's famed four horsemen and former head coach at Wisconsin.

Former Waco Tribune-Herald sports editor Jinx Tucker wrote, "He (Koch) has been accorded more national honor than any player a college or university in the state of Texas has produced and he is deserving of that honor for he is the greatest guard the Lone Star has ever seen and perhaps the greatest the nation has ever known."

THE MIKE SINGLETARY AWARD

The Mike Singletary Award is presented annually to the senior football player who has contributed the most to the team and brought honor and recognition to the University through his actions on and off the field. The award is voted on by the student body. Singletary Award winners:

"THE WORM STORY"

In 1978, the Baylor football team was suffering through a disappointing 2-8 campaign, having lost the first five games by a combined total of 21 points. The season was about to end against nationally ranked Texas and Grant Teaff knew his team had to have a mental edge.

Thus was born the famous "Worm Story." Just before the team returned to the field for the opening kickoff, Teaff told the Bears a story about two Eskimo fishermen who were out icefishing. The old veteran fisherman caught fish right and left, but the younger newcomer caught none, even though they used the same equipment and techniques.

After several hours of shivering out on the ice with no fish to show for it, the young angler asked the wiser pro what his secret was. The old man then opened his mouth revealing a wad of live worms and said, "You have to keep your worms warm!"

With that Teaff produced a live night-crawler he had purchased at a bait store just before the game. As players' eyes widened he held it up and said, "Today men, I'm going to keep the worms warm!" He then dropped the creepy crawler in his mouth, chewed a few times and swallowed.

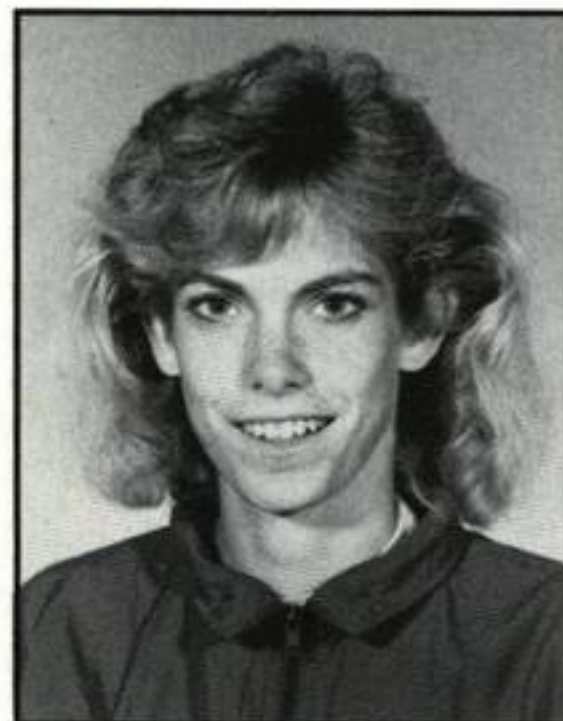

The team went wild, almost tearing the locker door off its hinges trying to get back onto the field.

Mickey Elam, a converted running back playing quarterback, shocked the heavily favored Longhorns and the Bears won 38-14. That score was the largest margin of victory by Baylor over Texas until 1989's 50-7 win. Teaff stressed later that using the worm was simply a psychological device to allow his players to relax and play up to their potential.

NACDA/DISNEY SCHOLARSHIP

The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and Disney Corporation present 10 graduating seniors scholarships to help continue their education at the graduate level each year. The scholarship winners are chosen from a list of nominees including all the nation's top senior student/athletes in all sports.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION HALL OF FAME MEMBERS

BARTON "BOTCHEY" KOCH—Botchey Koch was considered by every football expert to the greatest lineman of his era. In his senior season of 1930 he made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

BILL GLASS—Bill Glass was everybody's All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. His senior season, 1956, he led the Bears to a 9-2 record and Sugar Bowl victory over the previously undefeated Tennessee Volunteers. He and Texas A&M's Jack Pardee, now head coach of the Houston Oilers, were voted Houston Post SWC Most Valuable Players that year. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1985.

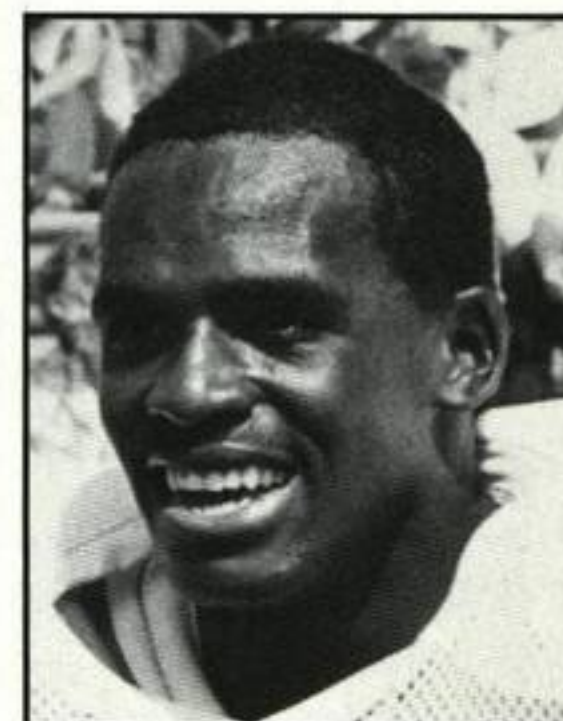

JIM RAY SMITH—Jim Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in 1953 and '54. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. Smith has remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1987.

MORLEY JENNINGS—Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head coach, compiling a record of 82-60-6 from 1926-40. Nine of Jennings' BU teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-3. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-5-1. Among the great players he coached were Botchey Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1973.

SWC ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Since 1983-84 the Southwest Conference has chosen one male and one female athlete as the league's very best, regardless of sport.

Three players who had big parts in Baylor's 1974 South-west Conference championship: tailback Steve Beaird, fullback Pat McNeil and quarterback Neal Jeffrey.

Floyd Casey Stadium History

As evidenced by the beautiful new athletic complex in the north endzone of Baylor's Floyd Casey Stadium, the Bears now have a football facility equal to any in the country.

Stadium renovation, which included a new All-Pro Turf playing surface, new lights, expanded and improved restrooms, new concession stands and a new pressbox elevator were completed for the 1990 season.

The north endzone athletic complex now houses departmental offices, locker rooms, training rooms, weight facilities, a video studio, meeting rooms and Bear Club facilities.

The state-of-the-art facility was opened last spring. The make-over was completed as the stadium enters its 42nd year of service to Baylor. After 39 years of being called Baylor Stadium, 1989 was the stadium's first full year under the name of Floyd Casey Stadium.

The name change officially took place during halftime ceremonies of the 1988 Homecoming game with Arkansas when it was announced that longtime University supporter and trustee the late Carl B. Casey of Dallas and his wife, Thelma, contributed $5 million to the stadium renovation project in honor of his father Floyd Casey.

The generous Casey donation was part of an $8 million campaign.

After World War II the Baylor Stadium Corporation was formed and began a campaign to build a stadium for the University. The corporation launched a bond sales program and was able to raise $1.5 million for construction costs. The Bears moved to Baylor Stadium in 1950.

The first game played in the 48,500-seat stadium was September 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over the Houston Cougars, then an independent team. The initial Southwest Conference game was November 4, 1950, a 27-20 win over Texas A&M. the largest crowd to see the Bears play at home was the 1974 A&M game when 51,200 fans jammed the stadium to watch the Aggies shut out the SWC champion Bears, 20-0.

Many improvements and additions have been made to the stadium over the years. Until 1972 the Bears played on natural grass, but with the hiring of head coach Grant Teaff the first AstroTurf surface was installed in 1972. A second AstroTurf surface was added in the summer of 1980.

During the 1970s, the beautiful and comfortable Lettermen's Lounge was built on the stadium's west side. Also, an expanded Bear Club Room was added. Both projects were funded by the respective groups' members.

An eight-year project to change from worn wooden to modern aluminum bleachers was finished in 1981.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Casey

Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were employed by the Bears. The first Bear football squad was formed in 1899, but no records are available to prove where the team played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.

From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility. An unknown number of games were played at the old Cotton Palace during this period.

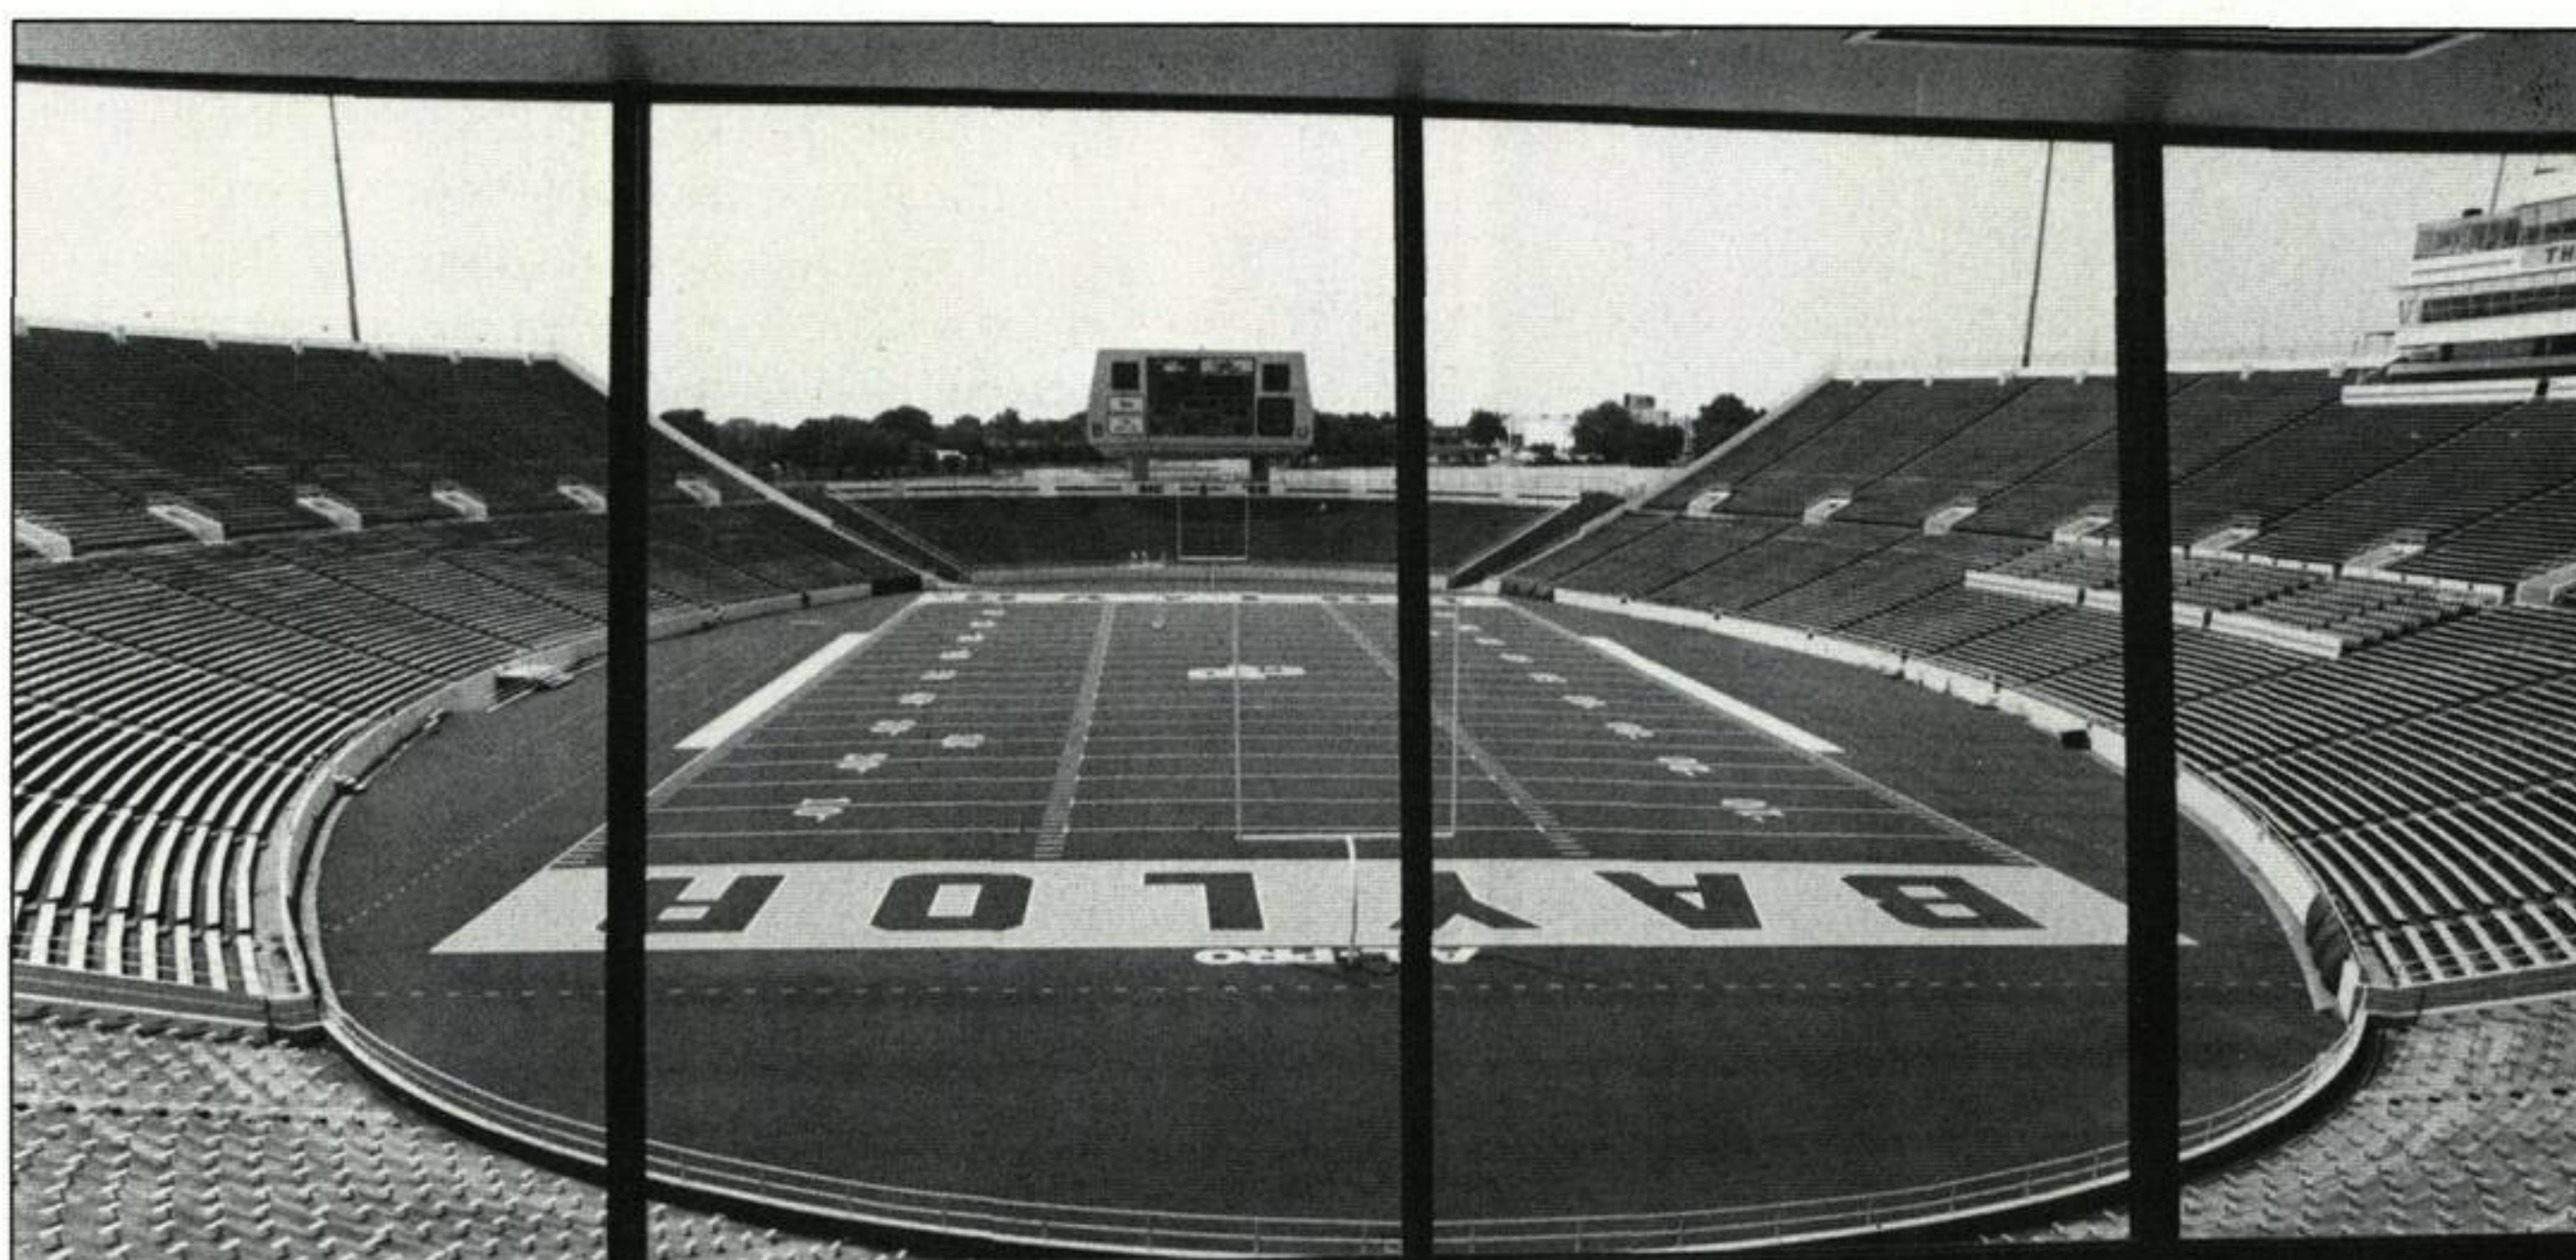

The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning back to Carroll Field from 1930-35. The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home. Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was there BU played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.

Through 88 years Baylor has compiled a record of 175-156-28 at its various home playing fields.

Although edged in the final statistics, coach Bob Woodruff's Baylor Bears won the first bowl appearance in the school's history by defeating Wake Forest 20-7 in the second annual Dixie Bowl.

Wake Forest, although gaining 277 total yards compared to Baylor's 212, fell behind 20-0 at halftime to the upstart Bears and could never seriously threaten the 6-3-2 victors.

Bear defender George Sims recorded the game's first turnover when he intercepted a Deacon pass in their first possession and returned it 52 yards to the Wake Forest eight-yard line.

Sammie Pierce, who averaged 13.1 yards a carry against the 6-3 Deacons, scored the first touchdown from a yard out and Jerry Mangrum scored from the same distance in the second quarter to give Baylor a 13-0 lead.

The Bears increased the margin to 20-0 off a 68-yard drive, highlighted by a Pierce 40-yard romp. Quarterback Ray Painter, who had attempted only seven passes during the regular season, passed the final 12 yards to Harold Riley for the score. Hank Dickerson added his second PAT for the day.

All-American quarterback Adrian Burk completed five passes for 69 yards, with two of the completions going to Riley. James Parker also hauled in a Burk aerial for 23 Baylor yards.

James Parker led the Baylor rushing attack with 43 yards on eight carries.

Pepper Rodgers kicked a 13-yard field goal with three minutes remaining to give Georgia Tech a 17-14 come-from-behind victory over Baylor in Miami's Orange Bowl contest.

Tech scored 10 fourth quarter points on Rodgers' effort and a Buck Martin touchdown reception, while holding Baylor scoreless to nip the 8-1-1 Bears.

Bear fullback Dick Parma scored the game's first touchdown from a yard out and the legendary C. O. Brocato added the PAT as Baylor led 7-0 in the first quarter.

After Tech knotted the score at 7, Baylor drove 63 yards, capped by Jerry Coody's four-yard scoring blast, to give the Bears a 14-7 halftime margin.

Coody was the team's leading ground gainer during the regular season, picking up 570 yards on 125 carries.

But coach Bobby Dodd's Tech squad used Rodgers and Martin's last quarter heroics to take their comeback win.

The Orange Bowl loss was Baylor's second of the 1951 season, the first coming at the hands of TCU 20-7.

Larry Isbell, who threw for 1,430 yards during the regular season, attempted 18 passes against Georgia Tech, completing eight for 93 yards. Parma was the contest's top ground gainer with 107 yards on 19 attempts.

All-American end Stanley Williams, who caught 37 regular season passes for six touchdowns, and Harold Riley each caught three Isbell passes. And defensive back Robert Reid, who established a school interception record with 11 regular season swipes, intercepted one pass from Tech quarterback Darrell Crawford.

Thirteenth-ranked Auburn scored five of the first six times they touched the football on their way to a 33-13 thrashing of Baylor in the 1954 Gator Bowl.

The Tigers, who established three Gator Bowl records and tied another in the rout, outgained Baylor 476 to 239 in total yardage.

Bear all-conference halfback Del Shofner fumbled the opening kickoff and the Tigers recovered on the Bear 27-yard line. Five plays later, Auburn scored the game's first touchdown and led 7-0.

Baylor tied the game by driving 63 yards in nine plays, the majority coming off a Billy Hooper pass to Charles Smith. Fullback Reuben Saage scored from a yard out and Smith kicked the conversion to tie the game at 7.

But before Baylor scored again, Auburn led 27-7.

Joe Childress, the game's leading yard gainer with 134 steps, scored his second touchdown of the game and Bob James added a 43-yard scoring jaunt to give Auburn a 21-7 halftime edge.

Tiger quarterback Bobby Freeman gave his squad a 27-7 lead on a six-yard romp.

All-America halfback L. G. (Long Gone) Dupre butted his way for a 38-yard scoring play to cut the lead to 27-13 midway through the third quarter. Dupre, the Bears' third leading rusher during the regular season behind Shofner and Allen Jones, finished his team's leading rusher against the Tigers with an 69 yards.

Freeman completed the scoring with a four-yard fourth quarter pass to end Jimmy Long.

Hooper, an all-conference honoree, finished with nine completions in 15 attempts for 112 yards, with four of the aerals going to Smith.

Dupre returned three Auburn kickoffs for 85 yards as the Bears finished 7-4 for the season. Shug Jordon was the winning Auburn coach while George Sauer saw his Bears go down to defeat.

Reuben Saage recovered Tennessee All-America halfback Johnny Majors' fumble of a Del Shofner punt and Baylor then drove 15 yards for the winning touchdown in the Bears' 13-7 upset over the undefeated Volunteers in the 23rd annual Sugar Bowl.

Bear quarterback Buddy Humphrey scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard sneak and Don Berry added the conversion for the 10-2 Bears of coach Sam Boyd.

Baylor scored first, despite being a one-touchdown underdog, when quarterback Bobby Jones threw a 12-yard scoring strike to Jerry Marcontel in the second quarter.

But Majors, who averaged 5.1 yards per rush, who completed better than 60 percent of his passes and punted for a 42.3 yard average during the regular season, gave the Volunteers the lead in the third quarter by reaching pay dirt from a yard out. Sammy Burklow added the PAT and Tennessee led 7-6.

After the Volunteers held Baylor on their first possession of the fourth quarter, Shofner punted to the Tennessee eight. Majors returned the kick seven yards before coughing up the pigskin and Saage was there to make the big play for Baylor.

The contest matched the Southeastern Conference champion Vols against Baylor, who suffered a 7-6 loss to Texas Christian and a 19-13 setback to Texas A&M during the regular season.

Tennessee and coach Bowden Wyatt swept through a 10-game schedule in which they conquered five teams that participated in bowl games New Year's 1956. Only seven points separated Baylor from an unbeaten record.

Baylor halfback Del Shofner, running behind an offensive line headed by all-American Bill Glass, finished with 88 yards rushing in 14 carries and also intercepted on Volunteer aerial. For his play, Shofner, who scored ten touchdowns during the regular season, was voted the game's outstanding player.

Bobby Peters contributed 60 yards rushing for Baylor while Saage added 39 steps. Bear quarterbacks Humphrey, Bobby Jones and Doyle Traylor could only complete three passes, all going to end Morcontell.

Peters added 54 yards in kickoff runbacks.

Coach John Bridgers' pro-modeled Spread-T Baylor offense could muster only two touchdowns against a swarming Florida defense as the Gators took a 13-12 decision in the 16th annual Gator Bowl.

On the Bears' first possession of the second quarter, a pitchout from quarterback Ronnie Stanley to all-American halfback Ronnie Bull was mishandled and Florida's Chet Collins recovered on the Baylor 20-yard line.

It took the Gators five plays to score and fullback Don Goodman plunged the final three for the tally. Bill Cash added the conversion and Florida led 7-0 with 8:42 remaining in the half.

Coach Ray Graves' squad extended their lead to 13-0 later in the same stanza when Gator defender Ronnie Slack recovered a Stanley fumble in the end zone for the quick six points.

Florida traveled 20 yards for their two scores while Baylor went 139 steps for the same results.

Down 13-0 in the fourth quarter, the Bears, who finished 8-3, put forth a furious surge that resulted in 12 points.

On the first play of the quarter, quarterback Bobby Ply threw 11 yards to Ronnie Goodwin for the score, ending a 71-yard, nine-play drive.

With 1:01 remaining, Ply, who threw for four touchdowns during the regular season, and Stanley put the Bears in position to score with three completed aerials. Bull, Baylor's leading rusher and scorer, went the final three steps for the score. However, the two-point try from Ply to Goodwin was juggled and dropped and the Gators had their hard-earned victory.

Ply established a new Gator Bowl record with 13 completions and teamed with Goodwin (seven receptions) for five.

Eight Utah State turnovers and outstanding performances by halfback Ronnie Bull and sophomore quarterback Don Trull led Baylor to a 24-9 victory over Utah State in the inaugural Gotham Bowl at the Polo Grounds.

Baylor recovered their first of five Utah fumbles and went 45 yards to score the first time it had the ball. Bull, who had 86 total yards and was voted the game's Most Valuable Player, scooted 15 yards for the initial Bear touchdown.

In the second quarter, Carl Choate kicked a 22-yard field goal for Baylor and Trull added the third score on a quarterback sneak coving two yards. Trull, who passed for 116 yards against the nation's number two defensive unit, connected with Ted Plumb for a 38-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass to end Baylor's scoring.

Choate was perfect in three extra point tries and Bull and Plumb combined for seven pass receptions.

Utah State, who entered the game with a 9-0-1 mark and a share of the Skyline Conference championship, was favored to beat coach John Bridgers' Bears, who finished with a 5-5 regular season slate.

Coached by John Ralston, the Aggies featured three standouts who later starred in professional football: all-American tackle Merlin Olsen, quarterback Bill Munson and place-kicker Jim Turner.

The 5th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at Rice Stadium saw Baylor All-American quarterback Don Trull finish his collegiate career in grand style in the Bears' 14-7 win over Louisiana State.

Trull, voted the contest's most outstanding back, completed 26 of 37 passes for 255 yards and both Baylor touchdowns. End James Ingram, the game's most outstanding lineman, caught 11 of Trull's passes for 163 yards and seven- and 13-yard scoring strikes.

The Bears totally dominated their opponent, running 80 plays to LSU's 39 and racking up 394 total yards compared to the Tigers' 108.

Dalton Hoffman was the leading rusher for both teams, gaining 70 yards for Baylor, who ended the season 8-3. Tom Davies kicked both Baylor conversions.

The Tigers scored first, moving 43 yards in seven plays in the first quarter. Bill Soefker went the final eight steps for LSU and the Tigers led 7-0.

Baylor scored their first touchdown with 13:10 remaining as Trull hit Ingram for the seven-yard strike. The Bears moved 68 yards in ten plays for the score with Trull completing three passes.

On their next possession, the Bears drove 70 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Four completed Trull attempts, two each to Lawrence Elkins and Ingram, highlighted the scoring march.

Baylor, who lost to Oregon State, Texas and Kentucky during the regular season, was led during the year by All-Americans Trull and Elkins, all-conference tackle Bobby Crenshaw and top rusher Hoffman.

Quarterback Tom Shuman established Cotton Bowl records in passing and total offense and flanker Jimmy Cefalo did likewise in receiving yards in Penn State's 41-20 decision over Baylor in the 1975 Classic.

For the fifth time in their 10-victory 1974 season, the Lions came from behind to win. The victory spoiled Baylor's first appearance in the Dallas event, coming on the heels of the school's first Southwest Conference championship since 1924.

Baylor captured a 7-0 first quarter lead with Steve Beaird's four-yard blast. Bubba Hicks added the PAT conversion with 44 seconds remaining in the opening quarter.

A Matt Bahr 25-yard field goal closed the Bears' lead to 7-3 at intermission.

After the Nittany Lions took their first lead off Tom Donchez' one-yard blast, all-conference quarterback Neal Jeffrey put Baylor ahead 14-10 with a 35-yard scoring toss to end Ricky Thompson.

Three touchdowns, two by Cefalo and one by Shuman, and another Bahr field goal gave Penn State a 34-14 lead with 3:32 remaining. But the Bears, who finished 8-4 for the year, refused to fold and with 19 seconds left reserve quarterback Mark Jackson teamed with Thompson for a 11-yard touchdown.

On the ensuing kickoff, Hicks tried an onside kick only to watch Lion Joe Jackson scoop up the loose pigskin and race 50 yards for another Penn State score with two seconds left.

Baylor junior safety Ken Quesenberry, who had 12 tackles and one interception, was named the game's most Outstanding Defensive Player. Defensive back Tom Turnipseed added 11 tackles for the Bears and also recovered a Donchez fumble.

Senior Phillip Kent, one of eight Baylor all-conference selections playing in the game, returned three Nittany Lion kickoffs for 58 yards.

Thompson and tight end Sam Harper each caught three passes.

Quarterbacks Mike Brannan and Mickey Elam passed for 86 yards each to spark the Baylor Bears to a 24-18 upset win over the 17th-ranked Clemson Tigers in Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

The win vaulted coach Grant Teaff's Bears into 14th place on the Associated Press' final college football poll. The 8-4 Bruins were beaten during the regular season by Alabama, Houston, Arkansas and Texas, all members of the top ten.

With the Tigers leading 7-0, Brannan teamed with Bo Taylor on a three-yard touchdown toss to knot the score following Robert Bledsoe's extra point. The tally came eight plays after Baylor recorded its first of two blocked punts against Clemson kicker David Sims.

They forged ahead 14-7 with 12:20 left in the second quarter when Brannan, voted the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, connected with Robert Holt for a 24-yard scoring strike.

Baylor's final ten points resulted from a Bledsoe 29-yard field goal and a scoring pass from Elam to Raymond Cockrell that covered seven yards.

Senior defensive end Andrew Melontree, voted the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player and linebackers Doak Field and All-American Mike Singletary led a Baylor defense that held an 8-3 Clemson offensive unit to 67 yards rushing.

Elam and tailback Walter Abercrombie set a Baylor bowl record when the duo teamed for a 63-yard pass completion in the third quarter to set up Bledsoe's field goal.

Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide completely dominated Baylor in the 45th annual Cotton Bowl on their way to a 30-2 rout.

The Bears, ranked as high as sixth place in the nation during the regular season, closed an outstanding 10-2 and Southwest Conference championship campaign by dropping their second Cotton Bowl game in as many tries.

Alabama, who closed a 10-2 year with the win, took advantage of four Baylor fumbles and also intercepted three Bear passes to roll up a 339-158 total yardage advantage.

Three Peter Kim field goals and scoring runs by Major Ogilvie, Don Jacobs and Mark Nix put the Crimson Tide on the scoreboard while a Tommy Tabor first quarter safety made the only points the Bears could muster.

The league-leading Baylor offense netted 54 yards rushing, 18 by quarterback Jay Jeffrey. SWC champion runner Walter Abercrombie was held to nine yards on eight attempts by the Alabama defense.

Fullback Dennis Gentry was the leading pass receiver in the game, grabbing five receptions while Robert Holt added three others. Also, Gerald McNeil accumulated 100 yards in kickoff and punt returns for the Bears.

Tabor and all-conference linebacker Doak Field led the Baylor defensive charge with 15 stops each. All-American middle linebacker Mike Singletary, all-league safety Vann McElroy and linebacker Lester Ward each had 12 tackles for Baylor.

Baylor, following the New Year's Day defeat, dropped to 14th place in the final football poll.

Oklahoma State raced to a 21-0 lead in the first half before finally holding off Baylor, 24-14 in the 25th annual Bluebonnet Bowl at the Astrodome.

Aided by a roughing-the-passer call and fine running by Alfred Anderson and Broderick Sargent, Baylor drove 87 yards in eight plays for its first score. Cody Carlson hit All-American Gerald McNeil with a 12-yard TD strike.

Oklahoma State scored its final points of the night on a 44-yard field goal by Larry Roach after Jim Mueller's onside kick attempt failed. The Cowboys drove from midfield to Baylor's 27-yard line before settling for the field goal with 21 seconds left in the half.

Rusty Hilger missed the second half after being knocked out by BU linebacker Robert Watters and was replaced by reserve quarterback Ike Jackson. Jackson moved OSU to the Baylor five early in the third quarter but Thomas Everett, Aaron Grant and Kevin Hancock led one of BU's best defensive stands of the year. Roach's field goal attempt was blocked by Ervin Randle.

Both of Baylor's interceptions came in the last period; Tom Muecke and Cody Carlson threw one each as the Bears hurried to catch up. on McNeil took a 28-yard halfback option pass from Anderson and Marty Jimmerson kicked the PAT to cut OSU's lead to 10 with 5:14 remaining. Baylor's hopes were dashed for good when Muecke was trapped for a loss of five on fourth down with 1:10 showing on the OSU 45.

Hancock led Baylor defensively with 14 tackles while Paul Mergenhagen added 10.

Baylor fashioned one of its finest bowl efforts ever in beating LSU 21-7 in the 27th Liberty Bowl Football Classic.

The Bears dominated virtually every phase of the game. They gained 489 yards total offense to the Tigers' 192. Baylor led in first downs (26-9), rushing yards (215-92), passing yards (274-101), yards per snap (5.4-3.3) and time of possession (37:14-22:46).

The Baylor defense played so well the second half LSU gained only 72 yards on 26 plays. In the third quarter the Tigers had 11 yards total offense on nine snaps.

LSU got on the board first with a 79-yard Norman Jefferson punt return. That play, a Liberty Bowl record, came with 5:17 remaining in the first quarter and turned out to be LSU's only fireworks of the cool, clear evening.

The Bears took the ensuing kickoff and marched 80 yards in seven plays to knot the score at seven. On a third and goal from the five, quarterback Cody Carlson hit a diving Matt Clark in the corner of the end zone. Terry Syler added the extra point.

Syler made it 10-7 with his 29-yard field goal with 5:36 left in the first half and upped the score to 13-7 with a 35-yarder early in the third quarter.

Baylor's final tally came when Carlson connected with John Simpson on a 15-yard scoring strike with 10:42 left to play. The junior quarterback, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player, then hit Clark for a two-point conversion, making the final score 21-7.

In addition to Carlson, Simpson was named Baylor's Outstanding Offensive Player on the strength of his three catches for 117 yards, including a 59-yarder which helped set up a Syler field goal. Cornerback Ron Francis, who had an interception, fumble recovery and six tackles was named Baylor's Outstanding Defensive Player.

Baylor's defense, led by Most Valuable Player Ray Berry, stymied Colorado's wishbone offense to key a 21-9 Bear win in the 28th annual Bluebonnet Bowl.

The Bears limited the Big Eight runner-up Buffaloes to only 194 total net yards, 83 of which came on the ground. Berry, called a "one man wrecking crew" by sportswriters after the game, accounted for 12 tackles, three of which resulted in 12 yards in losses.

With the win Baylor finished the season 9-3 and ranked as the Southwest Conference's highest team in the national polls. Sports Illustrated listed the Bears in the No. 8 spot while the Associated Press ranked BU No. 12 and the United Press International No. 13.

Colorado found out early what kind of day it would be for the Baylor defensive squad. They managed only one field goal and 77 yards total offense in their first eight possessions through nearly three quarters of play. Meanwhile, Baylor's offense did what it had to do, scoring a touchdown in each of those first three quarters.

The first Bear TD capped a 12-play, 64-yard drive in the first quarter. The drive was kept alive by a CU offside penalty when Baylor was in punt formation. The highlight play was a 22-yard run off tackle by Derrick McAdoo down to the Colorado five. Four plays later, McAdoo, a senior from Houston, dove over from the one on a fourth-down play.

Baylor next hit pay dirt midway through the second stanza. It took only three plays to go eight yards after Keith Rose recovered an errant Colorado pitch. Quarterback Cody Carlson hit flanker Darnell Chase in the corner of the end zone on a two-yard scoring strike.

Another turnover gobbled up by the BU defense set up Baylor's final score. Robert Watters sacked the Buff QB and Berry recovered on the 21. It took only four plays, one of which was a 17-yard shot from Carlson to Matt Clark, before McAdoo tied the BU school record with two TDs in a bowl game.

The rest of the way it was just a matter of letting the defense do its thing while younger players got valuable experience. Carlson saw no action in the fourth quarter because of a bruised shoulder.

In addition to scoring twice McAdoo led Bear rushers with 36 yards. Jeffrey Murray was right behind with 35. Carlson completed 11 of 22 passes for 136 yards and Clark was the biggest recipient. he caught three for 58 steps.

Indiana - 24 Baylor - 0

Baylor watched two golden scoring opportunities slip through its hands while Indiana used a patient balanced attack to grind out a 24-0 victory over the Bears in Copper Bowl III in Tucson, AZ.

Indiana jumped to a 7-0 lead, largely on the rushing of All-American Vaughn Dunbar, who finished the game with 106 yards and the Most Valuable Player Award. Late in the first quarter the Bears were driving nicely before a drive stalled at the Hoosier 21.

Lining up in field goal formation, Baylor opted for a fake pass from holder Kent Brentham to kicker Jeff Ireland. Ireland was totally uncovered on a pattern for the endzone, but the pass scraped off his fingertips.

That mishap seemed to set a pattern for Baylor's 14th bowl game and first west of Waco. IU added a field goal after a long drive late in the first and it seemed like Baylor had a chance to regroup while down by only 10 at the half. But the Hoosiers got the ball back with 2:37 remaining and drove 80 yards in 10 plays to go up 17-0 at the half.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive struggle until the Bears drove from their 22 to the IU six. Then, with Baylor having a chance to get back into the game, Robert Strait fumbled into the endzone after he and quarterback J.J. Joe never quite made connections on a handoff.

With another opportunity gone, Baylor could do little the rest of the game. The Hoosiers added another score to make it 24-0 at the end. Their final scoring march went 60 yards on 12 plays and consumed 6:48.

IU led in virtually every statistical category, but not to the extent which the final score would indicate. They rushed for 147 yards, compared to Baylor's 138. They passed for 176 yards while BU had 131. The time of possession chart favored Indiana 32:55 to 27:05. The real story for Baylor seemed to be lost opportunities and mental lapses which Indiana did a fine job of exploiting.

Le'Shai Maston was one of a few bright spots for Baylor as he had 13 tackles from his linebacker spot. Cornerback Frankie Smith added nine tackles and had 53 yards on five punt returns.

The Bears finished the season 8-4.

Baylor's All-American Tradition

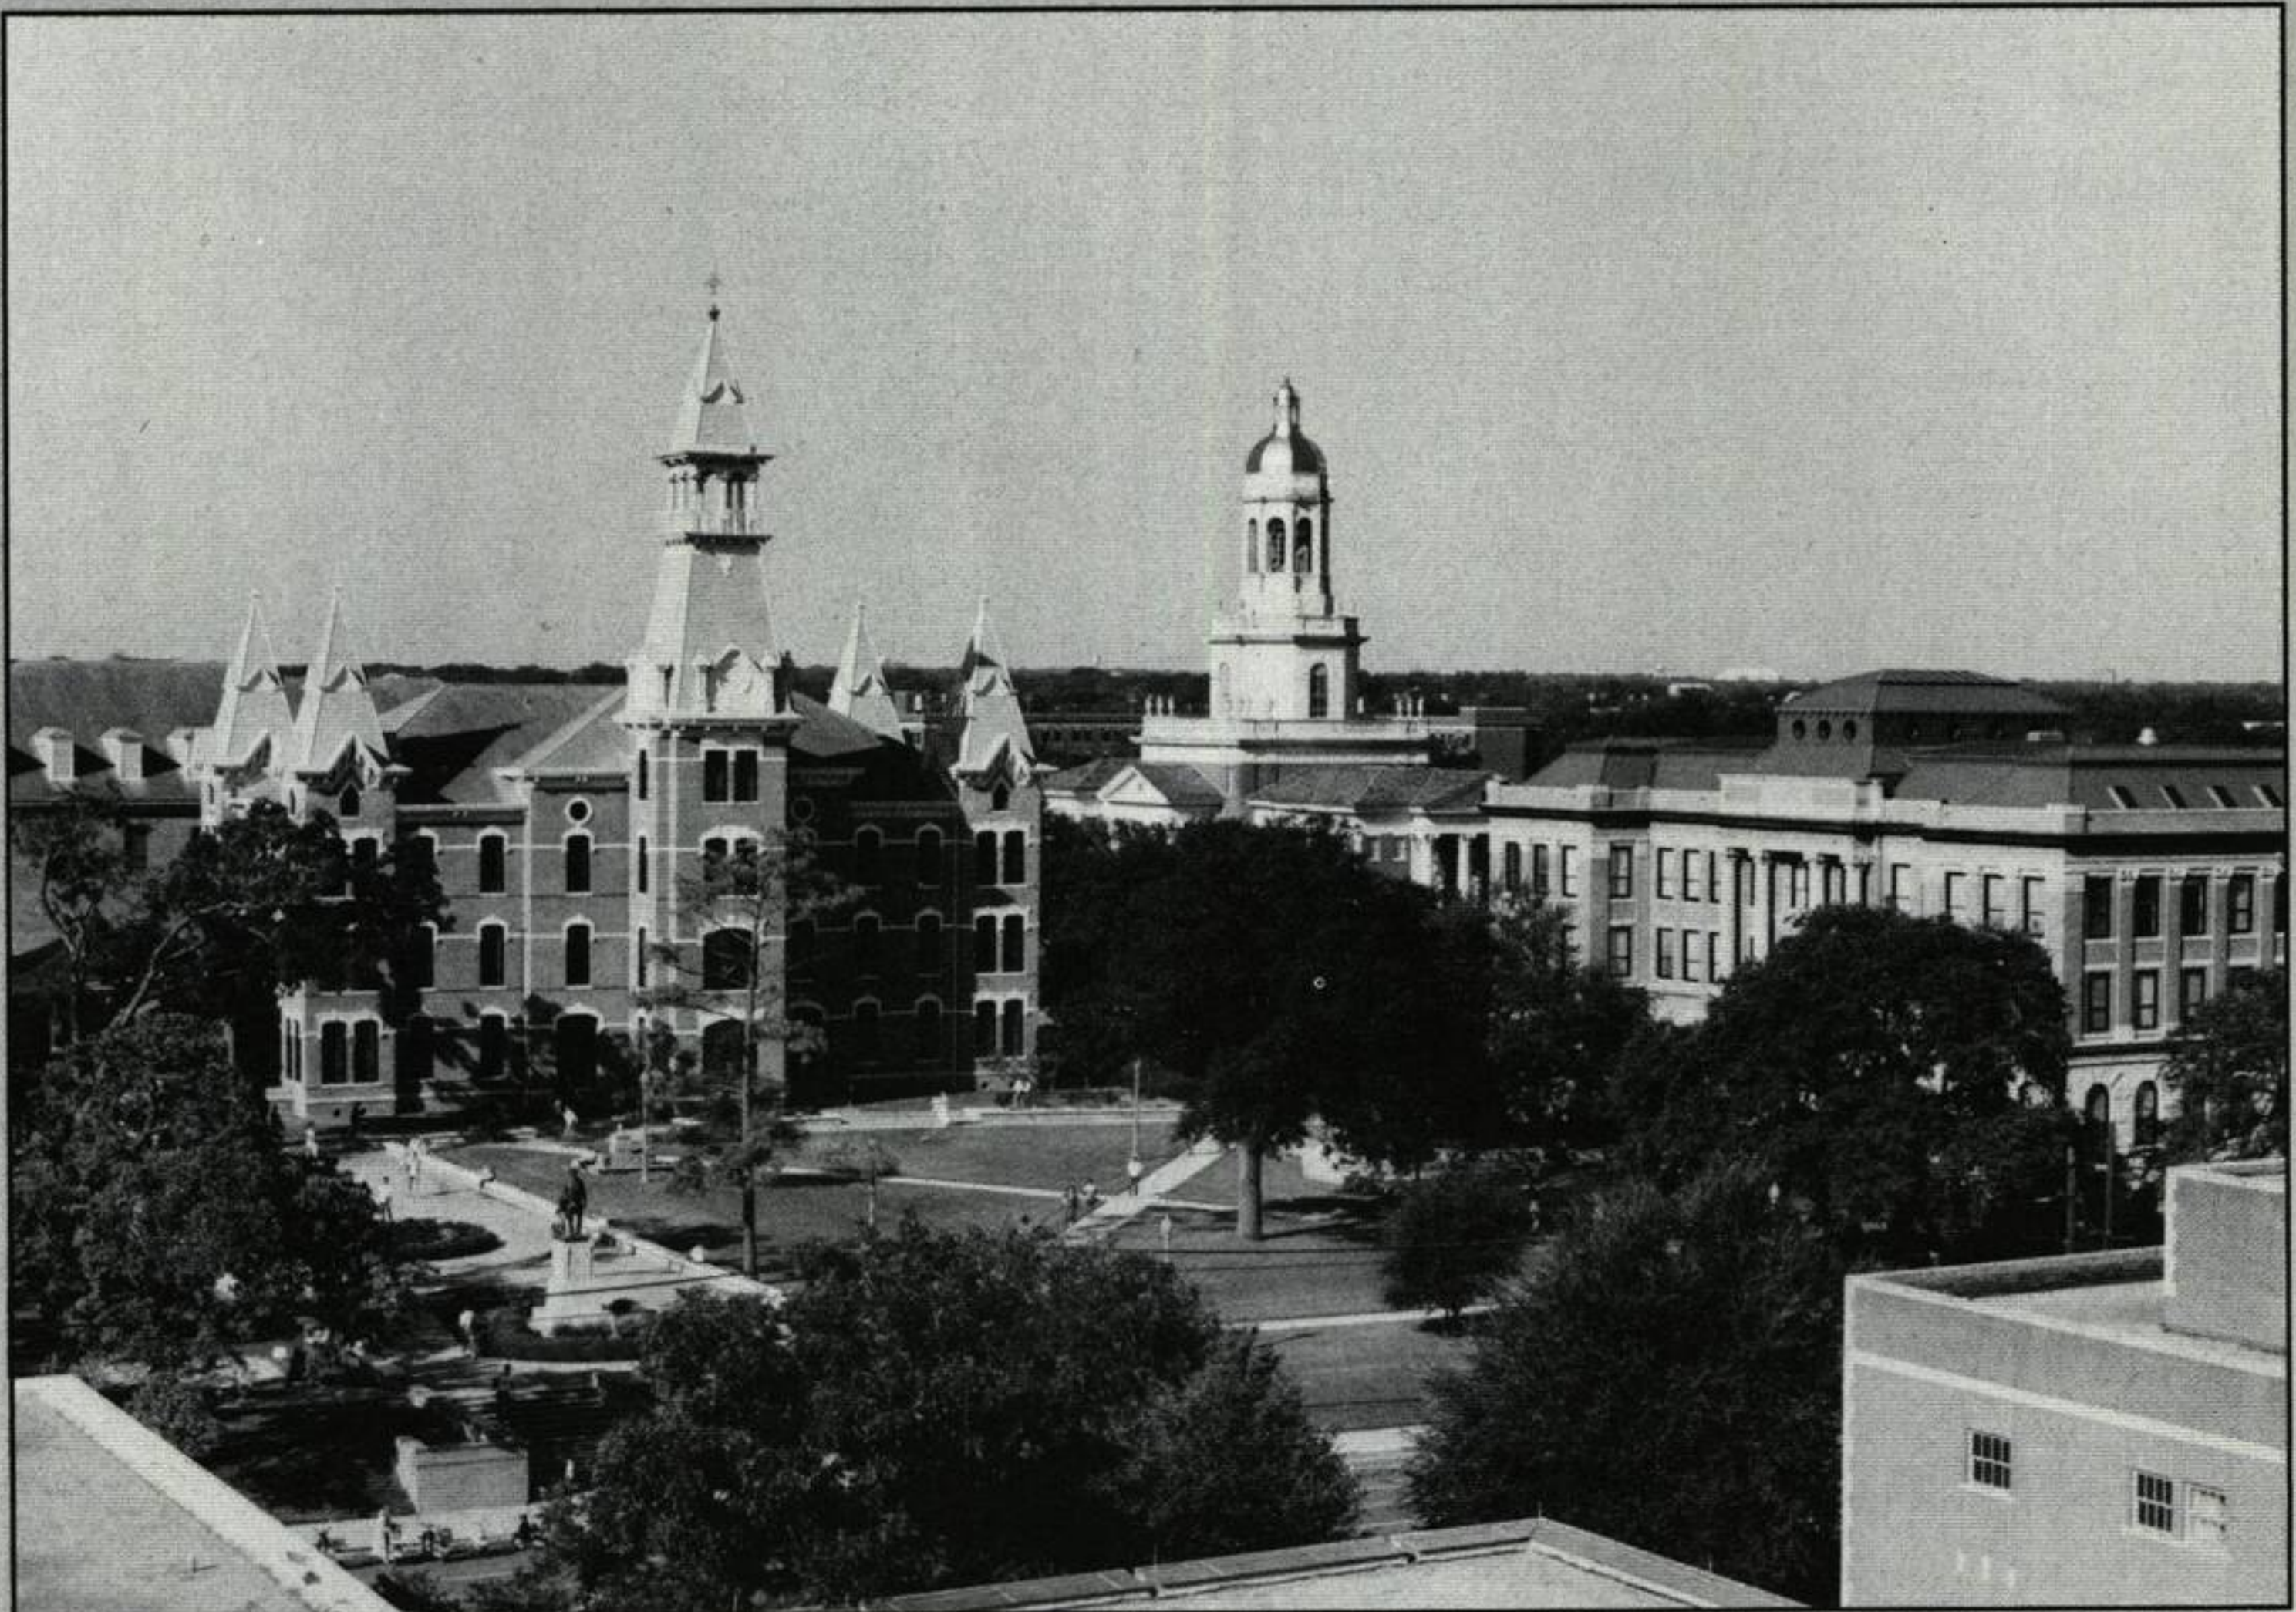

From Botchey Koch (above), the first consensus All-American in Southwest Conference history, to Roger Goree (right), Grant Teaff's first Baylor All-American in 1972, to Santana Dotson (upper right), a 1991 consensus All-American, the All-American tradition runs deep at Baylor.

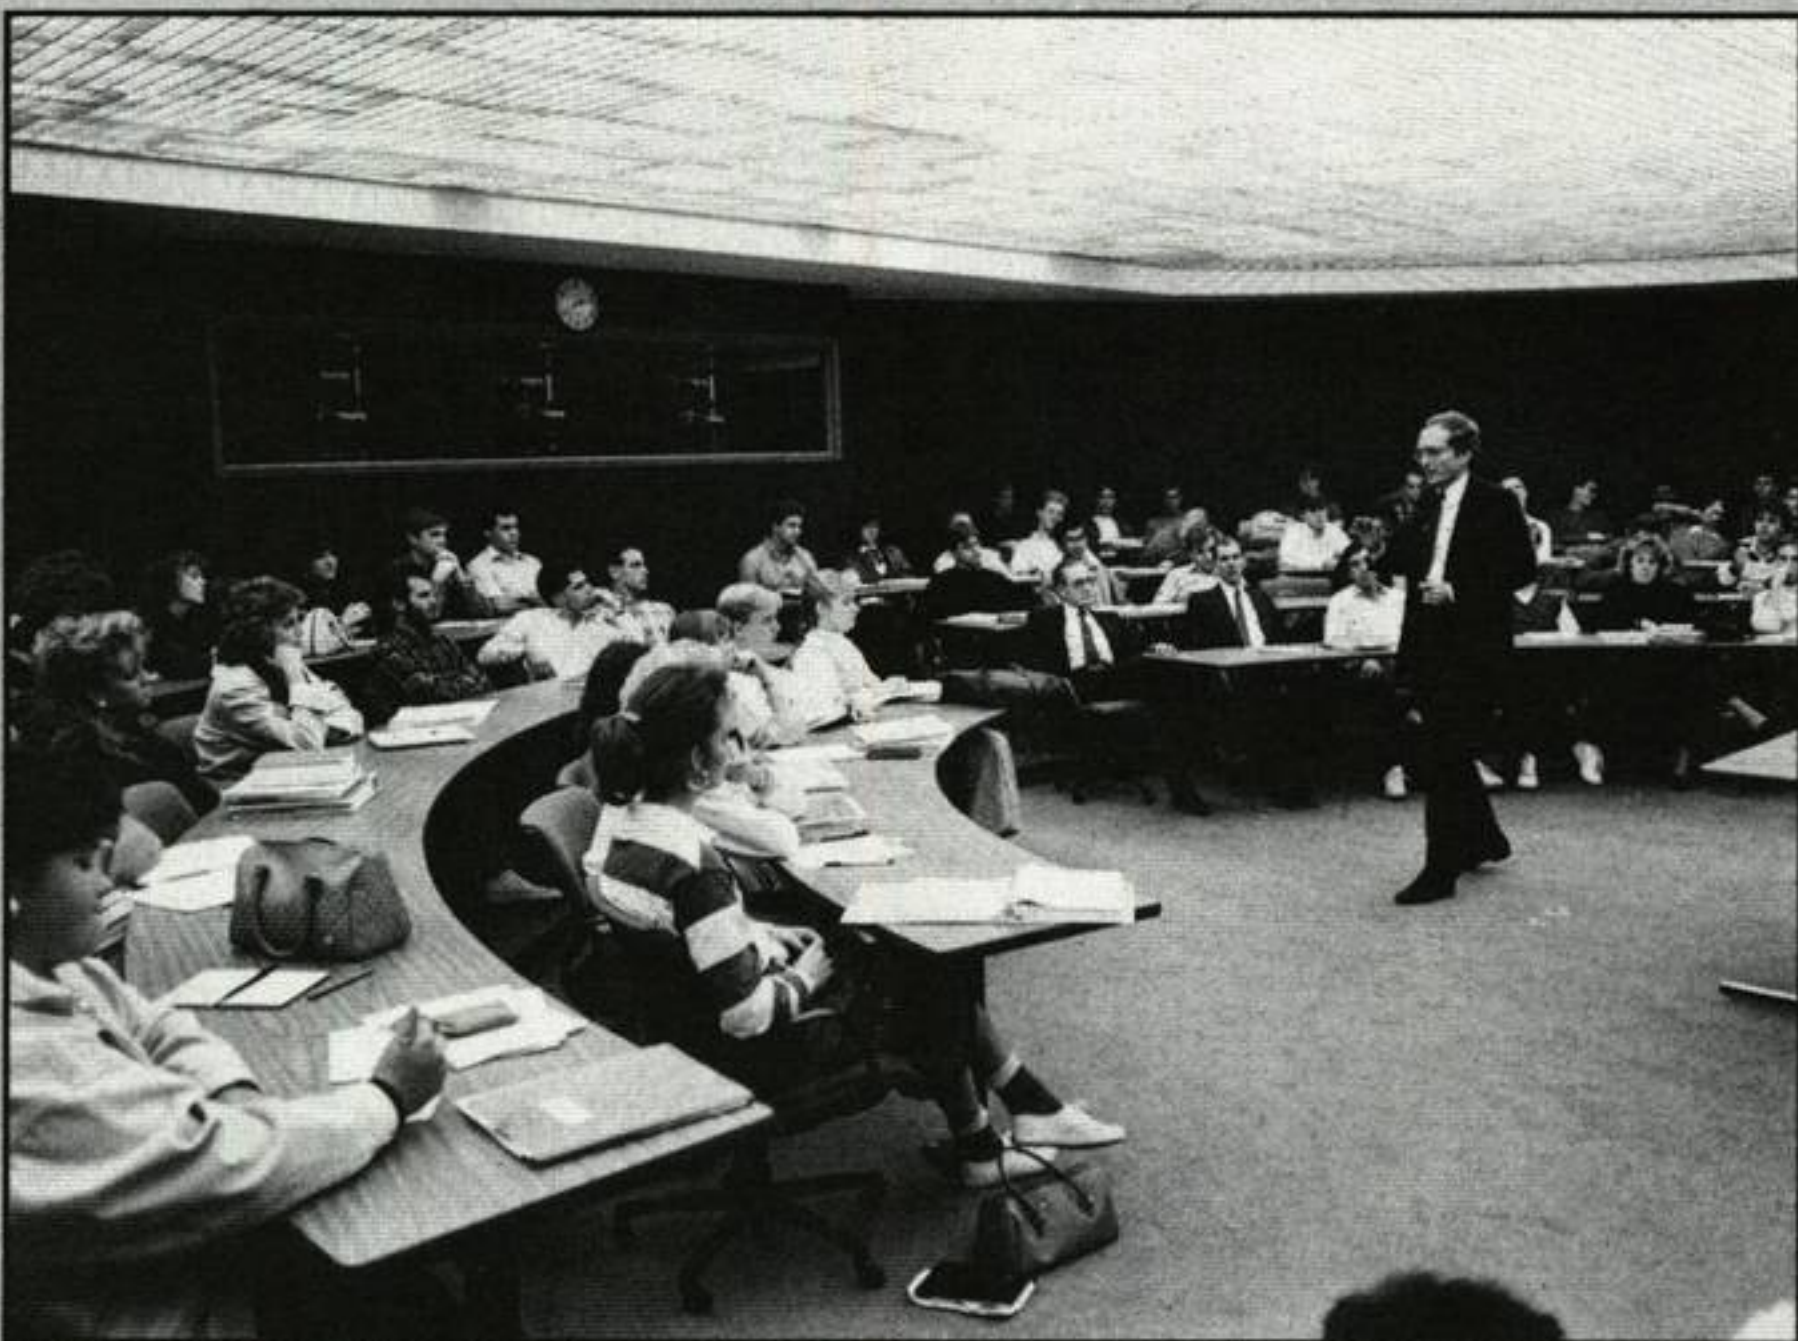

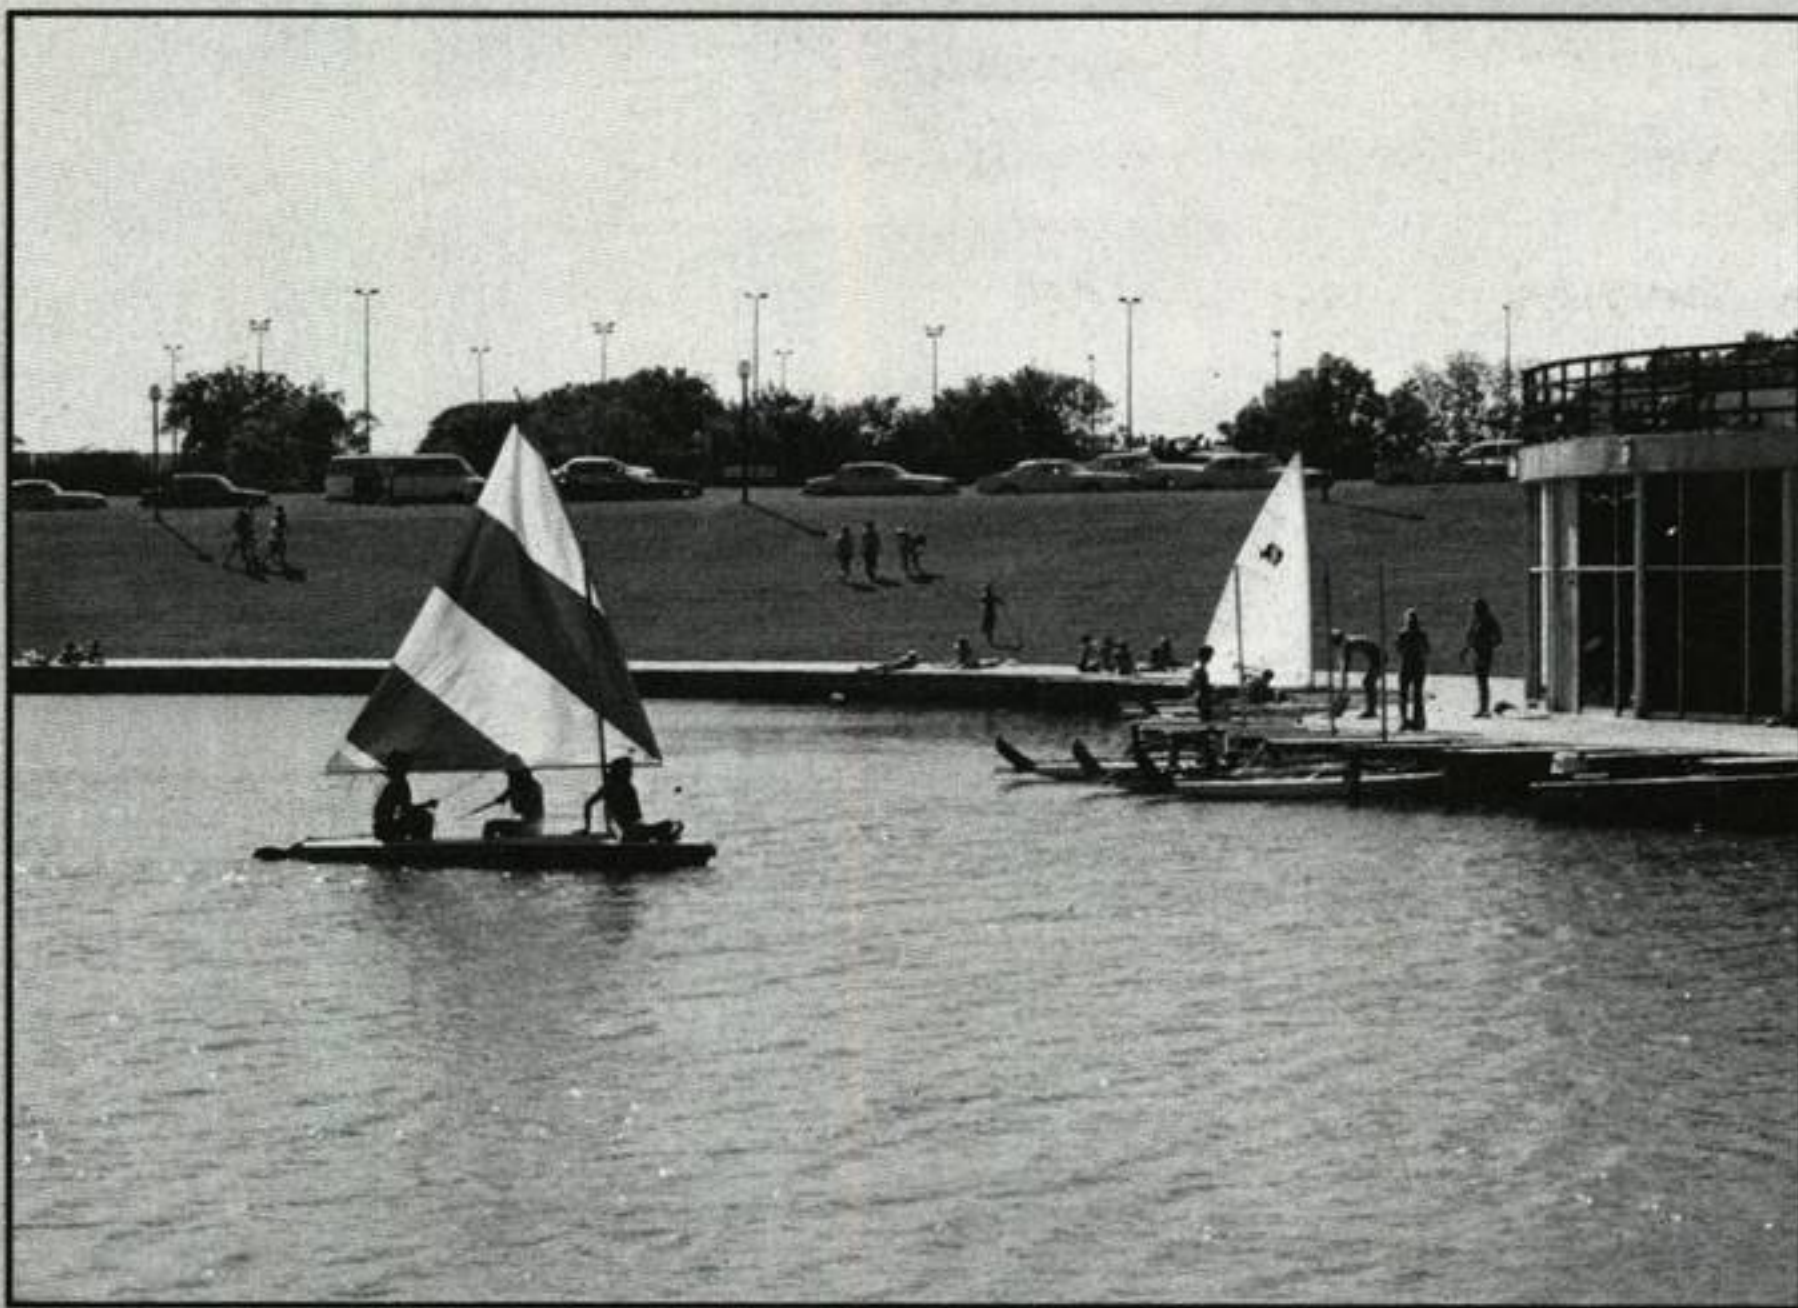

A Vision of Excellence

Backed by tradition and aimed toward the future, Baylor University provides students with the opportunity to grow in a unique environment. From new facilities to international academic programs, Baylor is constantly expanding to meet the needs of its 12,000 students everyday.

Throughout its 147-year history, Baylor has remained consistent in the pursuit of educational excellence. It is the individuals comprising the faculty, administration, and student body which make Baylor what it is today: a university with a vision of excellence for the future.

A Few More Facts...

Baylor University was chartered by the Republic of Texas in 1845 and is the oldest university in continuous existence in the state. As the world's largest Baptist institution of higher education, Baylor strives to provide liberal arts and professional education in a Christian environment.

Baylor emphasizes high academic and personal standards: its primary goal is to prepare students to "make a living and make a life" in a democratic society. Students come to the university from all states, and Baylor welcomes a growing number of international students.

Baylor's undergraduate programs are available in the College of Arts and Sciences and five separate schools: Education, Music, Nursing, Hankamer School of Business, and the University School. Undergraduates may choose from 35 baccalaureate degree programs covering more than 110 major areas of study.

Baylor has approximately 650 faculty members who teach 96 percent of all classes. The student-faculty ratio is 19:1, and a typical class numbers 35 students.

Four basic forms of financial aid—scholarships, grants, loans and campus jobs—are available and are based on merit and need. About 60 percent of the student body receive assistance.

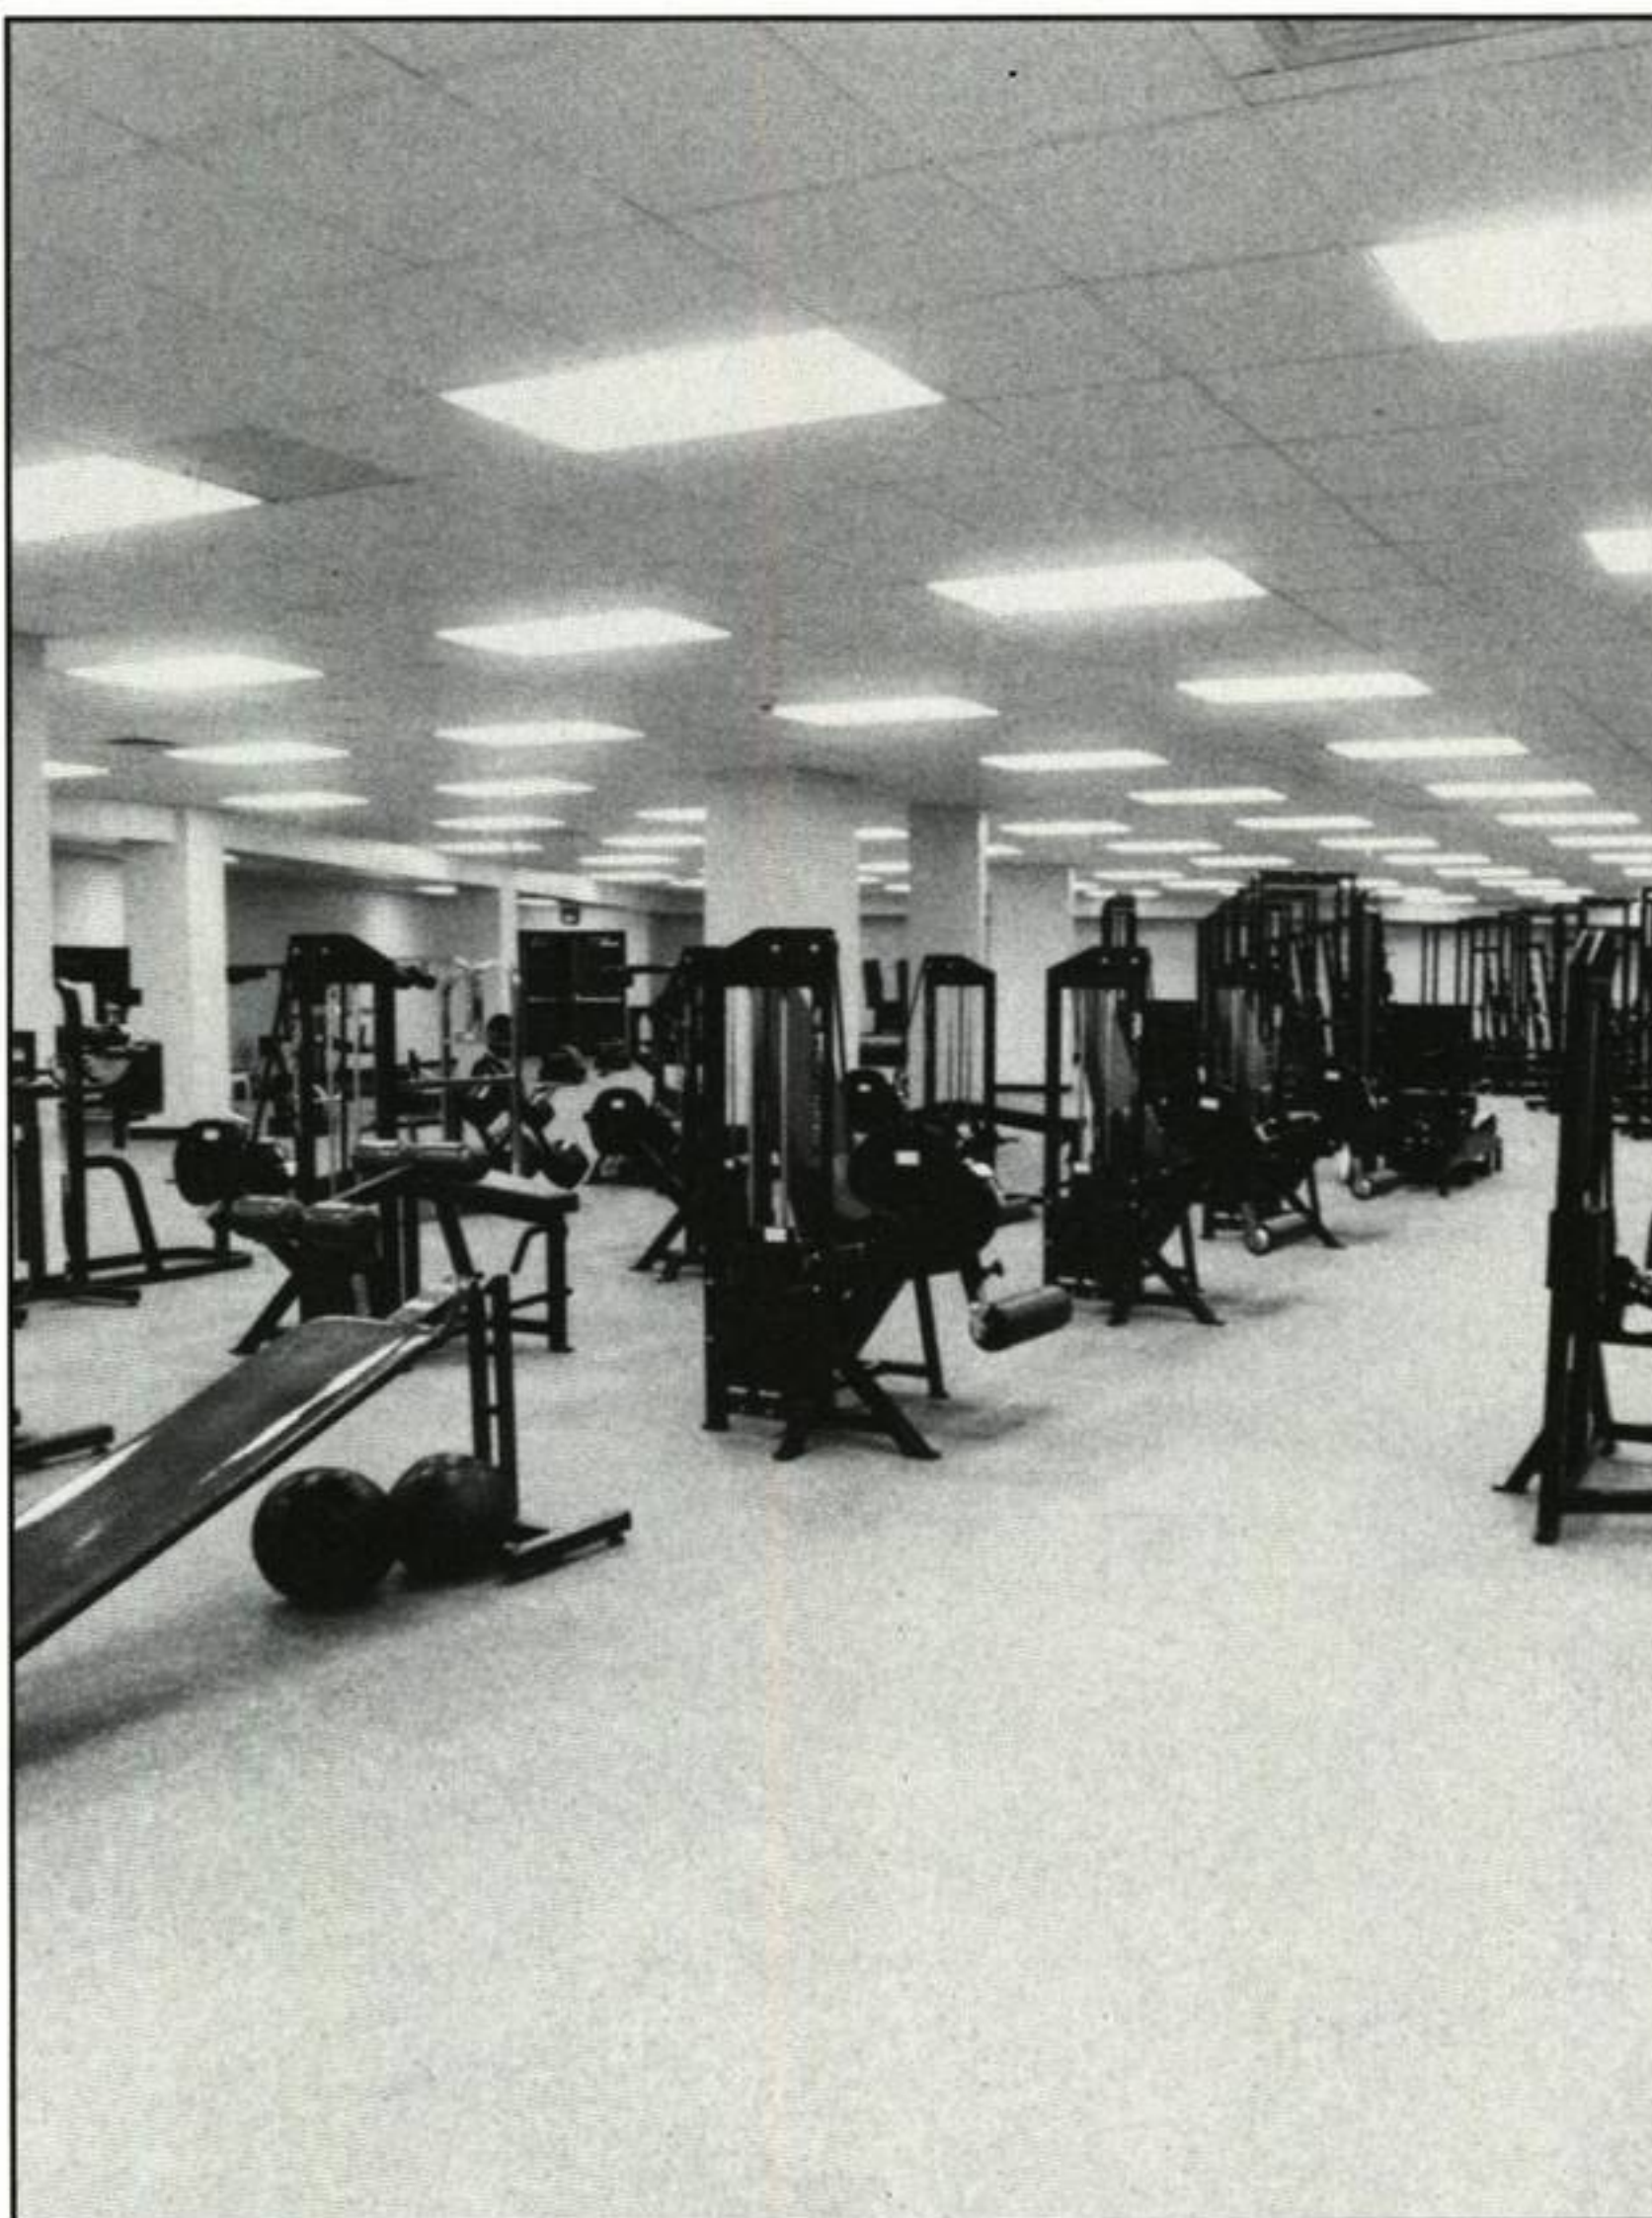

First Class Facilities

Continuing in the tradition of providing the best for its students, Baylor renovated the football stadium and completed construction of the North Endzone Building. The new complex supplies athletes with one of the finest facilities among NCAA Division 1A schools.

The building is the home for the athletic department, the Baylor Bear Club, as well as dressing, training and weight rooms for all athletic teams.

Stadium renovation includes a new All-Pro Turf playing surface and new lights.

Training Advantages

The athletic department's new training facility provides athletes with the best of equipment and personnel.

The training room has enough treatment tables to tape 18 to 20 people at one time. The trainers utilize a physician's examination room and the latest in therapeutic treatment. This treatment includes a testing and rehabilitation system, which tests body parts to prevent injury and rehabilitates them after injury. A seven-person whirlpool is also available for treatment.

The training staff consists of two full time trainers as well as 30 student trainers and managers.

Head Trainer Mike Sims has been a full time member of the Baylor athletic staff since 1981, and Assistant Trainer David Chandler joined him in 1985.

Academic Advisement

The fact that Baylor University graduates its athletes at a higher rate than any other Southwest Conference school (65 percent overall, 62 percent for football) is no accident.

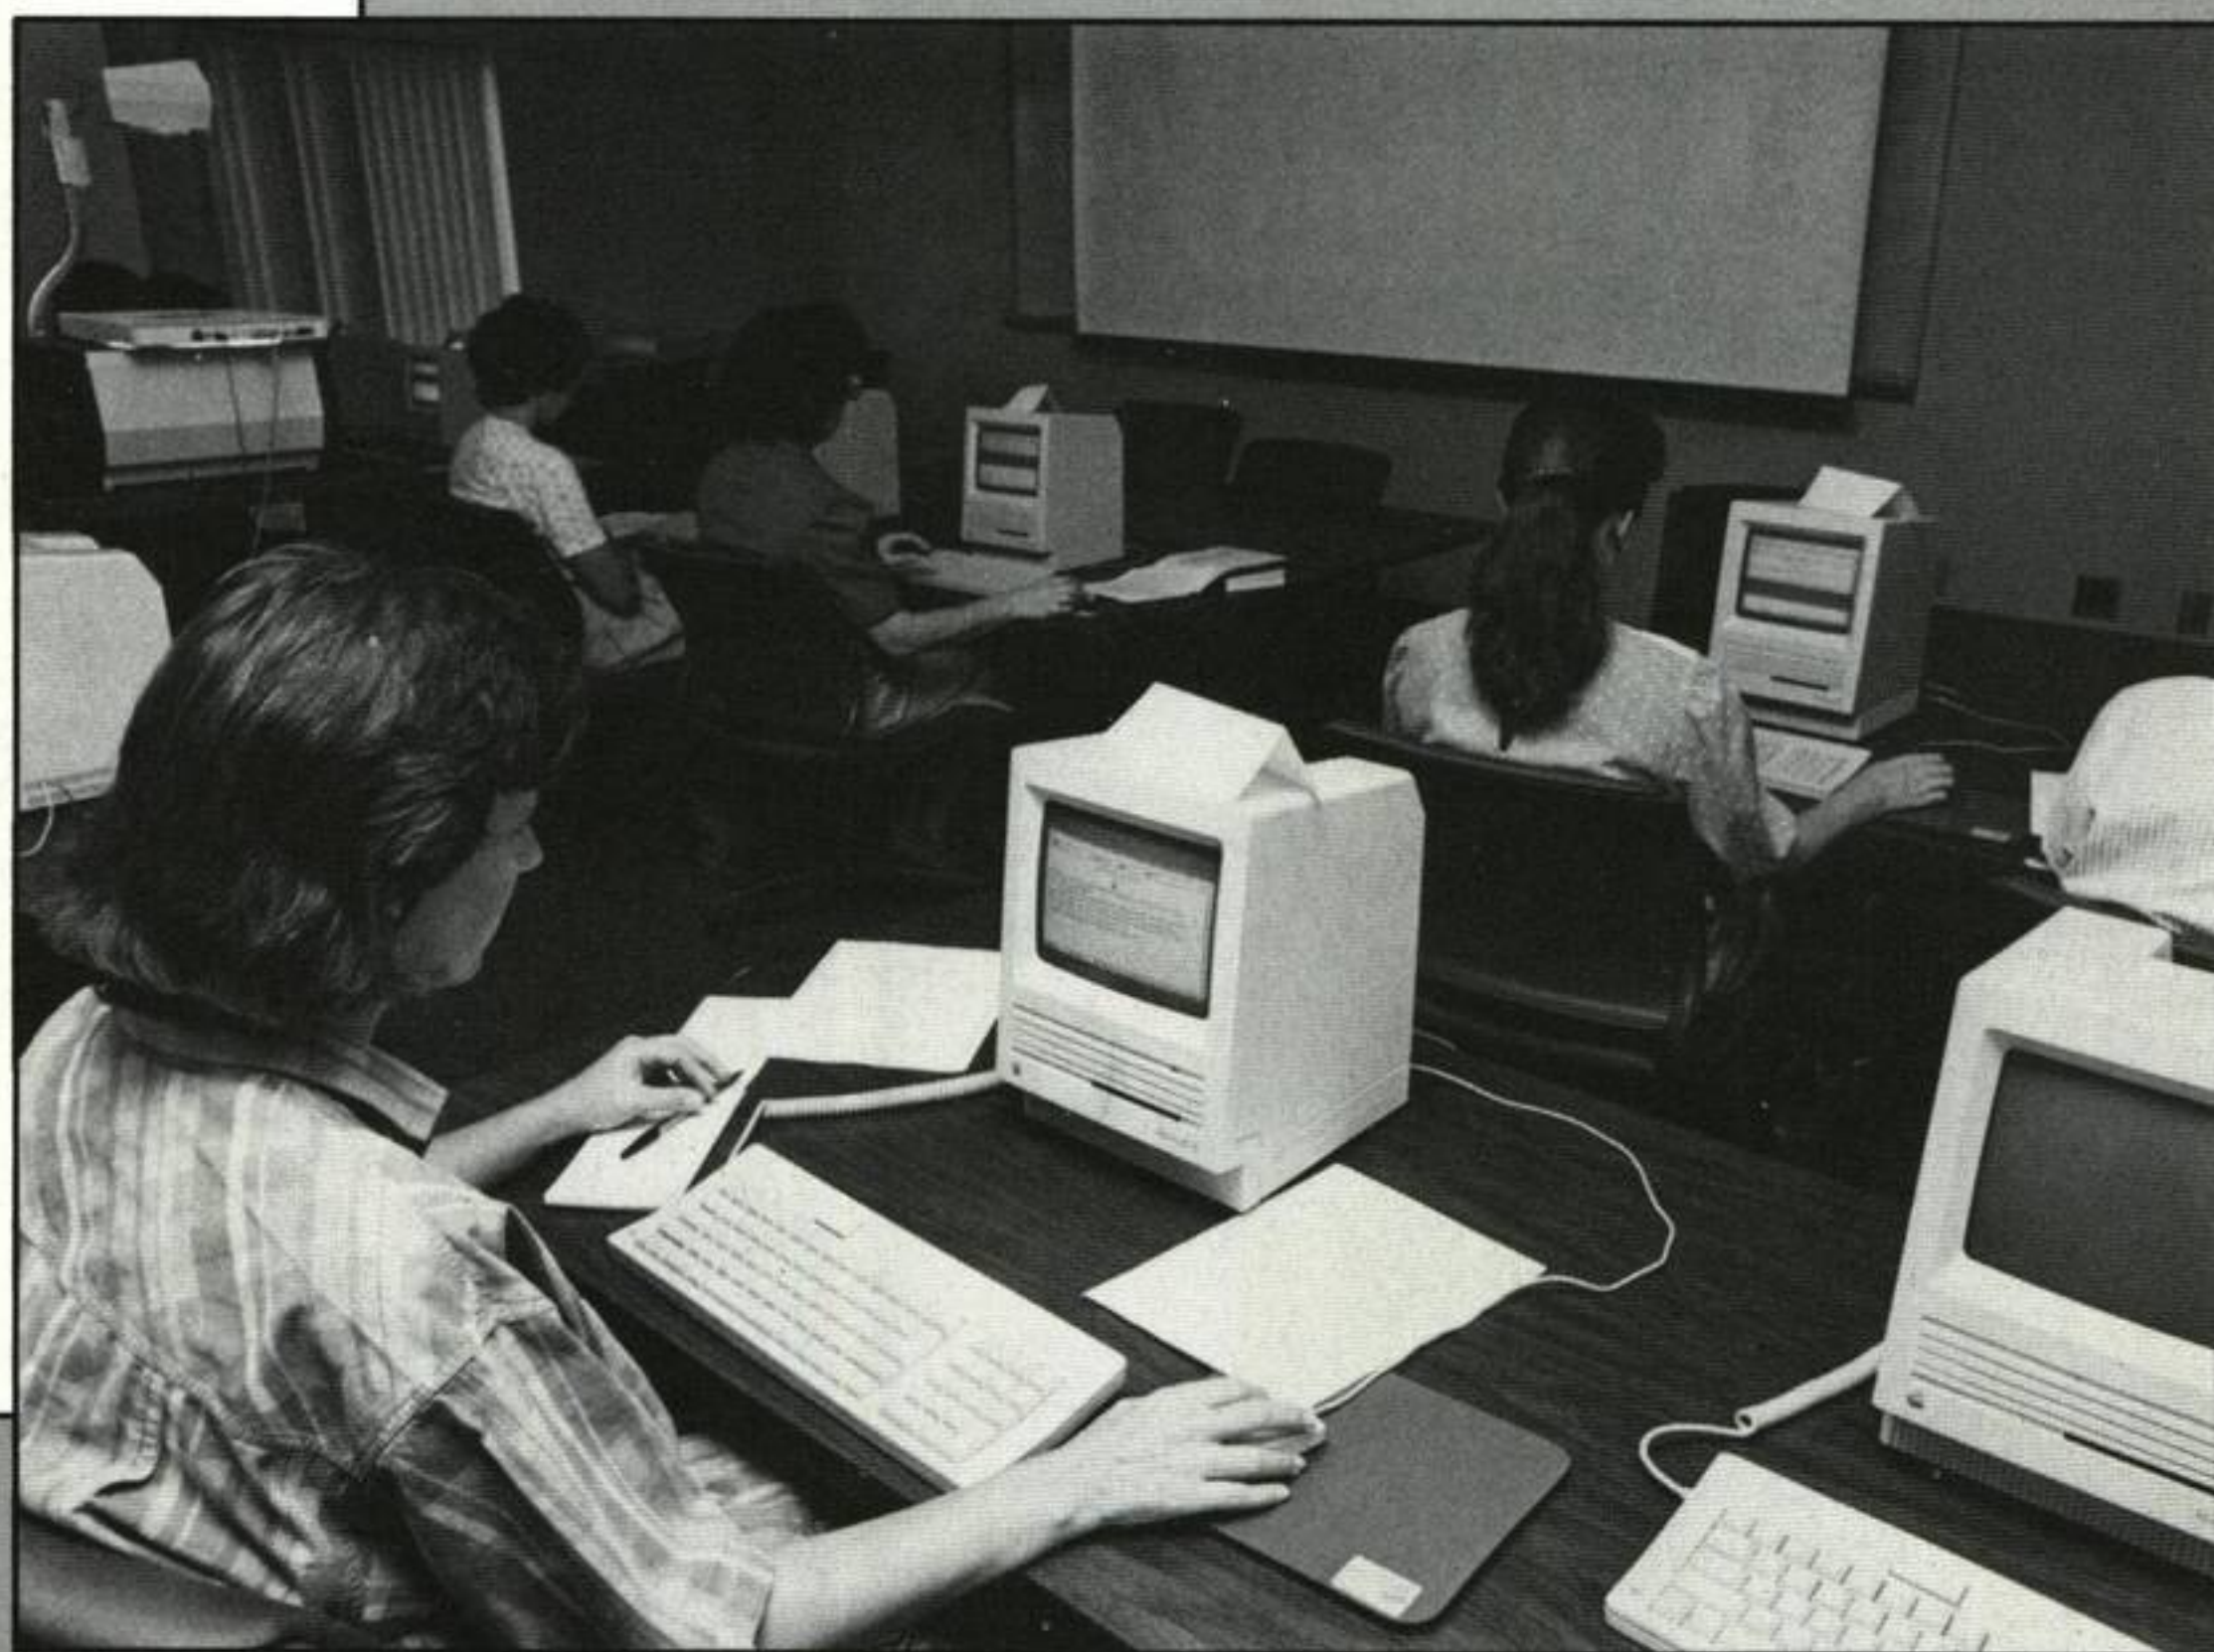

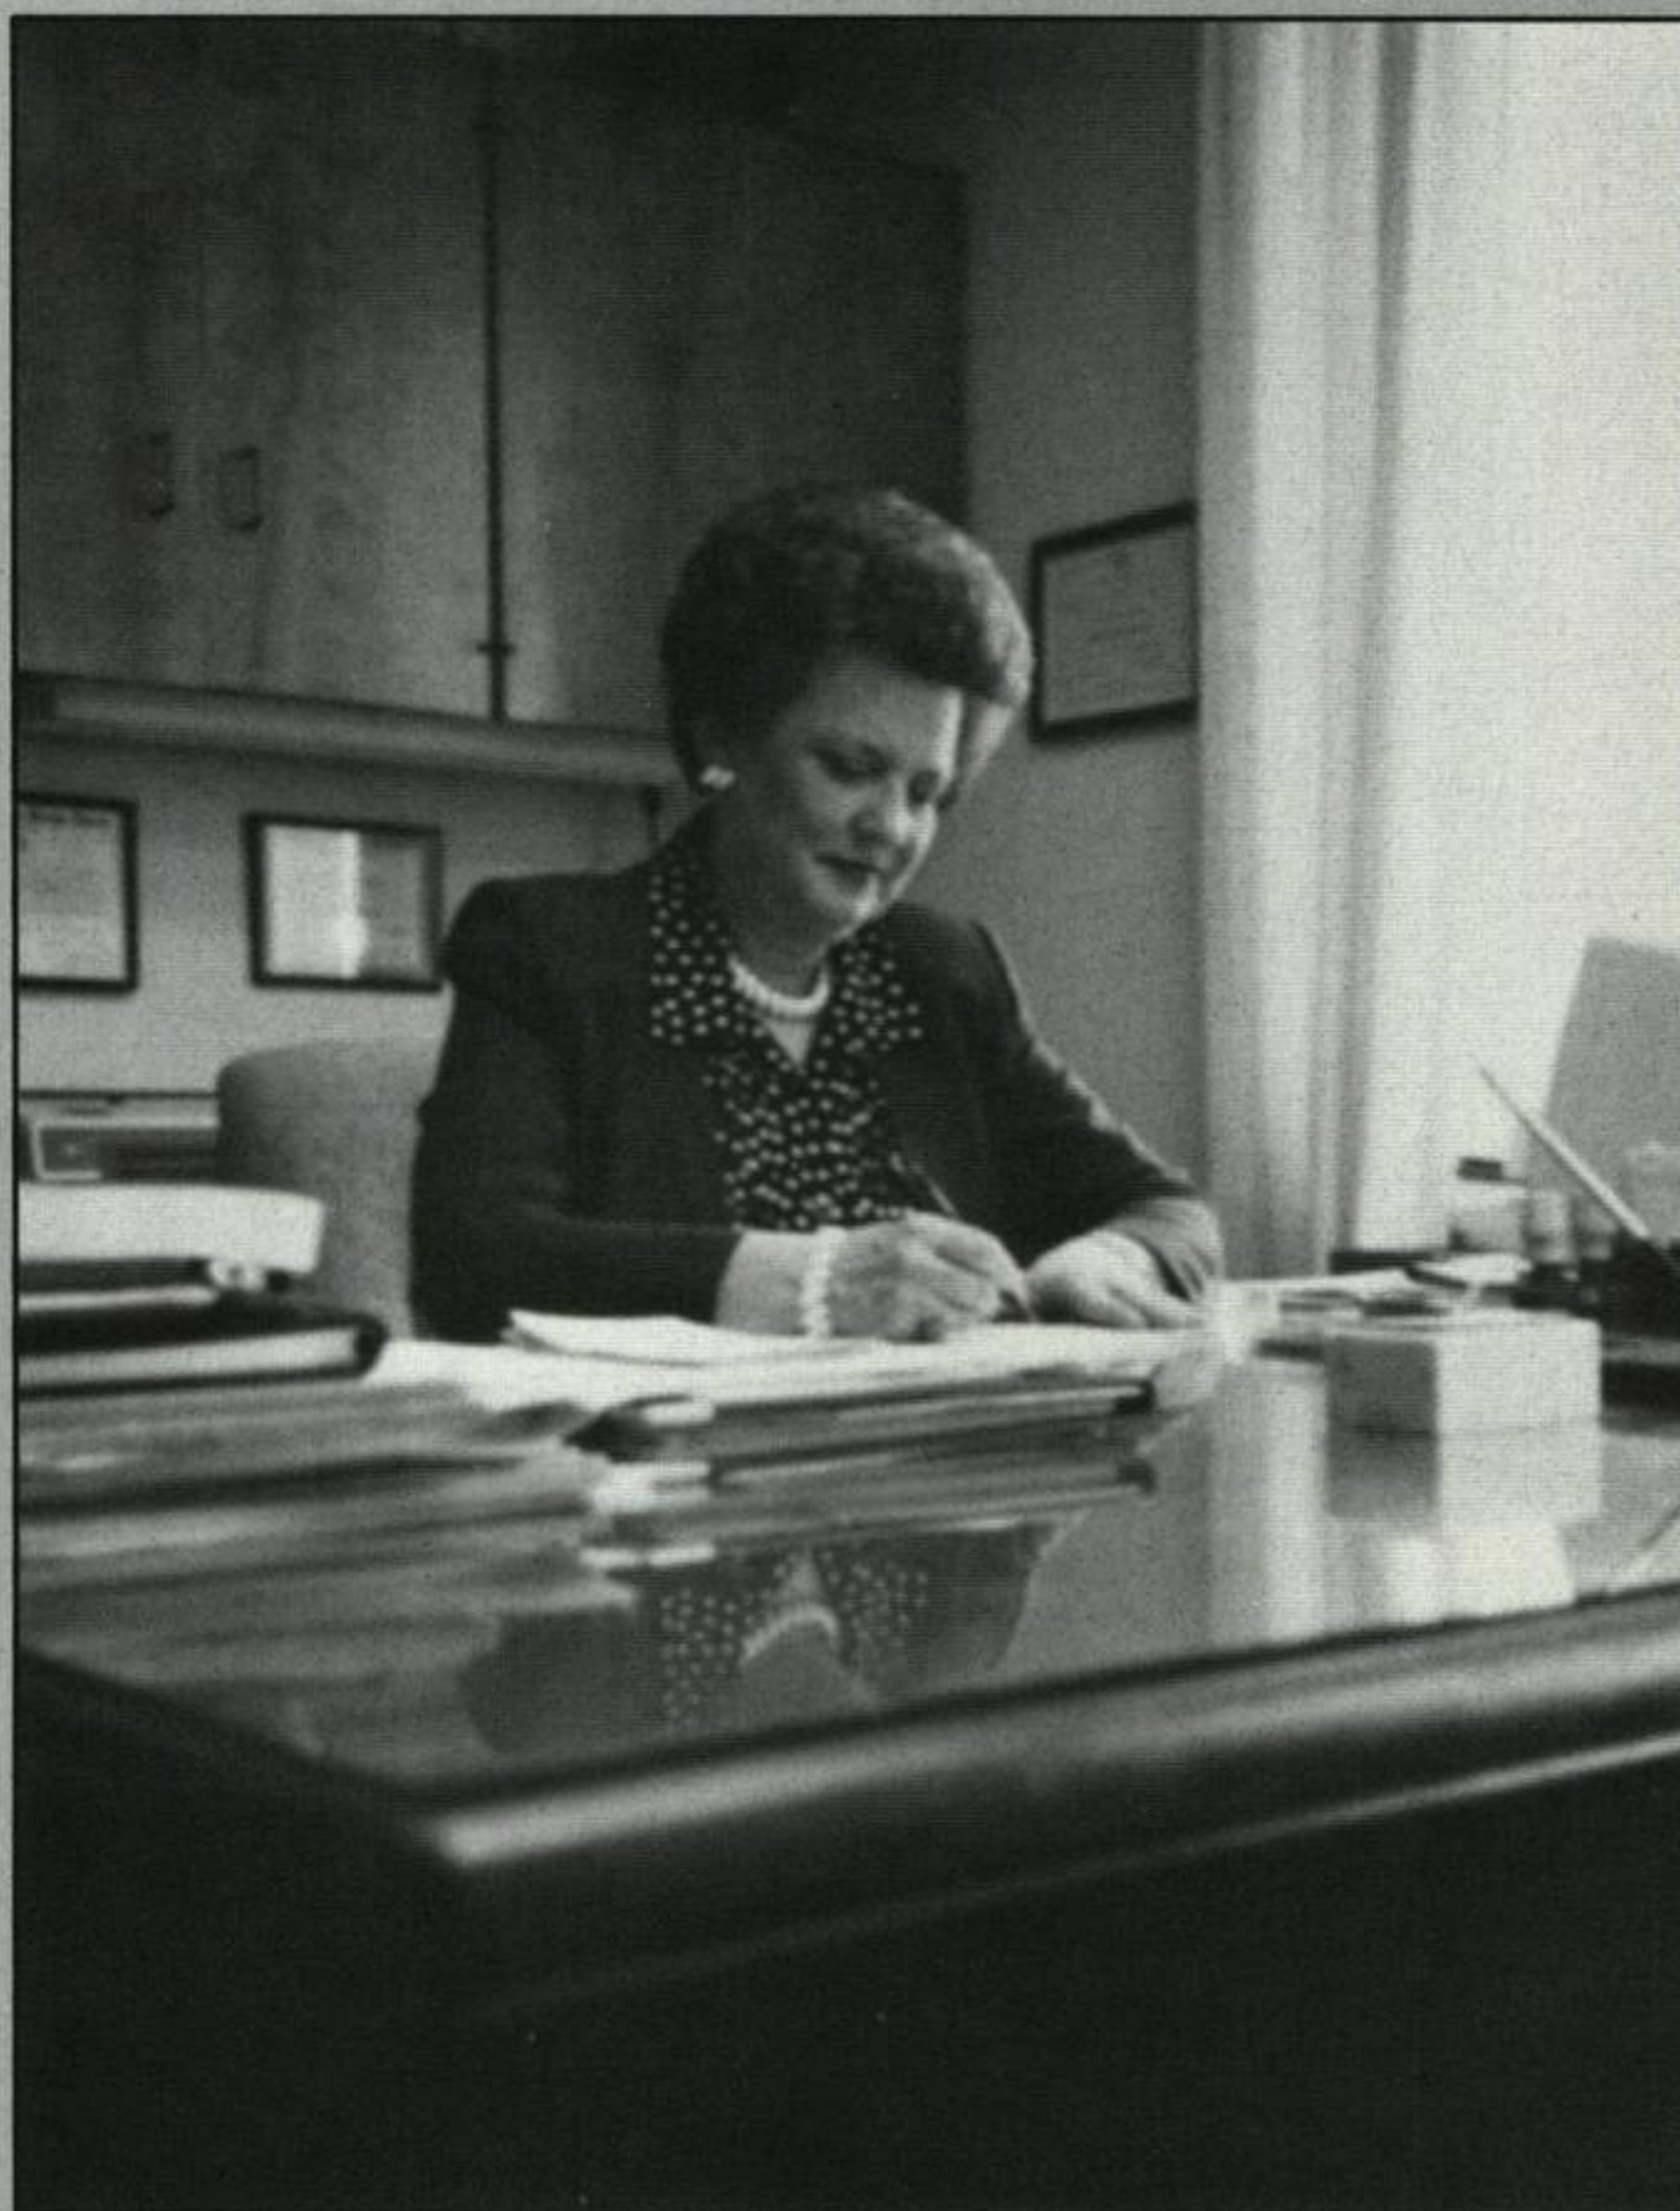

All Baylor athletes are required to meet NCAA regulations concerning their academic standing. Becky Bradley, director of programs for the Office of Student Retention and Athletic Academic Advisement, personally advises the athletes. Bradley makes sure students take courses they need to complete their degree plan.

In order to provide athletes additional support, the office provides an academic support counselor and supervised study halls. These study halls are offered to all students who are advised in the office.

Tutors working in the study hall are primarily graduate students and are available whenever athletes need additional help.

Baylor is No. 1

- In SWC graduation for all athletes, 65%
- In SWC graduation of male athletes, 61%
- In SWC graduation of female athletes, 82%
- In SWC graduation of football players, 62%

The "Quad"

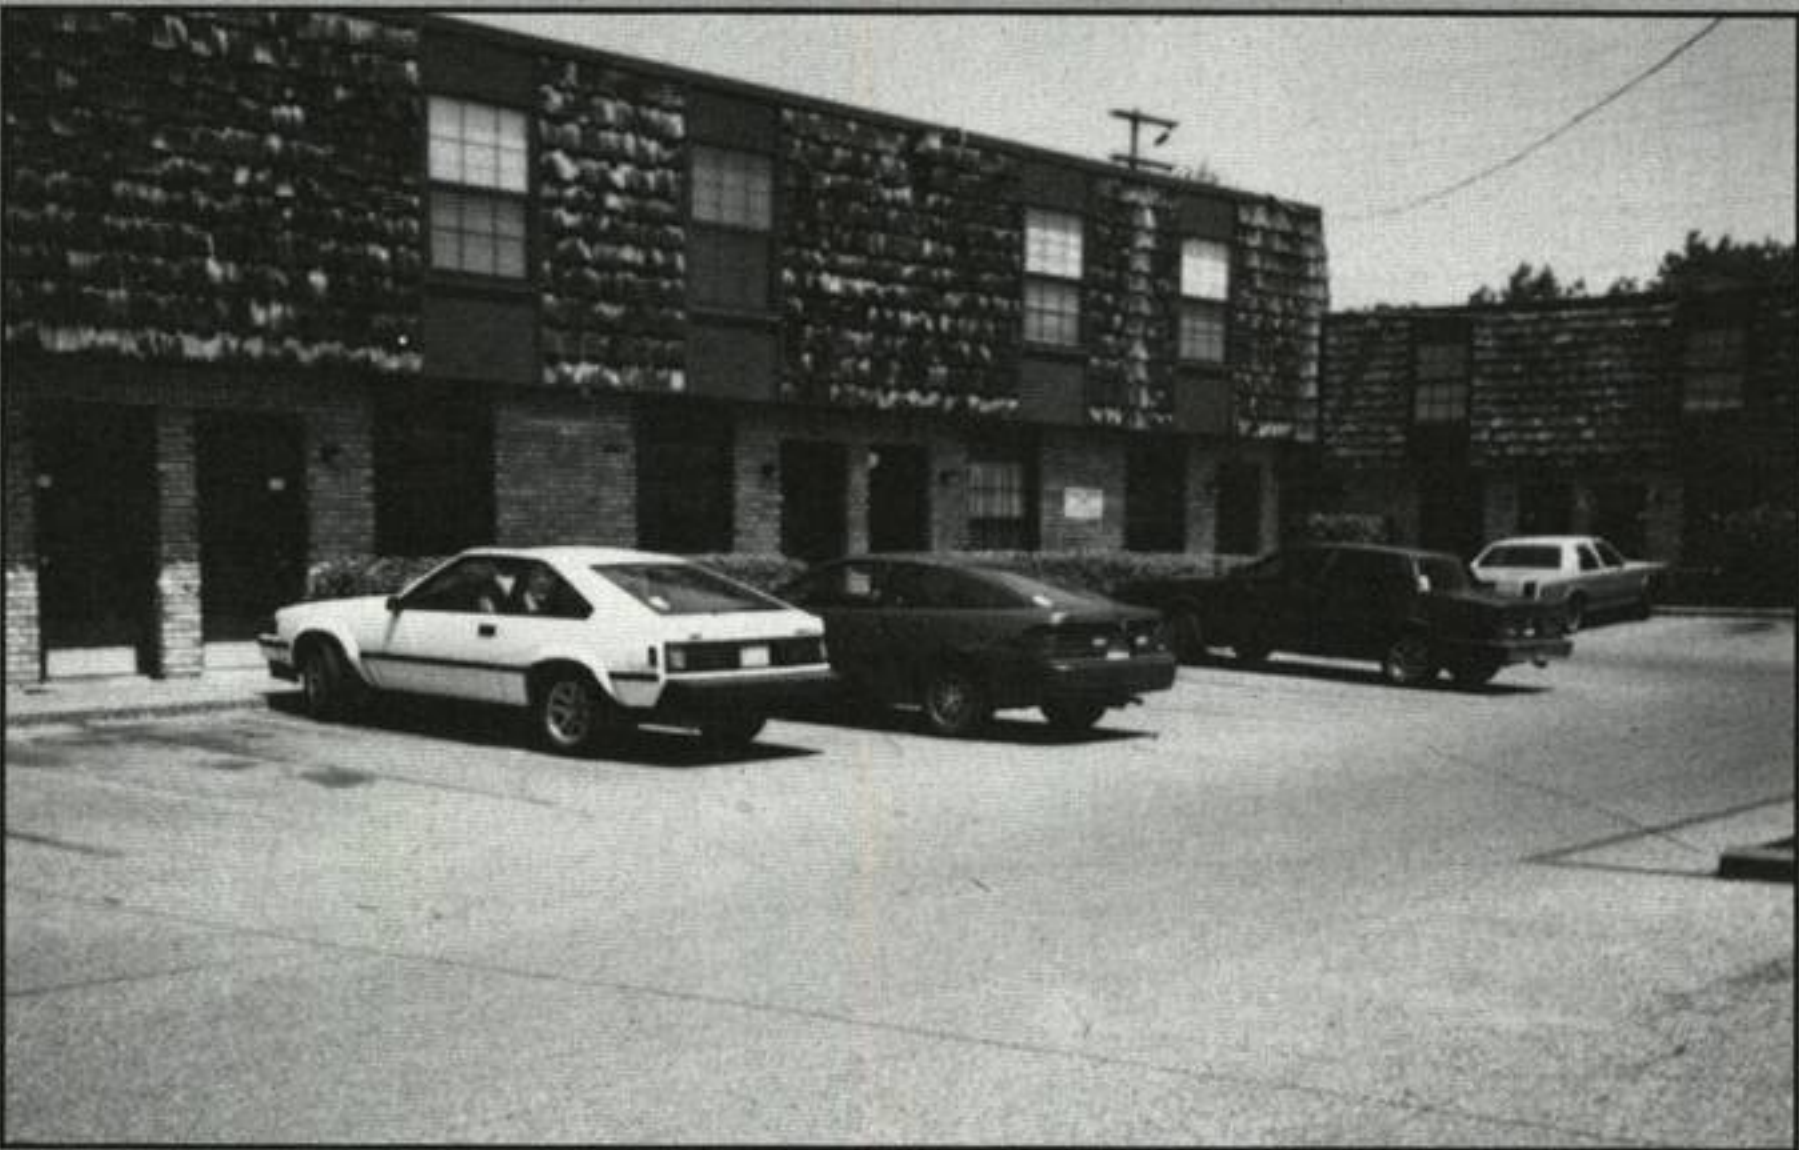

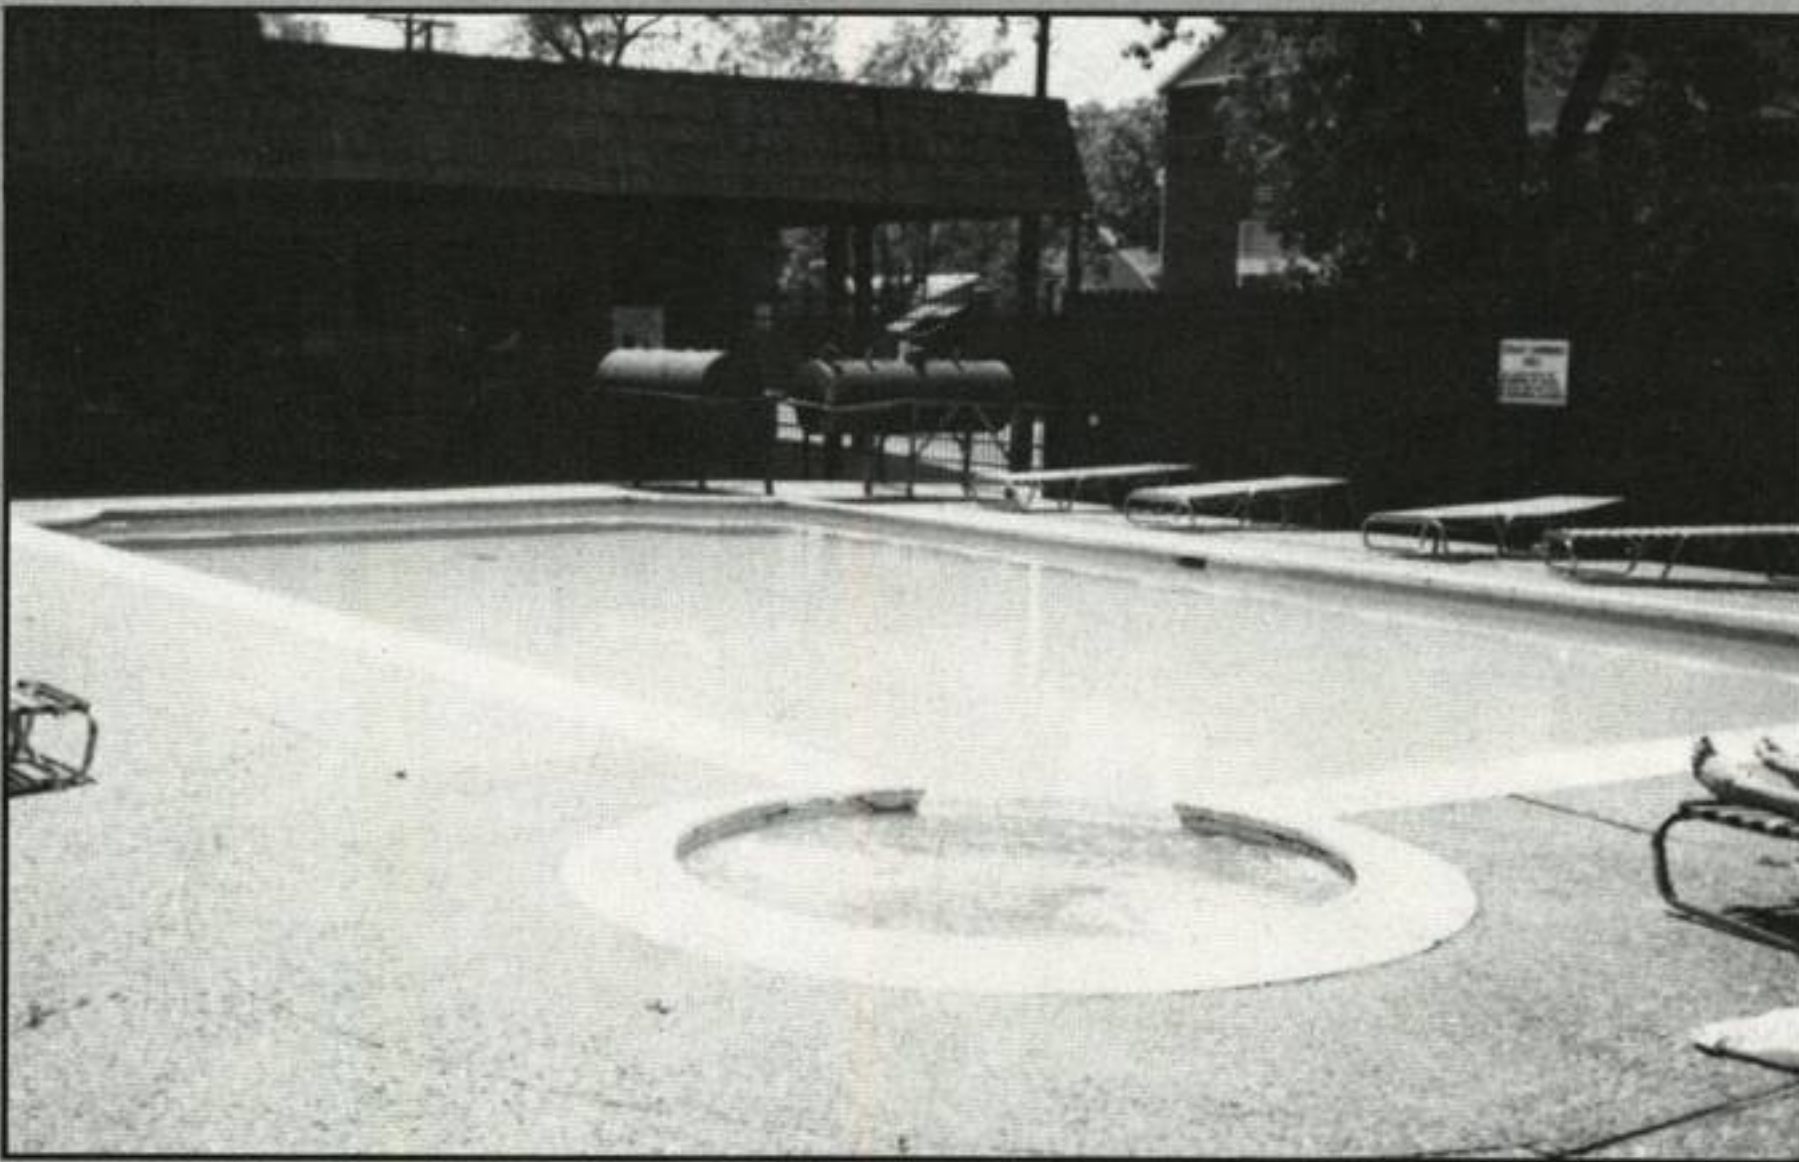

A Housing Alternative

The Quadrangle Apartments, located near the edge of campus, provide housing for many male athletes. An alternative to most athletic housing, the Quad is actual apartments which accommodate three persons per unit.

Each apartment is cable-ready and includes a full kitchen, two bedrooms, and one 1/2 bathrooms. Grade point average determines which athlete gets the single room.

An athletic dining hall is located within the complex and provides service to 100 athletes. The dining hall serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Also within the Quad is a swimming pool, a hot tub, a club room with a 46 inch television, and a study room.

Baylor & Waco

A Perfect Combination

Baylor University has been an integral part of Waco since it moved to the area in 1886.

Baylor is located on the banks of the Brazos River, near downtown Waco. There are 110,000 people in Waco, which is close to the geographic center of the state.

Baylor is within 100 miles of Dallas, Fort Worth, and Austin. It is also within easy driving distance of Houston, San Antonio, and the Gulf Coast.

The city of Waco has many sights and events that Baylor students can enjoy. The Waco suspension bridge, designed by the Brooklyn Bridge creator, is the center of concerts, picnics and celebrations including the Brazos River Festival and Christmas on the Brazos.

Lake Waco, the largest urban lake in Texas, features five public parks with facilities for camping, boating and fishing.

Museums around the Baylor area include the Strecker museum, on campus, which is the oldest natural history museum in Texas, and the Texas Sports Hall Of Fame, which features memorabilia from Texas sports greats.

Many other events in and around Baylor always provide students with something to do.

Preferred Advertisers Club

DARRYL LEHNUS

The Baylor Athletic Department's Preferred Advertisers Club (Pac Club) represents a large group of business advertisers that have chosen to invest in a variety of individualized advertising packages. Included in the wide range of benefits offered to advertisers are scoreboard recognition, program ads, marquee messages, season tickets, signage and promotional opportunities at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Three levels of corporate involvement are available. Diamond Pac members have made advertising investments in excess of $10,000 while Gold Pac advertisers take advantage of package benefits $3,500 or more. Green Pac members are involved in commitments over $2,000.

The Baylor Athletic Department appreciates these businesses and their direct involvement and relationships. The individuals represented here are more than advertisers -- They are friends.

Please thank these friends of Baylor!
